

CONTACT

THE PHOENIX JOURNAL

Y2K—THE NEW MILLENNIUM

KNOWING TRUTH IS NOT ENOUGH, SUCCESSFUL CHANGE REQUIRES ACTION

VOLUME 32, NUMBER 9

NEWS REVIEW

$ 3.00

JUNE 20, 2001

Black Nobility Families Darken, Dominate Earth

5/20/01—#1 (14-277)

RE: SECRET SOCIETIES. Jan van Helsing
(EWERTVERLAG)

HATONN'S COMMENTS FOR TODAY:

Why go through the misery of rewriting all this information on Secret Societies? Because it is synonymous with New World Order under the same Protocols as present basically through the "membership" and more applicable, possibly, to the Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion. Furthermore, you need the background as offered by researchers and investigative writers who didn't "believe it could be so" but certainly FOUND IT TO BE SO.

Because, readers, this is truth about where you are and how you got into this global predicament. A world IN PEACE could be all the better for the unification but a world in war disallows any such freedom—only "use" and abuse of the weaker. Again the example of stronger against weaker instead of strengthening the "weaker". The strongest links in the chain simply absorb and take from the weaker links. The weaker links individually will be smashed with no toleration made by the strongest toward the weaker. Mouth service will be given while the politicians pretend they are negotiating but that is all it will be—a positioning demand by the bigger. And, yes, indeed, the politicians WILL SELL NATION AFTER NATION "DOWN THE DRAIN" AND INTO SLAVERY OF ITS PEOPLE.

We are putting this into SEGMENTS which can be more easily handled in "sittings" for the producer and the readers without total overwhelm. Moreover, there is ample time for backup study and proof of information as we later present a compiled listing of references.

In dealing with parties involved in our program considerations, there is no way for them to cover all this information, absorb it, and timely "move".

This is why a program through use of gold as set forth offers THE SECURITY for all parties involved, including the question of GAIA and/or banking security as well as political assurances.

Let us move on with the document in progress, please. [GCH]

SECRET SOCIETIES AND THEIR POWER IN THE 20TH CENTURY

By Jan van Helsing

[The copy of this remarkable book that has been generously provided to CONTACT—with permission to share as we see fit—is from Spain and will be run unedited (excluding typographical errors and obvious misspellings) sequentially, in parts as a continuing series, in its entirety. For more extensive background information on this book, refer to the first Segment of the series published in the 5/23/01 issue of CONTACT on page 1; Segment 2 (5/30/01, page 1); Segment 3 (6/6/01, page 1); Segment 4 (6/13/01, page1)]
[QUOTING:]

(PART 12)

CHAPTER 12

THE FREEMASONS IN AMERICA

(Continued on page 2)

CONTACT
P.O. Box 27800
Las Vegas, NV 89126

FIRST-CLASS MAIL
U.S. POSTAGE PAID
BAKERSFIELD, CA
PERMIT NO. 758

FIRST CLASS MAIL

ALSO IN THIS ISSUE

- God Always Responds: Sending The Solutions.....page 9
- GAIA Asset Offers Needed Funding Solution.....page 12
- Philippines Needs GAIA: NOW—Very, Very Badly.....page 14
- The News Desk, by John & Jean Ray.....page 16
- When Doing Business In Another State
(Or Country), by Ron Kirzinger.....page 22

After the ROSICRUCIANS had founded their first colony in 1694 in what today is Pennsylvania, the Freemasons proceeded to establish their first lodges around 1730, with the consent of the Mother Grand Lodge in England.

The founding of the United States of America is the result of the secret work by Freemasons over hundreds of years. The American War of Independence had been organized and fought by Freemasons, and the Constitution of the U.S. had been penned and signed by Freemasons. About one third of the American Presidents were Freemasons, and they are well represented in Congress, both in the Senate and in the House of Representatives. The Great seal of the United States with the Pyramid with the all-Seeing Eye on the reverse side, the Phoenix (which in 1841 was replaced by the Bald Eagle) on the obverse and the original Star-Spangled Banner with 13 stripes and 13 stars are all old and important Freemason symbols, which, although they had been designed on behalf of the ROTHSCHILDS and put in place by WEISHAUP, in their symbolism hark back to ancient Egypt. The design of the Illuminati-dollar pyramid is by Philip Rothschild, as his lover Ayn Rand divulged in her book "Atlas Shrugged".

After the War of Independence was over, the American Masonic lodges segregated from the English Mother Grand Lodge and created their proper American Grand Lodge. This comprised the York Rite with ten degrees (the tenth is a Templar degree) and the Scottish Rite with thirty-three.

Most Freemasons think that there are no degrees higher than the thirty-third, but the members of that degree are later initiated into the Illuminati degrees (See No. 11 of the Protocols).

[H: Don't be foolish, readers, to believe that Masonic CLUB members have any more idea of these trappings than do you of the ordinary uninformed public. There is only consideration of oaths and rituals as are integrated into any "Club" which is made up of ordinary citizens. THIS is the very security of the organization structure itself. Most Masons will never see beyond the 32nd degree under any circumstance. The higher manipulative degrees are reserved for the real "do-badders".]

All "Grand Orient" lodges in Europe were already perfectly controlled by the Bavarian Illuminati. The Freemasons of America at this time were not infected by Weishaupt's "Illuminism". This only happened later.

[H: Remember, readers, that WASHINGTON D.C. itself is laid out as in Masonic structure and symbol. I ask that the diagram of same be offered in THIS segment. We will also have reason to again use it later. If there could also be a back and front of the dollar bill run here as well [MM: Don't miss the Illuminati's "wise" owl within the highlighted white circle on the dollar's front, upper-right-hand corner!], it would be of GREAT INTEREST. Do the Congressional participants realize this? Not unless they read this or other recognized references sources. How much did you, as a "general" uninformed reader, know?]

Remarks to Today's Situation:

One has to understand that perhaps 90% of all the organized Freemasons today have not the least idea what their highest leaders who are linked to the Illuminati are actually up to. Like other organizations the Freemasons are used as a blind to further spread the influence of the Illuminati.

Lyndon LaRouche describes them as follows:

JUNE 9, 1992

“Outwardly the local Freemason lodges appear as what they mostly do. They are stag groups following certain charitable aims and use a secret handshake and other secret society hocus-pocus. By getting together they think they can set themselves up as important local figures. It is good for business, good for the career. The wives, too, have thus the right social environment and perhaps get to hear the newest gossip from the neighborhood. But at the top things are completely different. The simple lodge brother has no idea what happens at the top...” (NEUE SOLIDARITAT, March 10, 1993).

It is also interesting to note that while German Freemasons from Prussia entered the service of America, other German Freemasons supported England and thereby made fantastic profits. Almost 30,000 soldiers from six German states, more than half from Hesse-Hanau, were loaned to the English Government. In many battles there were more German than English soldiers fighting in the British army against the Americans. In the battle of Trenton for instance there were only Germans fighting.

How about the financial state of the United States of America?

The U.S. Presidents B E N J A M I N FRANKLIN and THOMAS JEFFERSON were inimical to the establishment of a private central bank for the control of the U.S. currency.

After Franklin's death in 1790 the Rothschild agents got ALEXANDER HAMILTON appointed as secretary of the treasury. In 1791 he created the “FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF THE UNITED STATES”, the first central bank fashioned after the “Bank of England” and controlled by the Rothschilds.

In 1811, when the contract of the bank with the U.S. lapsed, the American economy was so destabilized that the contract was not renewed for five years. The Rothschilds then used their influence in the British Parliament to have England reclaim her colonies in America. This led to the 1812-1815 war. The war again put the U.S. so much in debt that they had to ask the bankers once more for loans (i.e. the central bank).

In 1836, under President Andrew Jackson, the central bank was again disapproved, but it got the concession back in 1863 and in 1913 became the “Federal Reserve Bank”, today's central bank of the U.S. (more details will follow).

After the death of Mayer Amschel in 1812 Nathan had custody of the family's fortune. In this position he opened the NATHAN MAYER ROTHSCHILD & SONS BANK in London, with branches in Vienna,

Paris and Berlin. This bank dealt in stocks and loans, it insured governments, it managed and controlled other banks, railroads, steel plants, arms production and many more. In America it was represented by KUHN LOEB & CO., by J.P. MORGAN & CO. and by AUGUST BELMONT & CO.

Nathan kept this position in the family clan until he was poisoned at a family gathering in 1836. The reason for the meeting was the marriage of his son LIONEL ROTHSCHILD. Some say that Nathan was executed because he had helped himself to some of the family fortune.

His son LIONEL was very successful as the new boss of N.M. ROTHSCHILD & SONS and eventually became a Member of Parliament.

Jakob (James) Rothschild from the Paris branch was custodian of the family fortune from 1836 to 1868. He had been next in line after Nathan.

of Rothschild then had Bickley and his knights extol the disadvantages of the Union for the Confederate States. In the remaining Union states the Rothschilds had J.P. Morgan and August Belmont praise the advantages of the Union.

The London Rothschild bank financed the North, the Paris bank the South. A fantastic business for the Rothschilds. If you finance both sides and support the arms as well, you can but win. Here, the Americans were the only losers, both the North and the South (Machiavelli sends his regards).

[H: This deserves far more reference than it gets herein—especially when you figure-in the confederate MONEY and the “Jewish” CARPETBAGGERS.]

It happened though that President Lincoln saw through this and refused to pay the Rothschilds' immense interests. He then asked Congress to have the Greenback dollars made in order to pay the Union troops.

This of course ran contrary to the plans of the Rothschilds and led to them having Lincoln murdered by their agent JOHN WILKES BOOTH on April 14, 1865. John W. Booth was later freed from jail by the Knights of the Golden Circle and spent the rest of his life quite comfortably in England, thanks to the handsome payment by Rothschild.

After Lincoln's death the greenbacks were withdrawn and later bought in at a ridiculous price by the central bankers Morgan, Belmont and Rothschild.

[H: How many of YOU readers were taught these “little” tidbits in the establishments schools? How many of you trained, especially in such as Harvard Business School, Yale, Cambridge, Stanford, et al., were ever even EXPOSED to such truth? No, you were told exactly what the trained professors were given to pound into your heads and if you failed to fit the mold—you were promptly dismissed (FAILED).

Can you begin, if you are first exposed here to this information, to realize what happened and the massive brain-scrubbing you have undergone? Oh, there can be denial after denial—but enough history remains to prove these events even though the teachings and documents have been archived beyond reach, banned and/or destroyed to hide the truth.

Fortunately for the world, there will be some who through reason and logic will LOOK AGAIN at the state of affairs and realize there was a big wash

The Rothschilds together with the Bavarian Illuminati represented the financial power behind Zionism and later communism and they had started and financed many revolutions and wars.

For instance did the Rothschilds finance both sides of the Civil War in the U.S. between 1861-1865? From December 1860 to May 1861 eleven states whose economy depended on slavery (the Southern States) declared they wanted to leave the Union and formed the “Confederate States”. In April 1861 this led to the secession war against the remaining Union states in the north. The reasons leading to this civil war were almost completely due to the actions and provocations of ROTHSCHILD AGENTS. One of those troublemakers was GEORGE BICKLEY, who had founded the “KNIGHTS OF THE GOLDEN CIRCLE”. The House job being accomplished in everything from these background foundations to such as the Holocaust which COULD NOT HAVE TAKEN PLACE “AS PRESENTED”. I certainly qualify, as always, the statement above, for there certainly was a so-called “holocaust” BUT IT COULD NOT HAVE BEEN “AS PRESENTED”—EVEN LOGISTICALLY! NOW, THE JEWISH “APPOINTED PARTIES” ARE GOING TO BE GIVEN FUNDING FOR HAVING BEEN “SLAVES” IN THE CAMPS AND FACTORIES IN GERMANY ETC. (???) I ASK WHAT HAPPENS IN “WAR”?

Do none of you wonder at such claims as when more get restitution for involvement than were even alive to be counted? Remember that the truly “Jewish” people are the first and worst hurt during and as a result of the terrible games and lies.]

CHAPTER 13

KARL MARX

A branch of the BAVARIAN ILLUMINATI that at the time was known as the “League of the Just” and had come from one of the most successful revolutionary secret groups in France, the “SOCIETIES DES QUATRE SAISONS” (Society of the Four Seasons), enlisted two new members, the Jew MOSES MORDECHAI MARX LEVI (alias Karl Marx) and his friend, the industrialist FRIEDRICH ENGLS, who later wrote the “Communist Manifesto” for them. Part of the manifesto came from their minds, but the largest section was the ideology of the “League of the Just” and other French secret societies who took a revolutionary stance towards France.

Gary Allen writes:

“In actual fact the ‘Communist Manifesto’ was in circulation for many years before Marx’s name was widely enough recognized to establish his authorship for this revolutionary handbook. All Karl Marx really did was to update or codify the very same revolutionary plans and principles set down seventy years earlier by Adam Weishaupt, the founder of the Order of Illuminati in Bavaria. (None Dare Call it Conspiracy)”

[H: May I remind all of you that these “Manifestos” all come directly from the Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion! This includes the Nazi Manifesto and more directly at that time was recognized as the Jew’s Manifesto or the AshkeNAZI Manifesto. Ouch! What does that tell you about the “New World Order” and the cover-up of truth and reality? What could this mean to the time of the German wars and specifically the impact on possibilities of the World War II Holocaust?

Another point to note is that the CURRENT POPE of the Roman Catholic Church is a Polish JEW. This same man sold “gas” to the Germans for use in the concentration camps—they said for “delousing”.

People, the bigger the lie the more easily it is to sell it to you-the-people. Can you see how much easier it is to believe the lie after a brain-pounding, repetition and constantly reinforced than to simply offer truth? Why do you think “terms” are programmed and established media is totally controlled for output and YOUR input? The controllers are trained in total manipulation and psychological brainwashing and sensitization programs. Note that violence is not even noted these days where the worse violence has no balance with reality and you feed that violence and the lies directly pipelined into your children’s brains with “How to” drilled right into the functioning program.

EXAMPLE: How many of you think Ann Frank of the Nazi era and Shindler’s List was true portrayal of persons and events? Well, NO, they are not. Ann Frank is fully fictional and told as same by the author of the information. Shindler’s List, by Spielberg’s own statements was FICTIONAL. It became “real” when it was demanded to be shown in schools and accepted as a documentary. THIS IS HOW YOU BECOME PEOPLE OF THE LIE(S). THIS IS ALSO WHY MEDIA AND PRESS ARE SO IMPORTANT FOR INSTILLING MORE DEEPLY THE LIES.]

The “fight against capitalism” could now proceed. Thanks to his intellectual prowess Marx succeeded in changing the image of the league which in 1847 changed its name to “COMMUNIST LEAGUE”.

This now shows clearly how the Bavarian Illuminati created in England and in America “capitalist” systems and on the other hand “anti-capitalist”, i.e. “communist”, systems to profit in Machiavellian manner from the conflict thus produced and to keep humanity in constant discord and therefrom confusion.

CHAPTER 14

THE PLAN FOR A WORLD GOVERNMENT

WEISHAUPHT died in 1830 at the age of eighty-two. In 1834 GIUSEPPE MAZZINI assumed leadership of the Bavarian Illuminati and held this position until his death in 1872.

While he was leading the order of the Bavarian Illuminati, Mazzini corresponded with the Satanist ALBERT PIKE, the “SOVEREIGN GRAND COMMANDER OF THE ANCIENT AND ACCEPTED SCOTTISH RITE OF FREEMASONRY”, of the Southern Jurisdiction of the U.S. and later the founder of the “KU KLUX KLAN”.

Mazzini had named Pike leader of operations of the Bavarian Illuminati in the U.S. As top illuminists the two worked together. Pike took on the theosophical aspects of their operations, Mazzini the political ones. When the Masonic Lodges of the Grand Orient got into disrepute in Europe due to the revolutionary activities of Mazzini, the latter presented Pike with a plan of genius.

In a letter to Pike, dated January 22, 1870, Mazzini wrote:

“We must allow all of the federations to continue just as they are, with their systems, their central authorities and their diverse modes of correspondence between high grades of the same rite, organized as they are at present, but we must create a super rite, which will remain unknown, to which we will call those Masons of high degree whom we shall select. With regard to our brothers in Masonry, these men must be pledged to the strictest secrecy. Through this supreme rite, we will govern all Freemasonry which will become the one international centre, the more powerful because its direction will be unknown.” (Occult Theocracy, Lady Queenborough, and None Dare Call it Conspiracy, Gary Allen.)

Apparently this is the elite of the 33rd degree of the Scottish Rite. The ideology of this degree is given in the next chapter.

In a letter of August 15, 1871 PIKE showed the Illuminati leader Mazzini in an outline how to conquer the world with three world wars, the way to establish “THE NEW WORLD ORDER”.

The FIRST WORLD WAR should be staged to bring Czarist Russia under the control of the Bavarian Illuminati. Russia should then be used as a “bogey man” to further the aims of the Bavarian Illuminati world-wide.

The SECOND WORLD WAR should be started by manipulating the differences between the German Nationalists and the Political Zionists. This was to result in an expansion of Russian influence and the establishment of a State of Israel in Palestine.

The THIRD WORLD WAR was planned to result from the differences stirred up by Illuminati agents between the Zionists and the Arabs. The conflict was planned to span the world.

It is also a part of the Third War to set Nihilists and Atheists against one another to provoke a social reversal by hitherto unknown savagery and brutality.

After the destruction of Christianity and Atheism one would show men the true “Luciferian Doctrine” and thereby kill two birds with one stone.

[H: OUCH!! WHERE DO YOU SUPPOSE YOU ARE, TIMEWISE?]

Remarks to Today’s Situation (by the author):

Having Russia as the bogeyman (concept of the enemy) the Western nations should be forced into SUPRANATIONAL alliances they would not have entered by themselves (NATO, UN). Also having the former Russian empire as the enemy of the world tremendously helped international arms deals, which again profited the international bankers.

This shows us that behind the Second World War there is yet a scenario completely DIFFERENT from what HISTORY BOOKS tell us.

CHAPTER 15

ALBERT PIKE AND THE KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN

Here we have to deal again with ALBERT PIKE and the “Scottish Rite” of the Freemasons. Officially, the Masonic order of the “Scottish Rite” started in 1801 in the U.S. from a group of Tory followers. These however had cultivated anti-Christian and Satanic practices before.

Since about 1840 the organisational structure of the American Freemasons was under the severe supervision of the “Scottish Rite”. The latter bestows initiation degrees up to the 33rd degree. It is divided into a Southern Jurisdiction in Arkansas and a northern jurisdiction in Boston.

As an instrument of strategy for the CROWN (explained in the next chapter), the “Scottish Rite” conducted in the middle of the last century an incessant offensive of murder and racist terror against the U.S. and the neighbouring states. The most important incidences were the American occupation of Mexico during the Mexican War (1846-1848), the rebellion of the slave-holders, i.e. the Civil War (1861-1865) and the crusade of the Ku Klux Klan against the rebuilding of the Southern States (1867-1870).

The “KNIGHTS OF THE GOLDEN CIRCLE” founded by George Bickley appeared here for the first time, in Cincinnati, under the leadership of KILIANEN VAN RENSSELAERS. The “Golden Circle” was to establish a new empire of slavery with Cuba as its centre. It was their objective to kill the hated Catholic Hispanics in order to replace them with black slaves fresh from Africa. This was the first “North American Free Trade Treaty". The seal of the "KNIGHTS OF THE GOLDEN CIRCLE" was identical to that of the "KNIGHTS OF MALTA", the Maltese Cross. The "Knights of the Golden Circle" eventually disappeared.

In 1867 Albert Pike founded in Nashville the "ORDER OF THE KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN" (GREEK KYKLOS = CIRCLE), he was the "Great Dragon" and thus their leader. So here they were again, the "Knights of the Golden Circle".

The KKK also uses the Maltese Cross as its emblem and it is led by prominent Freemasons. If one looks at the racist and inhuman goals of the KKK and from these deducts the "inner being" of its founder and its members, then one has to question whether one writes about members of the human species at all. The KKK uses force to keep their voting rights from black citizens, to disallowing them to own arms, to discriminate against schools teaching black children and to lower the standard of living of blacks to a level that equals that of slavery. The interesting thing is that nowadays the KKK is almost totally financed by the MOSSAD (The Israeli secret service).

[H: And guess who was and is equally abused in these circles? Right: the Jewish of Hebrew origins. There is no hesitancy in the least of killing their OWN just to keep the ORDER.]

In the "Jewish" community the independent order "B'NAI B'RITH" was established in 1843. The "B'nai B'rith", a Zionist secret lodge, is counted among the Masonic lodges. The term "B'nai B'rith" means "Sons of the Alliance". It claims leadership of world Judaism.

Although most lodges of this order were in the North of the U.S., the "B'nai B'rith" openly took the side of the Confederates. Many speakers of the order in the North vociferously defended slavery and were still working for the goals of the Confederates after the Civil War.

Remarks to Today's Situation:

The "ANTI-DEFAMATION LEAGUE" (ADL) which is linked to the "B'NAI B'RITH" recently started a campaign to defame leading American black politicians as anti-Semites. Thus they aimed at fanning racial conflict and to negatively influence the positive attitude of Jewish Americans who up to then had helped the blacks. The ADL also openly opposed the KKK, yet it clamoured in favour of the statue of Albert Pike (the KKK founder) which is still standing in Washington, DC, and it is openly linked to the "Scottish Rite":

"We worship a God, but it is the God one adores without superstition. The Masonic religion should be, by all of us initiates of the high degrees, maintained in the purity of the Luciferian doctrine.

"If Lucifer were not God, would Adonai (the Christian God) whose deeds prove his cruelty, perfidy, and hatred of man, barbarism and repulsion for science, would Adonai and his priests, calumniate him?"

"Yes, Lucifer is God, and unfortunately Adonai is also God. For the eternal law is that there is no light without shade, no beauty without ugliness, no white without black, for the absolute can only exist as two Gods. The doctrine of Satanism is a heresy; and the true and pure philosophic religion is the belief in Lucifer, the equal of Adonai; but Lucifer, God of Light and God of God is struggling for humanity against Adonai, the God of darkness and evil."

This quote can be looked up in the main Pike folder at the library of the "Scottish Rite" in Washington, DC in French and in English.

Pike professed to be a Satanist and an agent of the CROWN, the "CITY" Pike bestowed in 1867 the 4th to the 32nd degree of the "Scottish Rite" upon U.S. President ANDREW JOHNSON. Thirty-nine days after the investiture of President Theodore Roosevelt who was himself an anglophile racist and Freemason the statue of Albert Pike was erected in Washington, DC, where it stands until today.

[More] remarks on Today's Situation:

We see that in a hierarchic order none but the leader is allowed free will. To attain a higher degree an aspirant has to fulfill conditions set by the next higher degree.

An example:

I show the aspirant a "white" book, yet I tell him that it is "black". Now I ask him of what colour the book is. If he answers "white, he has failed, though if he says "black", he is accepted to the next higher degree and thus to many more new tasks he has to fulfill like this one.

Do you realize that all hierarchies of this world are set up like this? All school systems, almost all religions including Christianity, Islam, Hinduism, Buddhism, Mormons, Jehovah's Witnesses, Scientology—are similarly structured. Personal opinions, free development and independent thinking is not allowed, only the following of orders received from those is HIGHER POSITIONS.

And it does not matter whether it concerns the satanic doctrine—as in the quote by Pike, mentioned earlier—or the dogmas of the Catholic or Islamic (etc.) Churches.

Those contemporaries who "knowingly" give up their free will and their proper responsibility and submit these to another person, organization or to a leader are not worthy of better treatment since today, especially in the so-called civilized countries, nobody is "forced" to join an organization or religion.

Or, as Anatole France wrote: "And if five million people say something stupid, it is nevertheless stupid!"

About President Bill Clinton, former Governor of Arkansas:

In a "Ku Klux Klan Special" the German magazine Neue Solidarität informs us that Parson W.O. VAUGHT was a Freemason in the 32nd degree of the Scottish Rite (i.e. Master of the Royal Secret). He was the spiritual teacher and actual foster-father of BILL CLINTON and collaborated with him. When he was governor of Arkansas, a state in which the spiritual tradition of Albert Pike is strongly rooted, Clinton supported capital punishment and allowed several executions to go ahead. In reality this means executing poors and blacks. Recently Vaught's son said that Clinton and his parson agreed that their religious beliefs allowed the killing of prisoners and of unborn babies (especially black babies).

Clinton is also member of the "Council on Foreign Relations", of the Trilateral Commission, of the Bilderbergers" (more about their importance later), and member for life in the Masonic "Order of DeMolay for Boys".

Jacques de Molay was Grand master of the Knights Templar and was burnt at the stake on March 18, 1314 in Paris. According to the order's literature the "Order of DeMolay" is led by "eminent Masons" and membership consists of sons of master Masons aged between fourteen and twenty-one who are taught the Seven Virtues: Filial Love, Reverence, Courtesy, Comradeship, Cleanness (of thought, word and deed), Fidelity and Patriotism. How much this corresponds to reality is a moot point.

[END OF QUOTING CHAPTERS 12-15, PART 12]

5/20/01—#2 (14-277)

RE: SECRET SOCIETIES. Jan van Helsing (EWERTVERLAG)

[QUOTING:]

(PART 13)

CHAPTER 16

THE BLACK NOBILITY

Before going any further into the "big picture" we have to take a little detour again to make things a bit clearer.

For the following information I have to thank Ex-MI6 agent Dr. John Coleman for his tremendous research. He is the only one who ever wrote anything in English on the "Black Nobility", and on the American continent he is a pioneer in this research. I met Dr. Coleman personally and tell you that he is sincere in his intention (I have my own personal faculty to "read" or "check" people). But he sure is holding back information, as I do, too, because we don't want to lose our heads.

Dr. Coleman tells us about a term you won't find in any ordinary book or dictionary: "The Black Nobility". These are the oligarchic families of Venice and Genoa who in the 12th century held the privileged trading rights (monopolies).

Dr. Coleman: "The first of three crusades, from 1063 to 1123, established the power of the Venetian Black Nobility and solidified the power of the wealthy ruling class. The Black Nobility aristocracy achieved complete control over Venice in 1171, when the appointment of the doge was transferred to what was known as the Great Council, which consisted of members of the commercial aristocracy, a complete triumph for them. Venice has remained in their hands ever since, but the power and influence of the Venetian Black Nobility extends far beyond its borders, and today, in 1986, is felt in every corner of the globe. In 1204 the oligarchic family parceled out feudal enclaves to their members, and from this epoch dates the great building-up of power and pressure until the government became a closed corporation of the leading Black Nobility families."

The Black Nobility earned its title through dirty tricks, so when the population revolted against the monopolies in government, as anywhere else, the leaders of the uprising were quickly seized and brutally hanged. They use secret assassinations, murder, the bankrupting of opposing citizens or companies, kidnapping and rape.

So, who are these families?

The most important ones are:

- House of Guelph (Britain)
- House of Wettin (Belgium)
- House of Bernadotte (Sweden)
- House of Liechtenstein (Liechtenstein)
- House of Oldenburg (Denmark)
- House of Hohenzollern (Germany)
- House of Hanover (Germany)
- House of Bourbon (France)
- House of Orange (Netherlands)
- House of Grimaldi (Monaco)
- House of Wittelsbach (Germany)
- House of Braganza (Portugal)
- House of Nassau (Luxembourg)
- House of Habsburg (Austria)

- House of Savoy (Italy)
- House of Karadjordjevic (Yugoslavia)
- House of Wurttemberg (Germany)
- House of Zogu (Albania)

as well as the ones you will find on the Family Tree of the Windsors. (Black Nobility Unmasked Worldwide, Dr. John Coleman, 1985).

All the families listed are connected with the House of Guelph, one of the original Black Nobility families of Venice from which the House of Windsor and thus the present Queen of England, Elisabeth II, descends. The Guelphs are so intertwined with the German aristocracy through the House of Hanover that it would take several pages to mention all their connections. As you can see in this family tree, almost all European royal houses originate from the House of Hanover and thus from the House of Guelph—the Black Nobility. The Hanoverian English King George I came from the Duchy of Luneburg, a part of Northern Germany, which had been governed by the Guelph family since the 12th century.

Today the Guelphs rule by dominating the raw materials market, and for years they have fixed the price of gold, a commodity they do neither produce nor own. The House of Windsor also controls the price of copper, zinc, lead and tin. And as you will see, it is no accident that the principle commodity exchanges are located in London. Companies run by Black Nobility families are British Petroleum, Oppenheimer, Lonrho, Philbro and others.

Another Black Nobility family are the Grosvenors in England. For centuries this family lived—as most of the European royal families—on ground rent. Today the family owns at least 300 acres of land in the centre of London. The land is never sold, but leased on a 39 year leasehold agreement—the ground rent of the middle ages. Grosvenor Square, in which the American Embassy is located, belongs to the Grosvenor family, as does Eaton Square. In Eaton Square apartments are rented out at pounds 25,000 a month, and that does not include maintenance costs. This will give you some idea of the immense wealth the Black Nobility families garner from ground rents, and why families like the Windsors are not at all interested in industrial progress along with the excess population it supports. This is the only reason why these “noble” families are behind most, if not all, of the wrong-headed Pro-environmental movements of the world that ultimately and covertly aim to curb population growth. Prince Philip and Prince Charles are the most visible symbols of these movements and both have often spoken with the utmost callousness about the need to rid the world of unwanted people. (Black Nobility Unmasked Worldwide, Dr. John Coleman)

So why do I mention the Black Nobility?

Because they are the founders of THE secret society of our day from which all the others that are connected to the Illuminati originated from—the “Committee of 300”. As I will show you, the Club of Rome, the CFR, the RIIA, the Bilderbergers, the UN, the Round Table... all originate from the “Committee of 300” and therefore from the European Black Nobility families.

Well, here comes the most important point. Dr. Coleman has been perfectly right up to here. He thinks that the European Black Nobility is the cause of all that is wrong.

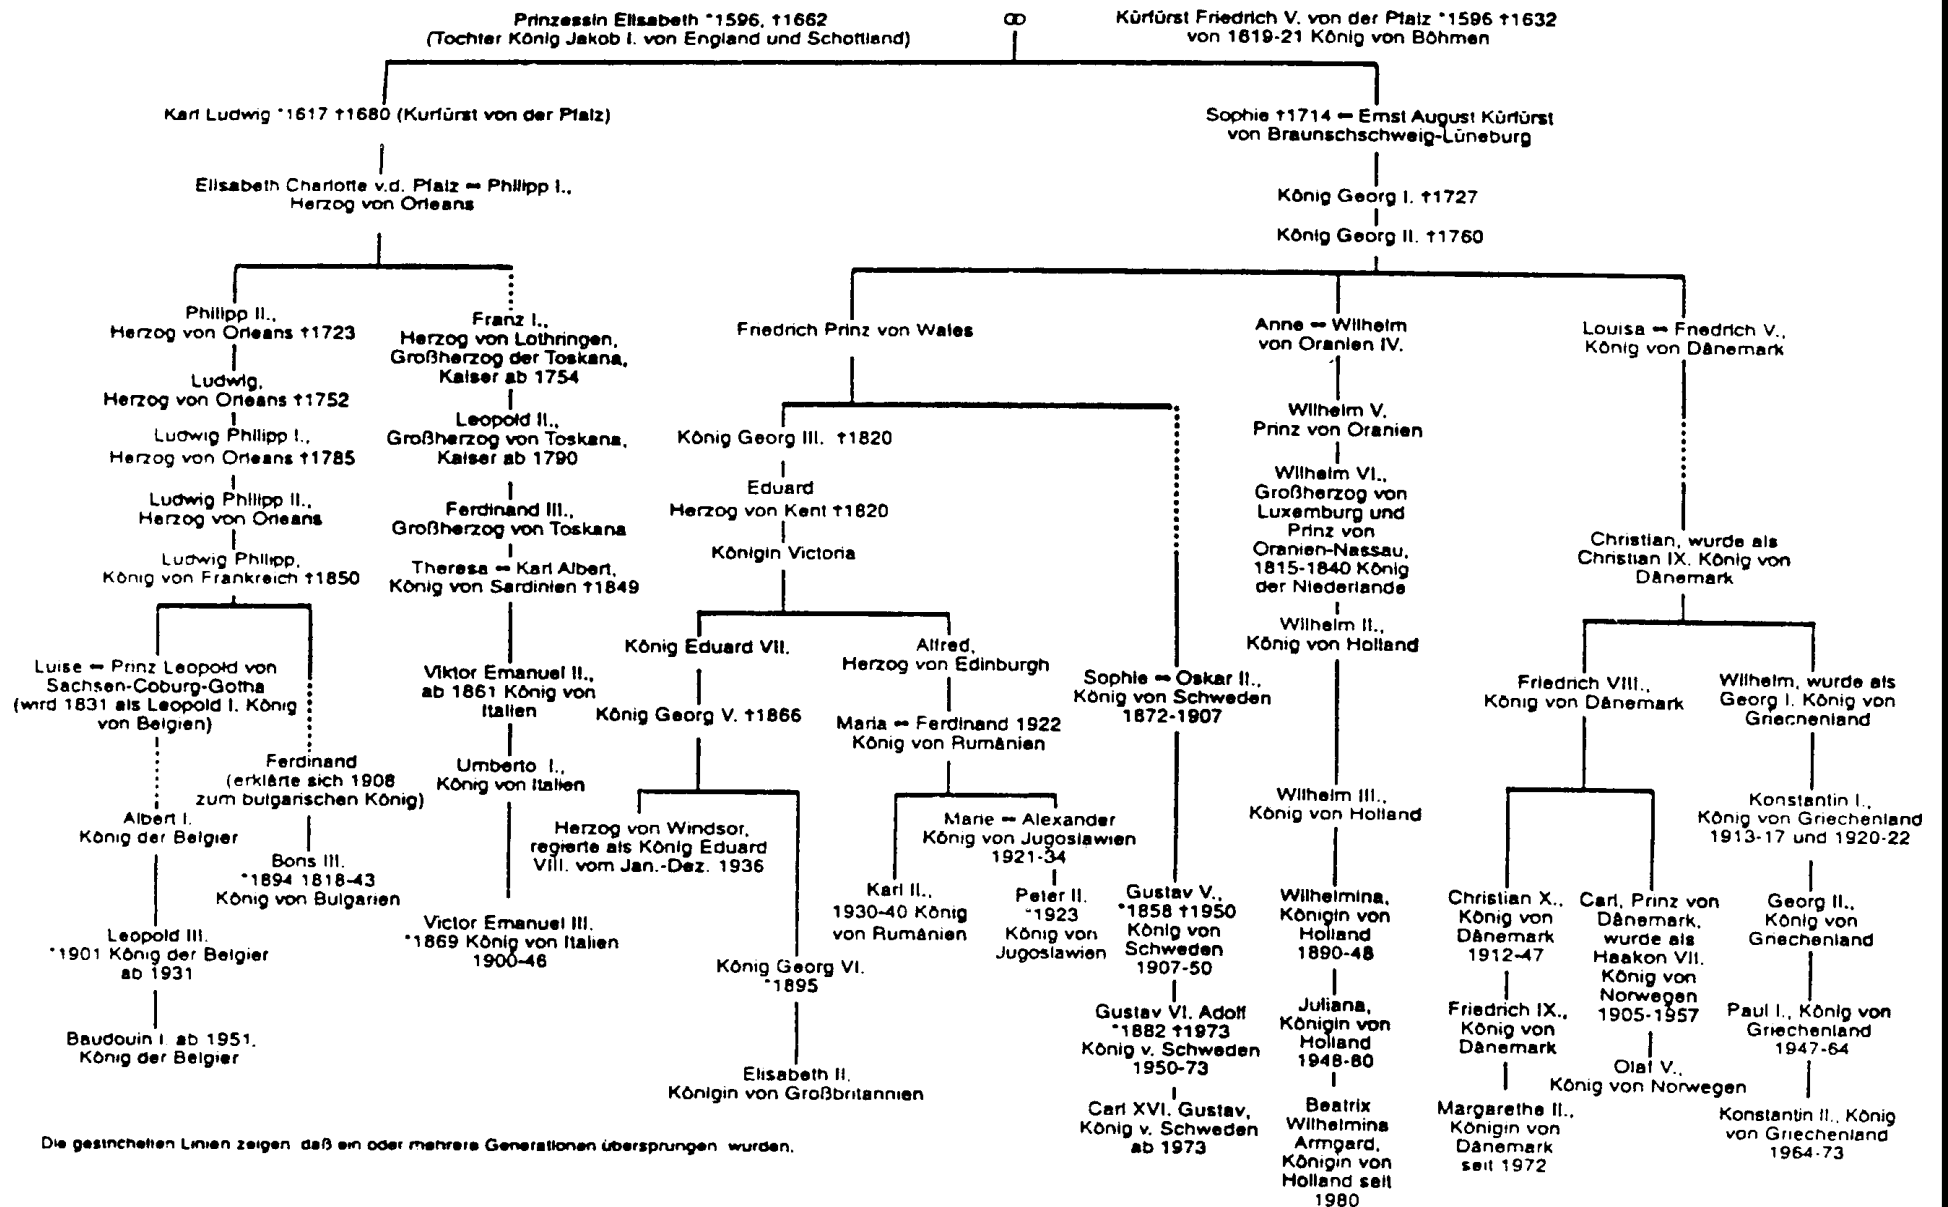

But, since at least the 17th century absolutely every European royal house has been infiltrated by JEWS.

The House of Hanover seems to be German, but it is Jewish. So is the House of Habsburg. So it wasn't really the Germans who took over the British throne. Brilliant, isn't it? (Sources: “Semi Goter” by Phillip Stauff and “Judenblut im deutschen Adel” (Jewish Blood in German Nobility) by Otto Furst von Batailler)

Co-operating with the European Black Nobility are American families like the Harrimans and the McGeorge Bundys.

[H: Anyone want to speculate why the sudden influx of high-level entities (right up to the House of Windsor's Prince of York) is at present visiting Manila and the “New” President, and suggest that GAIA is to be considered “baseless” and a “sham”? It is fine, for it certainly has been difficult so far to keep up with former President Ramos in his constant laps to and fro from these places such as Washington, New York, etc., etc. And how is your day going? And, no, I do NOT think any of you want this job!]

The Windsor Family Tree

CHAPTER 17

THE ENGLISH ROYAL FAMILY AND THE OPIUM TRADE IN THE 18TH CENTURY

Before dealing with England at all, we have to clarify a few terms.

The QUEEN is the head of the Royal family, with the British colonial empire—with London as its capital—governed by the Prime Minister and the Cabinet.

But just like the Vatican being within Rome, there is a separate, independent state within London, the CITY. The CITY, which is called the richest square mile in the world, occupies just about that area in the heart of London (2.7 km²). It is said to have about 4,600 inhabitants and about half a million jobs. The government of the CITY is THE CROWN, comprised of thirteen members and led by the King of the CITY, the LORD MAYOR. Here one finds the richest and mightiest economic institutions of England, like the “Bank of England” controlled by the Rothschilds, Lloyd’s of London, the London stock exchange, the offices of many international merchant companies and Fleet Street, the centre of news papers and publishing. The CITY does not belong to England. It is subject of neither the monarch nor the government of British Parliament. The CITY is the true government of England, as both the Queen and the Prime Minister are subordinate to the Lord Mayor and listen to him. By the facade of a Prime Minister and a cabinet the impression is given that these decide what happens, yet they are just puppets of the CITY.

If the Queen visits the CITY, she is met by the Lord Mayor at “Temple Bar” the symbolic gate to the CITY. She bows and asks permission to enter his private and sovereign state. He shows his approval by handing her the state sword. At state visits like this the Lord Mayor in his robe and chain eclipses the Queen, and her entourage are restricted to ordinary street clothes. Then he proceeds to lead the Queen who goes two steps behind him into the CITY.

As I mentioned earlier, the founding of the “Bank of England” was instigated by William Paterson who was a CITY agent. According to Des Griffin the CITY is controlled by the Rothschild empire.

Thus, in order to void misinterpretations, we have to realize that in Great Britain there are two separately acting empires—the colonial empire under the royal family and the empire of the Crown. All colonies with a white population (Australia, New Zealand, Canada and South Africa) were under the authority of the English government. All other colonies (India, Egypt, Bermuda, Malta, Singapore, HongKong, Gibraltar and the Central African colonies) were the private property of the CROWN, so-called CROWN COLONIES.

Of course there was co-operation, because the Windsor family is part of and the City belongs to the Black Nobility. During the building of the Empire the BRITISH EAST INDIA COMPANY (BEIC) made an immense fortune with the opium trade. The BEIC established the “China Inland Mission” whose main task was to get Chinese cheap labourers dependent on opium to create a market for their wares.

Members of the British royal family were so impressed by the immense profits that they collaborated with the BEIC. They began by taxing the opium producers in India. Huge amounts of opium were shipped from India on the “China Tea Clippers”, and around 13% of India’s income under the CROWN came from selling pure Bengal opium in China, supervised by them.

Surely the court did not want this shady episode exposed. Therefore they involved the British Secret Services, the BRITISH MILITARY INTELLIGENCE DEPARTMENT (MI6) AND THE SECRET INTELLIGENCE SERVICE (SIS).

The MI6 goes back to Queen Elisabeth I under whom Sir Francis Walsingham became treasurer for the “Dirty Tricks” department of the MI6. Due to its several centuries of experience the MI6 is counted among the best secret service of the world.

The BEIC was market leader in the opium trade until the Chinese government prohibited the smoking of opium in 1729.

From 1791 to 1894 the number of licensed opium plantations grew under the Crown from 87 to 663. This finally led to the Opium War in China.

In 1729 the BEIC, as an arm of the Black Nobility, founded the “COMMITTEE OF 300” to simplify the handling of banking and commercial transactions. Today the “Committee of 300” is one of the most important secret organizations and is also working towards a “One World Government”. It is the so-called elite from the CITY. Later this “Committee of 300” developed tactics to overcome the Chinese anti-drug laws.

LORD INCHCAPE established the “P&O Shipping Company” and was the actual founder of the “HongKong & Shanghai Bank” that helped in covering up the opium trade. Other British banks involved in the drug trade are The British Bank of the Middle East, The Midland Bank, The National Westminster Bank, Barclays Bank, The Royal Bank of Canada and Baring Brothers Bank. All these banks are linked to the Rothschild banks by the “Committee of 300”.

When the Harriman railroad was being constructed to link California with the East of the U.S., thousands of Chinese cheap labourers were transhipped to work on the tracks. Many were already dependent on opium, and thus the market was extended to the U.S. HARRIMAN founded his railroad empire with financing from the “N.M. Rothschild & Sons Bank” in London.

There are good reasons to deduce that the Chinese opium-dependent labourers were intentionally used to extend the opium market to the U.S.

Remarks on Today’s Situation:

The Neue Solidaritat wrote in an article titled “The Queen and Narcotics” in its edition of September 8, 1993:

“It is rare indeed, a pleasant surprise, to read in the British press news about the court that comes close to the truth. Last week such an item vied with the headlines on the front page of the London Times of August 27, 1993. The headline: “The Royal Family was ‘High’ in the Highlands”. The article, based on a carefully researched report in the Scottish magazine Leopard, discloses that drugs and narcotics were used as a matter of course. From original documents the Leopard proved that Queen Victoria and her entourage, often the Churchill and Rothschild families, had standing orders for sizeable quantities of cocaine, heroin and other narcotics with a highland pharmacy. The Times averred the same. It said: “Queen Victoria, the monarch with the severe mien, well-known for her “We are not amused” seems to have ordered enough cocaine and heroin for her Balmoral estate in Scotland to keep a whole Highland valley ‘high’.” The papers of the pharmacy “show that the Royals and their guests were regularly supplied with considerable amounts of cocaine and heroin solutions.”

[H: Hey, I repeat: “Don’t blame me for this information. It is out and it is internationally scattered. This secretary is simply typing from black and white printed pages from PUBLISHED BOOKS. And, no, I would guess that almost no “outside” readers have ever run into them—especially at places like “Crown” books.]

CHAPTER 18

BACKGROUND OF THE BOLSHEVIST REVOLUTION

Because of the many anti-Jewish laws in Europe, many Jews had no property and thus were forced to travel around. Whatever country they elected to be in, they encountered a closed front against them. At the end of the 19th century Czarist Russia was the only real obstacle left against the Illuminati ruling the world.

In 1881 Theodor Herzl, a Khazar Jew, again, founded the ZIONIST MOVEMENT in Odessa, Russia, in order to create a Jewish homeland in Palestine.

At a B’NAI B’RITH meeting in New York in 1916 Jacob Schiff, president of the Kuhn Loeb & Co. Bank, was elected president of the revolutionary “Zionist Movement in Russia”.

On January 13, 1917, the Jew LEON TROTSKY (formerly Bronstein) arrived in the U.S. and received an American passport. He was seen on occasion to enter the palatial residence of JACOB SCHIFF.

In their meetings they talked about the Zionist unrest in Russia, also about what was learned from the unsuccessful attempt to overthrow the Czar. Jacob Schiff financed the training of Trotsky’s rebels who were mainly Jews from New York’s East End and who were trained on a plot in New Jersey belonging to Rockefeller’s STANDARD OIL COMPANY. When they had become proficient in guerrilla warfare, Trotsky’s rebels left the U.S., with 20 million US$ from Jacob Schiff, on the SS-Kristianiafjord for Russia, there to start the Bolshevik Revolution, so the Khazars could get Russia back.

Trotsky and Lenin were both linked to the Committee of 300 by Bruce Lockhart.

CHAPTER 19

SKULL AND BONES

Let us now examine a most powerful organization of the Illuminati in the U.S., the SKULL & BONES order.

Its own members call it simply “The Order”, it has been known for more than 150 years as “Local 322” of a German secret society. Others call it the “Brotherhood of Death”. The secret order of SKULL & BONES was established at YALE UNIVERSITY in 1833 by WILLIAM HUNTINGTON RUSSEL and ALPHONSO TAFT. Russel brought it in 1832 from his student days in Germany. In 1856 the order was incorporated into the Russel Trust.

In 1864 WILLIAM RUSSEL became a member of the assembly of Connecticut and in 1862 he became General of the National Guard.

ALPHONSO TAFT became Secretary of War in 1876, then U.S. Attorney General in 1876 and in 1884 U.S. Ambassador to Russia. Alphonso’s son William was appointed Chief Justice and later elected PRESIDENT of the U.S.

It is an old tradition to mark the tombstones of Freemasons with the Master degree with a skull and crossbones, a tradition also harking back to the time of the Knights Templar after 1127 AD. Perhaps the order’s name comes from one of these traditions.

Yale is the only university with societies that are only open to seniors. The other two societies at Yale are the SCROLL & KEY and the WOLF’S HEAD.

The candidates are exclusively white, male, Protestant and usually from very rich families. Often the fathers were already members in the same order. During the last year of study they are called KNIGHT and later—for life—PATRIARCH.

The reunions of Patriarchs take place at the DEER ISLAND CLUB in New York. This club was founded in 1907 by the Patriarch George Douglas. The Deer Island Club is exclusively run by Patriarchs, as is the Russel Trust.

The most important members of the Eastern Liberal Establishment surprisingly have always been members of one of these societies. THE EASTERN LIBERAL ESTABLISHMENT is—according to Gary Allen—a circumlocution for the financial, political, academic and media-political Mafia bossed by the ROCKEFELLERS.

Here one should mention the W.A. Harriman Company. The founder of this bank, William Averell Harriman was initiated into the Skull & Bones order in 1913. In the Twenties Harriman was the main supporter of the Russians with funds and diplomatic aid. Harriman had further support by the first Soviet commercial bank, the RUSKOMBANK. MAX MAY, vice-president of the Guaranty Trust and a member of the Skull & Bones, was the first vice-president of the Ruskombank. The Guaranty Trust was controlled by J. P. Morgan & Co. the partner bank of the N. M. Rothschild Bank. Some partners of J. P. Morgan were Skull & Bones members: Harold Stanley, initiated 1908, Thomas Cochran, initiated 1904. The original capital for the Guaranty Trust came from the Whitneys, Rockefellers, Vanderbilts and Harrimans, all families with members in the Skull & Bones order.

PERCY ROCKEFELLER was the only Rockefeller accepted. He represented the Rockefeller investment in the Guaranty Trust and was its director from 1915 to 1930.

A short summary of the banks just mentioned:

The N.M. Rothschild & Sons has its main branches in London, Paris, Vienna and Berlin. Already then the Rothschilds not only controlled the CITY of London, thus the Crown colonies and the British Government, but also the French government, the Committee of 300, the Bavarian Illuminati and so all the secret lodges in Europe and the U.S. infiltrated by the Bavarian Illuminati. Together with their representatives in the U.S.—the Kuhn Loeb & Co. (director: Jacob Schiff), the August Belmont & Co. and the J.P. Morgan & Co.—and the M.M. Warburg Gesellschaft in Hamburg and Amsterdam they built up—among others—Rockefeller’s Standard Oil empire, Harriman’s railroad and Carnegie’s steelworks and thereby controlled the greatest part of the American economy.

The banks just mentioned are among the most powerful in the world and are all controlled by Rothschild. And these were just the “modest” beginnings of the Rothschild empire, as we are about to see.

[H: With the assumption that later in the book there will be the “important” references to the SKULL & BONES membership, we will leave the topic pretty much alone BUT, note please that George H. W. Bush was a member of this “order” as was his father before him. I think you should have that association as well as knowing that in mentioning the Harriman connection you will find Barbara Bush as well. This connection becomes more and more important to our own position as you learn more about CONNECTIONS.

It might also be worthy of mention that so too did William Clinton (Billy) attended Yale for a while and also that “Clinton” is not Bill’s lineage in actuality. He comes from the Rockefellers. Perhaps Billy had reason to be “confused” in his position especially with such as Ms. Lewinsky who was sent to seduce him—a nice Jewish girl. No wonder he just couldn’t bring himself to ever tell the truth about anything.]

CHAPTER 20

...AND THUS ENDETH FREEDOM IN AMERICA

Towards the end of the 19th century the banks controlled by the Rothschilds started a big campaign to get the rich American economy under their control. Around 1900 the Rothschilds sent a further agent to the U.S., PAUL WARBURG, to collaborate with the banking firm of Kuhn Loeb & Co. Take note of this name; he was yet to interlink many more organizations! JACOB SCHIFF and PAUL WARBURG started a campaign for the creation of the FEDERAL RESERVE BANK as an established PRIVATE central bank in America.

In 1907 Jacob Schiff said before the New York Chamber of Commerce:

If we don’t get a central bank with sufficient credit control this country will experience the most severe and far-reaching financial panic in its history. (Des Griffin: Descent Into Slavery)

No sooner said than done. They went on to hurl the U.S. into a monetary crisis the resulting panic at the financial market of which ruined the lives of tens of thousands of people all over the country. The panic at the New York stock exchange brought the Rothschilds—quite apart from a profit of several billion US$—the success they hoped for. Cunningly planned, the panic was used as an argument for the establishment of a central bank to stave off similar occurrences. Paul Warburg then told the bank and currency committee:

“In the Panic of 1907, the first suggestion was ‘let us have a national clearing house’ (Central Bank).” (Gary Allen: None Dare Call it Conspiracy)

The final version of the decision to introduce the FEDERAL RESERVE SYSTEM (the private central bank of the U.S.) was conceived on J.P. Morgan’s estate on Jekyll Island, Georgia. According to H.G. Dorsey the meeting was attended by A. Piatt Andrew, Senator Nelson Aldrich, Frank Vanderlip (president of Kuhn Loeb & Co.), Henry Davidson (senior partner in the J.P. Morgan Bank), Charles Norton (president of Morgan’s First National Bank), Paul Warburg and Benjamin Strong (president of Morgan’s Bankers Trust Co.)

The introduction in 1913 of the Federal Reserve System enabled the international bankers to consolidate their financial powers in the U.S. Paul Warburg was the first chairman of the Federal Reserve Bank of New York.

The Federal Reserve Act was soon followed by the 16th Amendment to the Constitution which enabled Congress to levy taxes on the personal income of U.S. citizens. This was the consequence of the fact that the U.S. government could no longer print its own money to finance its operations.

For the first time since the founding of the U.S. income tax was levied.

The foremost shareholders of the FEDERAL RESERVE (The FED) were:

1. Rothschild banks in London and Paris
2. Lazard Brothers Bank in Paris
3. Israel Moses Seif Bank in Italy
4. Warburg Bank in Hamburg and Amsterdam
5. Lehman Bank in New York
6. Kuhn Loeb Bank in New York
7. Rockefeller’s Chase Manhattan Bank in New York
8. Goldman Sachs Bank in New York

Congressman CHARLES LINDBERGH already then described the new Federal Reserve System as the Invisible government by its financial power.

How does “The FED” function?

The FED’S “Open Market Committee” produces Federal Reserve Notes (dollar notes). THESE NOTES ARE THEN LOANED TO THE U.S. GOVERNMENT AGAINST OBLIGATIONS THAT SERVE THE FED AS SECURITY. THESE OBLIGATIONS ARE HELD BY THE TWELVE FED BANKS WHICH RECEIVE THE YEARLY INTEREST PAYMENTS THEREON.

Remarks to Today’s Situation:

In 1982 the U.S. tax office put the national debt at US$ 115,800,000,000 in interest payments from the American tax payers. This interest capital goes into the coffers of the Fed, and so to the international PRIVATE bankers.

In 1992 the obligations held by the Fed reached US$ 5,000,000,000,000 and the interest payments by the tax payers rise continually. And this fortune was created by the FED lending money to the U.S. government and charging high interest rates for something that cost the FED only paper, ink and printing costs. This is one of the biggest swindles in the history of the U.S. and almost nobody notices. And so the FED holds—via the obligations of the U.S. government—the lien on the state and private property of the WHOLE OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA. Innumerable lawsuits have not been successful in reversing the Federal Reserve Act. There is no legal way for the citizens to reclaim the money because the FED is not a part of the government but a private institution. Apparently the FED is not constitutional and should therefore not even exist. Nine U.S. states have cases pending to abolish the FED.

CHAPTER 21

THE ROTHSCHILD TOWING SERVICE

Kings and dictators were always infamous for spending more than they could squeeze out of their subjects in taxes. The nations and government then had to borrow the necessary sums from banks. But how could the banks retrieve their money if a government could not or would not pay up? The solution is war!

The business of financing governments functions on similar lines as the credit institute that lends a client money to buy a car. If the client cannot pay the monthly installments the car is recovered. And how does one recover a vehicle? With another car! The same with financing governments. You don't just lend money to one country only, you also lend to that country's enemies. The lender has to ensure that both countries are of about the same strength so that in the case of conflict financing will be the deciding factor. If a country does not pay up, the lender will threaten it with war by another country or, if it still refuses payment, have it "recovered" by that other country as booty (see Machiavelli).

The House of Rothschild has followed these guidelines for about 160 years now (No. 9 of the Protocols).

Nathan and his brothers started this "game" at the beginning of last century in Europe, after they reaped so much profit from the Napoleonic wars. At that time something developed in Europe that came to be known as the "Balance of Powers". In order to strengthen its position as "invisible ruler" of Europe the House of ROTHSCHILD had to build up two power groups of similar strength to guarantee that "Balance of Powers". They had to ascertain that all the A kings could be threatened with all the B kings. Naturally they financed both sides. Then they required a third power as a kind of insurance should one of the countries step out of line. This country was Nathan's England which thus was supreme power in Europe. The outcome of a war could always be determined by checking which side was favoured by England. At the end England was always on the side of the winner. England, or the Crown, more appropriately, had such an efficient kingdom recovery service at their hands that the power of the house of ROTHSCHILD reached tremendous heights. Around the turn of the century it was said that they controlled half the proper of the world.

[END OF QUOTING CHAPTERS 16-21, Part 13]

God Always Responds: Sending The Solutions

6/10/01—#1 (14-298)

WORLD BANK

RE: PHILIPPINES PREDICAMENT. EVERYBODY "TALKS" GOD, FEW GIVE A DAMN ABOUT GOD, NATION OR SELVES (EXCEPT FOR WHAT THEY MIGHT GAIN THROUGH ANY MEANS FOR SELF)—GCH/D

HOW AND WHY A NATION LITERALLY DROWNS

OK, readers, it is time to open the can of worms. As you read this document, let it be known that Global Alliance Investment Association (GAIA) has issued thousands of Deeds of Assignments for Consideration in and for the Philippines AND MANY OTHER NATIONS as well. Those funds are based on GOLD and on the basis of agreements and debt acceptance of the United States prior to the Federal Reserve Act of 1913. There is no way to negate that debt or the holding itself. Billions of dollars sit in security while having been issued for use by the Philippine government—and additional many billions of $$ in value for the PEOPLE in corporations and in Livelihood Cooperatives and Farmer-Fisher-Folk organizations TO PUT SOME SUBSTANCE INTO THE PEOPLE FOR THEIR USE TO BUILD AND GROW OUT OF POVERTY.

The GAIA program itself has grown to include total backing through the "purchase" of gold for a second security to cover this program. The government and Central Bank seem to have trouble remembering they have ever even heard of such a thing—after first being given full details nearly THREE YEARS AGO. Oh, well, friends, even God gets weary of the slaves waiting to be finally tied to the strings of destruction. PLEASE READ ON!

There are at least two full offerings to the Philippines, done before the deposed Estrada left the Presidency and several others placed with the various members of government long before that offering. When the GAIA people were threatened with "disposal" if they didn't run and hide, we issued many very large Deeds of Assignment to be distributed should anything happen to the people involved. $20 BILLION are just for starters for the Philippines to prove that this was not some con-sham operation of some kind as it has been tried to project by the manipulators of your lives, citizens.

People in the government and at the banks claim they know of no such a program—when we were told and had documents where heads of state signed that they were delivered. So be it, our people don't much care any longer what takes place as you are swallowed by the New World Order, New World Government or, in fact, One World Religious Order.

Man has an interesting habit of praying to God to "Save Us, Me, We, Ours (and always "send money"). God responds and sends the solution—YOU KILL THE MESSENGERS AND TOSS THE OPPORTUNITY INTO THE PAYATAS DEATH MOUNTAIN AND TOSS THE REST OF YOUR GARBAGE INTO THE STREET. So be it.

The Philippines is on the brink of total collapse as a nation and totally bankrupt as a people. And yet, at least two thirds of the population are desperate for SPIRITUAL TRUTH. This is good but it also presents opportunities for worse "users" to move in and take more from the promise of giving a pittance on which interest will exacted forevermore.

So, the World Bank (WB) steps into the void left by the International Monetary Fund (IMF) which is in the throes of disintegration in a struggle to maintain control for the International Banking Cartel (IBC). These manipulators and destroyers of nations and economies step forward, make promises which solve NOTHING and can, at best, only present as a life-ring with holes in it. The President entertains these diplomats and manipulators, smiles sweetly and silently agrees to refuse to consider alternative possibilities. What an interesting world you have on Planet Earth.

Just using the example of manipulation of the Philippines, the picture becomes, indeed clear if you know anything about these matters and the New World Order (NWO).

Do you yet have enough alphabet letters to totally distract you? You have the IMF/WB/IBC/NWO to totally confuse and cause people without English as a First language to throw up their hands and look for the Fairy God Mother/Father. The words "give" are constant and up front in the promises, while the "give" is totally missing in the programs offered. Then comes the lesson from the preachers: Well, man is supposed to SUFFER!

The parasites have descended on the Philippines for their show-and-tell (and, yes, testing of what can be pulled-off) like the plague of locusts to the grain fields.

U.S. Senators who participated in the subterfuge in the time of Marcos and who helped orchestrate the removal of wealth from the Philippines—are back. They are no longer necessarily Israel Firsters as they have graduated to what they always were: Mostly non-Hebrew Zionist/New World Order manipulators out to gain control. THAT CONTROL is demanded through Economic Control and a separation of all wealth from all citizens. This is accomplished through force or subterfuge or a combination of both, hidden behind a shroud of both patriotism and a claim to be working for peace.

So, the World Bank heads of operations come forth and promise that if the Philippines will just arrange for anything working against them (IMF/WB) to be totally ignored, they will somehow LOAN something more to further enslave you. The annual cost of interest alone to the IMF from the Philippines is around $6 billion! The IMF has already spoken to the big guns of the WB to take over in the relay race. They are going to "help you" until they bury you.

The WB is promising all sorts of "loans" FOR THE GOVERNMENT and a bit for some kind of perks to players who have power—but the strangulation is under way while everyone shouts that the trouble is over and the WB has saved the day. This is known in older days past as "owing your soul to the company store".

Is GAIA attended? NO, in fact, there is a total blackout of any recognition of ever having heard about GAIA from anyone in the government—when it is KNOWN that the documents are piled up on every desk of the decision makers.

Even the reports of, supposedly, investigators in no way discount the validity of such information flowing—it is geared to innuendo and an “impossibility” factor.

But what is actually happening? Well, a group of CIA-asset thugs outfitted in the latest world weaponry, speedboats and training, are able to take hostages and run circles around the Philippine military (AFP) and police (PNP).

Now, the Abu Sayyaf, who we call People Snatchers (PS as in “by the way”), are at it again and threaten to behead the U.S. hostages who actually have little to do with the U.S. at all. But, now the FBI is in the picture and the CIA never was out of the picture. The ABU SAYYAF is a monster created by the CIA.

People, to get control of the Philippines there had to “be a war” of some kind to merit the calling in of “help” to insure keeping control of the gold and other wealth of the Philippines and ensuring that the people are kept in total ignorance and poverty. Furthermore, by holding the war in an Islamic country—you can also keep the Muslims in total separation through hatred. It is as old as the world itself, readers, in the modus operandi of the operators of the Supreme Elite.

MOVE THE GOVERNMENT LOCATION

At least one observer has suggested something which won't fly but points up a FACT. There is nothing sacred about Manila, or Washington D.C. in the U.S. The Vice President of the Philippines, Mr. Guingona, has petitioned to move the site of the government out of Manila and to some place in Mindanao—“To get the government out of the clutches of the sides drawn by the Rich and Famous in Manila.”

I have long suggested you set up the U.S. government on a Native American Indian Reservation in which the Natives could at least be paid for the land-use.

Would it help anything to do that? No, but it would pull money into the area in supplying outrageous living facilities and foreign visitors who manipulate the nation and economy. You would have to have luxury hotels and certainly luxury stores, etc.

However, if no foreign businesses were allowed within 100 miles of the capitol and no bankers were allowed within the country itself—you might just have a go at freedom and growth.

NOW FOR SOME BAD NEWS FOR THE U.S. LABOR MARKET

You nice teachers, engineers and professionals had better watch your backsides, for the U.S. Elite are making a heavy push to increase training for these positions since jobs are non-existent in the Philippines.

The Overseas Contract Workers are the backbone of the Philippine economy and are called “HEROES”! Everybody wants to go abroad, especially to the U.S. (Big Brother). The U.S. has let it be known, right now, that they will use all the trained professionals that can be exported from the Philippines. They will even finish the training in the U.S. free of charge.

So, how does that make you feel, Mr. Engineer? These people will work for less than half the wages demanded in the U.S. by U.S. citizens. There is a “plan” for paying a portion of the salaries of the workers BACK TO THE PHILIPPINE GOVERNMENT. And with a third of the students without teachers or classrooms, much the less books and desks in the Philippines—who cares? IF THIS ISN'T SLAVE-MASTER MANIPULATION BY THE U.S.—AND WORSE SLAVE

MANAGEMENT BY THE SLAVE PRODUCERS—WHAT MORE COULD BE SAID?

Are the professionals produced from such Third World Countries as the Philippines, well trained? You must be kidding if you expect the answer to be yes. Ah, but, the “paid off” rich people (by the U.S.) are sent to the U.S. and get into Harvard, Stanford and trained up by the New World Order in false teachings to INSURE there is not ability to change the plan. They become the cloned mental “Dolly” sheep of the Elite Plan.

The U.S. didn't get voted off the UN Human Rights Council for nothing.

But let us not distract from something extremely important and of which we have written before but you will have forgotten: This Abu Sayyaf which collects hostages for a living and its “birthright” is the focus.

NOTE: These interesting points regarding “distant” lands will be ignored or certainly, missed, in the show-and-tell of killing McVeigh—so Mark might actually have to run this several times before having any attention at all.

And, yes, I have intentionally not written on McVeigh, for you are going to find PROOF in those documents which surfaced—after being hidden by the FBI—that HE COULD NOT HAVE DONE THE CRIME AS STATED. But, innocent or guilty, what kind of life do you think “a” McVeigh would ever have while being the scapegoat for the BATF, FBI and the New World Order? And, no, I certainly did not say the man is guilty or innocent, so don't twist my presentation to fit YOUR opinions. And, YES, you can get all the backup information in confirmation right out of published papers, books and media bits and pieces even as strangled as it is.

First, the culprits tried to blame the deed on the Arabs, et al., and it didn't fly, so this is why it is far wiser to let the story unfold. It will as the story is unfolded but too late to allow McVeigh to TALK.

Disinformation is the name of the game EVERYWHERE in a controlled environment (which is everywhere). We are noting right here and right now in the midst of the Mindanao upset that there is an article in the local paper which announces in bold print that there are over 8,000 foreigners OVERSTAYING their visas—in Mindanao. The further suggestion is that they are here to aid and abet the uprising and demand for separation of Mindanao (The Muslims actually) from the Philippines. It is claimed they came in last January or so, for this purpose, and were allowed 59 days to stay but somehow have not left. It is claimed by the writers that these are Muslim missionaries.

Oh, wow! EIGHT THOUSAND? Missionaries? All hiding out in the poverty, war-ridden outback of the Philippine jungles? The assumption is that somehow the authorities can't do a thing about it? EIGHT THOUSAND? Do YOU see anything possibly a bit wrong with this “truthful writing”? Oh, yes, it was in the paper yesterday in this the prime American-Philippine (AmPhil) publication called The Philippine STAR.

So, how did this next article get INTO the paper? Well, the management of the paper is off on excursion to journalistic conferences. And frankly, it goes along with the observation of the publisher of the paper to always stomp on the Muslims—as in “get rid of them all”. This, to me, points up the very good possibility that humans are basically insane and like their position in that regard. Good luck, World.

Oh, by the way, about that particular paper: GAIA issued Deeds to fund the Good Sam Club of Art Borjal and, as well, the “Soldiers Fund” of [editor] Mr. Soliven. Those were said to have been delivered and, therefore, we have to assume that was done because the feedback was “it needed to be looked at...”. NO WORD HAS BEEN, EVEN

IN THE NAME OF COURTESY, OFFERED NOR ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS MADE. GAIA had offered the same thing prior to military operations—but the documents were not even allowed through the doors.

Nobody has to go farther than first to the records registration in Washington County, Illinois as regards Herman, Durham, Certificate (Peruvian) 3392-181 and Cosmos Seafood Energy Marketing, Ltd. OR more currently: Clarke County, Nevada in Las Vegas with full reference to Global Alliance Investment Association. GAIA has only a corporate office remaining in that place because of the harassment and legal assaults resulting in trying to shut down the program. What a wondrous world man has established!

I next offer you what occasionally slips through the network and, usually accidentally, into the papers and then is quickly silenced. This time, however, I ask that many copies of this writing be made and distributed hopefully to such as Senate President Pimentel, Mr. Santuario, Vice President Guingona and anybody and everybody you can think of. Feel free to copy and distribute. It is being widely published. Please, about thirty of you send it to SPOTLIGHT—for it is past time that publication got some HELP.

[QUOTING The Philippine STAR, “OPINION”, Friday, June 8, 2001:]

ABU SAYYAF:
THE CIA'S MONSTER GONE BERSERK
By Edmundo Santuario III

To those who have been following the Abu Sayyaf's exploits, the offer of military assistance by the United States government in tracking down the extremists in Mindanao (southern Philippines) has sent a chilling effect particularly among the patriotic sectors.

Related to this, similar concerns have been raised as to why—despite government's “total war” policy on the small group of bandits whose hostage-taking spree is a purely police matter—not one of its active ringleaders has been caught. Previous suspicions that the Abu Sayyaf enjoys the protection of some top Armed Forces officials had surfaced again.

In a surprise operation last May 27, Abu Sayyaf gunmen kidnapped three Americans and 17 Filipinos from the world-class Dos Palmas resort just off Arracellis in Palawan. It was not immediately known where the new hostages were taken but the gunmen reportedly operate from the southern-most islands of Sulu, Basilan and Tawi-Tawi.

Abu Sayyaf spokesman Abu Sabaya said they also took 10 fishermen hostage on their way to Basilan. The kidnapping was pulled off just barely two months after their last hostage—American Jeffrey Schilling—was freed after nine months of captivity.

In declaring a “no ransom, no negotiations” policy to the Abu Sayyaf, President Gloria Macapagal-Arroyo ordered military assault on the group's suspected lairs and offered a P100 million (U.S. $2 million) reward on the ring leaders' capture, dead or alive. [H: Now THAT has been interesting!]

Meeting Arroyo in Malacañang on May 30, U.S. Rep. Robert Underwood offered military assistance to the Philippine government's pursuit operations against the Abu Sayyaf. Underwood, who was accompanied in his visit by U.S. Charge D'Affaires Michael Malinowski, is a member of the powerful House Armed Services Committee and was in the country to explore how military relations between the two countries can be enhanced. Malinowski had earlier pledged continued American military support to the Arroyo administration.

On the same day, U.S. State Department spokesman Phil Resker demanded the immediate and unconditional release of the hostages, particularly Americans Guillermo Sobrero and missionary couple Martin and Gracia Burnham. Among the 17 Filipino hostages is construction magnate Reghis Romero, said to be the front man of former Estrada crony Mark Jimenez in the purchase of The Manila Times. The latter, who has just been elected Manila Congressman, is himself wanted by U.S. authorities.

[H: Oops and “Oh, but...”, some of those hostages managed to escape and “were rescued”. Hummmn, top banana of that little bunch was, of all coincidences, this Reghis ROMERO! Reghis says the “Escape is a miracle from God”. Oh, well, then, that negates the also touted big payoff for his freedom! How foolish we are to have naughty suspicions.]

WARPLANES. Since the Dos Palmas abduction, at least 12 American warplanes had been seen hovering over Puerto Princesa City in Palawan. Then on March 31, two U.S. destroyers—the USS Curtis and the USS Wadsworth—and the landing ship USS Rushmore arrived in the country with 1,200 American troops. Philippine armed forces officials squelched speculations of U.S. intervention in the hostage crisis, claiming that the American troops’ presence was in connection with ongoing war games in Palawan and Cavite.

Efforts to downplay reports that U.S. military assistance has indeed come into play in the latest hostage crisis were of no effect, however, when Press Secretary Rigoberto Tiglao himself revealed that military contacts between the two governments are ongoing. The U.S. Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI)—whose agents have been in and out of the country in connection with “terrorist” cases—was also placed on alert. Former Philippine Ambassador to Washington Ernesto Maceda also revealed that in the last year’s Sipadan hostage crisis where 20 tourists were held hostage by the Abu Sayyaf, the Americans backed military and police operations through the use of high powered satellite surveillance equipment.

“CIA MONSTER”. U.S. military efforts to intervene in the Abu Sayyaf hostage crisis appears to be a turnaround from their reported links to the Mindanao extremists several years ago.

In May last year, Senate President Aquilino Pimentel Jr. described the Abu Sayyaf (“Bearer [or Father] of the Sword” in Arabic) as a “CIA monster”.

Abu Sayyaf members, Pimentel said, were initially recruited by the Central Intelligence Agency as mujahideens to fight the U.S. proxy war in Afghanistan in the ‘80s. Before their deployment they were trained by Armed Forces of the Philippines AFP officers in Sulu, Tawi-Tawi, Basilan and other remote areas in Mindanao. BUT THE ARMS AND FUNDS CAME FROM U.S. COVERT OPERATIONS CONNECTED WITH THE CIA, Pimentel said.

The mujahideens returned to Mindanao after the Afghan war to constitute the core of the Abu Sayyaf, the Senate president added.

[H: Now, what does that do to the presentation that Saudi bin Laden did it all?]

In his revelations, Pimentel cited the book Blowback by Chalmers Johnson. But it was American writer John K. Cooley in his book, Unholy Wars: Afghanistan, American and International Terrorism, who made “the most direct statement regarding the training and funding of the (Abu Sayyaf) by the CIA”, he said. Cooley was the Middle East correspondent for the reputable Christian Science Monitor and ABC News.

In his “Ghost of the Past” report for ABC News in August last year, Cooley said the Abu Sayyaf, like many “international terrorists”, has its origin in the 1979-89 jihad or “holy war”, to expel the Soviets from Afghanistan. Wanting to tie down the Soviets to their own little Vietnam War, the CIA recruited and trained thousands of Islamic militants to support the Afghan resistance against the Soviet invasion forces. The American quarterly Foreign Affairs reported that some 35,000 Muslim militants from 40 countries—including the Philippines—took part in the Afghan jihad. Related historical accounts said among the recruits was Osama bin Laden, now the U.S.’s No. 1 “terrorist enemy”.

[H: Golly, gee, there you have it—BUT who is still supplying, through the CIA, the arms and items of war—NOW? And, no, don’t tell me: “The Abus are getting it from ransom money.” WHO IS STILL SUPPLYING THESE TERRORISTS WITH WEAPONS AND WAR MATERIALS? IT MUST COME FROM SOMEWHERE—AND NATIVE TRIBAL PEOPLE AND FISHERFOLK MUSLIMS SIMPLY DO NOT HAVE THE KIND OF RESOURCES TO PULL OFF SUCH A FEAT.]

‘FREEDOM FIGHTERS’: “The CIA orchestrated massive arms shipments via Pakistan, including state-of-the art Stinger surface-to-air missiles,” Cooley said. Three American presidents—Jimmy Carter, Ronald Reagan and George Bush—hailed the mujahideens as “freedom fighters”, he said.

[H: Note here, however, that George Bush was former HEAD of the CIA and is also the “father so-claimed” of the NEW WORLD ORDER.” Oh, well...!]

The Abu Sayyaf, Cooley said, was the last of the seven Afghan guerrilla groups to be organized late in the war—in 1986 or three years before the Soviets withdrew. [H: Ah, but, it seems there was something big coming down in the Marcos PLAN being worked at the time. Truth usually does rise from the entropy to reveal its real self. Mr. Bush was REALLY busy gaining all the wealth of the world into his pocket. In 1989, however, that all changed and moved into new hands.] It was founded by an Afghan professor named Abdul Rasul Abu Sayyaf. And like Osama bin Laden, the troupe was financed by Saudi Arabia’s wealthy elite and influenced by Wahabism, an ultraconservative form of Islam that dates back to the mid-18th Century and is espoused by the Saudi royal family. [H: Oh, and I think that some of you probably think that Lawrence of Arabia was an Arab instead of a British military killer.]

“Some of the original veterans of the Afghan jihad, and their sons and grandsons and those trained by them, have been operating with destructive effects since the 1980s from Egypt and the Philippines to Algeria and New York,” Cooley wrote.

With the Soviet withdrawal from Afghanistan in 1989, the CIA’s powerful Pakistan partner, the Inter-Services Intelligence Directorate (ISI), lost control of the Afghan fighting groups. The Abu Sayyaf had established a training camp north of Peshawar, Pakistan, “to train terrorists in the methods taught by the CIA and ISI”, Cooley reported. Some 20,000 volunteers were trained in the Middle East, North Africa, New York and the Philippines.

[H: To our regular readers, 1989 is the very year that the Certificate making Mr. Bush by far the richest man in the world by theft, the owner of said document(s) legally had the instrument changed out into an identifiable ownership of Russell Herman and given value by the Federal Reserve. Yes, indeed, this is the now notable and infamous GAIA (Global Alliance Investment Association) asset offered for global sharing through said Alliance/Association by the same name referred to as above, GAIA. Is it not, after all, a strange world of “coincidences”? This story makes those other stories, including that which followed the deposing of Marcos and then his death, ever more easily understood. It was also why Russell Herman had to be killed as well. But Russell Herman put everything into MY HANDS for safekeeping. Yes, me, Cmdr. Hatonn. Smile, you are on candid camera, Mr. Bush. Mr. Bush went further and set up corporations as shams and did, in fact, through collusion with the Nevada Secretary of State, take over a corporation holding the asset. This required full need to both secure the instruments AND reclaim the corporation in point. BOTH OF WHICH I NOW LAWFULLY AND LEGALLY HOLD FULL CUSTODY.]

The Abu Sayyaf moved its operations to the Philippines ostensibly to support the war for a separate Islamic state. Emerging from these operations were two leaders—the brothers Abdurajak Janjalani, who was an Afghan war veteran, and Khaddafi Janjalani.

[H: Anyone care to guess, now, who is putting up both the idea and funds to get those “nuts” DEAD OR ALIVE—BUT SO MUCH MORE PREFERABLY VERY DEAD? It is said that dead men tell no tales—but I suggest that the whole show-and-tell, TELLS IT ALL!]

EARLY OPERATIONS. In a privilege speech in July last year, Pimentel named former Interior Secretary Rafael Alunan and then Southern Command Chief Maj. Gen. Guillermo Ruiz as knowing about the group’s early operations in Mindanao. HE ALSO ASKED THE SENATE TO SUMMON FORMER PRESIDENT FIDEL V. RAMOS AND EX-DEFENSE SECRETARY RENATO DE VILLA TO SHED LIGHT ON THE MATTER.

Pimentel also cited revelations by a police asset, Edwin Angeles, who has since died mysteriously, that the military equipped the Abu Sayyaf with vehicles, mortars and assorted firearms for its raid—the group’s first large-scale action—70 people died while 50 teachers and schoolchildren were kidnapped.

Following its “split” with the MNLF in 1991, the Abu Sayyaf resorted to illegal logging, kidnapping, bombing, looting, burning, killing and other criminal activities for its logistics and operations. So far, they have kidnapped at least 32 foreigners, including five Americans, Europeans and Asians. This does not include hundreds of other Filipino hostages, a number of whom were Catholic and Protestant priests and nuns. Some of them, including priests, were killed.

The metamorphosis of the Abu Sayyaf from “freedom fighters” in Afghanistan to sheer bandits in the Philippines is a new dark spot in the U.S.’s covert dirty-tricks operations throughout the world. The CIA has created not just one Frankenstein’s monster in the mold of the Abu Sayyaf but hundreds of others who are now wreaking havoc in other parts of the world—including right in the belly of the United States itself.

But in war and in modern “counter-terrorism warfare”—which the U.S. now is eager to wage in the Philippines—there is at least one advantage that can be drawn. The anti-Soviet Afghan “resistance movement” promoted the U.S. arms industry. The U.S. may as well be doing the same thing as it embarks on a new crusade to destroy one of the “monsters” it created.—(BULATLAT.COM)

[END OF QUOTING]

Readers, you can keep hiding that head in the mud as long as you wish—while your world burns down around you. It is your choice but I would suggest you really take a long hard look at who and what manipulates your very lives.

Good morning,

Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn, Foreign Correspondent

dharma

GAIA Asset Offers Needed Funding Solution

6/11/01—#1 (14-299)

RE: THANK YOU TO HOME & GENE'S B'DAY; BONDOC COLUMN: WHERE'S THE MONEY TO LICK POVERTY? LIBYA'S GADHAFI ENTERS PICTURE; DEATH TO HOSTAGES?—ON MCVEIGH'S BIG DAY

D—I'm given a few minutes here to express appreciation from the E-Es to the support people back home. I can tell you right up front that were it not for YOU, this would not be taking place in the Philippines. I would name you all but it certainly would NOT be the gracious thing to do. We seem to be "up to" or "down to" the really hard blows—and bravery is not one of my strong suits I guess.

Please, Ellen, will you make sure our Gene is wished a Happy Birthday today? It is as if life in the usual lane has no existence any longer—well, for at least 14 years. Every birthday our children experience really brings to confrontation our own mortality and remaining capabilities. We will, however, make every possible effort to get THIS job up and running so that perhaps they can spend some quality time with THEIR children. I don't forget anyone; I just can't really do anything about it except love them and miss them. I am especially grateful for Gene's continuing presence here—it almost was not that way. God's GRACE is evident always, if we but accept it.

So, if HE thinks we can do this job—we CAN do this job!

Every day I look around and am reminded that God says we "can do it". I have to admit that I can't very often see "how" when we can't even believe the ones we thought we could believe. The forces of the New World Order are formidable and appalling when they turn their attention to us as individuals.

Commander reminds us constantly, however, that "when they turn their attention to you as individuals, they are confronted FIRST by me, my dears." This evokes neither nanny, nanny, nanny nor nanu, nanu, nanu from our less "wisdom-challenged" selves.

Every day, however, there comes another and another and another PROOF that God "is among us" and not somewhere off in His heaven playing tinker-toys. But, we are so weary of kissing poison toads as to be somewhat callused these days.

I am continually amazed by the PLAN and approach. I do some typing about which I really am better off not to think at the time at the keyboard.

E.J. takes it and usually understands the instructions. He is the one who must DO THE LABOR, MAKE THE MEETINGS, AND SEND THE MESSAGES. Then I can't even really hold in mind the incredible task of getting the "word" to print, press and to the proper persons. IT BECOMES TOTALLY OBVIOUS THAT IT IS NOT INTENDED THAT ONE PERSON DO IT ALL, EVEN IF WE END UP FEELING RESPONSIBLE FOR IT "ALL".

The feeling of responsibility for "me" is not lessened, but the realization of BACKUP is overwhelming. It seems that as the setbacks come through, the team takes the load and we, for instance, don't even miss a paper edition—as in the case of John Ray's current circumstances.

I do realize that we will be sending more and more local Philippine focus FROM HERE IN MANILA for the push is obviously on. It becomes absurd to have thought we could dance over to the Philippines, pull off the coup of the generations, and romp back home without scars or war wounds. BUT, we have been given, thus far, the ability to both endure, survive and actually see the way to progress beyond even the expected irritations.

I ask, "How can we make it?" with just meeting obligations, etc. E.J. RETORTS: "HE HAS NEVER LET US DOWN BEFORE AND WHY SHOULD WE START THINKING OTHERWISE NOW?" Well, because I'm HUMAN! Living in another world doesn't seem to make understanding much better in comprehension.

Every day in every way GAIA's holdings and task is better illustrated as valid, legitimate and REAL. It is comedic (if it could really be called funny) what "they" toss at us. After three years the only document "conjured" by individuals actually supposedly working with us is a totally laughable construction which is more confirming than it ever could be damaging in the long run.

We got a copy of what was supposed to be a Bureau of Investigation (FBI-type) report that was supposedly sent to "authorities", even of the Central Bank. It consisted of three paragraphs of NOTHING. When others, including attorneys, seek even a copy, they are told there "is nothing".

We were also told that, for instance, as with Mr. Ramos who was supposedly so upset he couldn't function—claims he knows nothing about anything like or resembling GAIA or the people involved.

Well, check out the fact that Al Martin told us that George Bush, daddy of the New World Order, knew all about those two old people and "wouldn't they just like to retire and go fishing?" Old? Who is George Bush Sr. to speak of "oldness"?

I only mention this about Ramos, however, to apologize to those nice people we KNOW who gave Sir Ramos a whole GAIA package.

Am I upset over these events? No, because this program of the NWO is not really working AT ALL with the people—only the politicians and bankers, who, after all, ARE THE NWO. WE, IN FACT, HAVE DONE EVERYTHING WE KNOW HOW—TO WORK WITH THEM AND PROTECT THEIR OWN INTERESTS FROM COLLAPSE. WE DIDN'T MAKE THESE RULES, NOR THE PROGRAM(S).

There is no question that the entire world is in desperate condition but the carnage not only doesn't stop, it is again being brought forth in a massive new wave of heroics, war and more enslavement. The script is being presented on and through the media.

Thank you, TEAM, for being there and ever at your post.

To Dr. Hoffman and Rex: Re: chondriana-gaiandriana: EXCELLENT!—DJE

* * *

I, Hatonn, would apologize for the "full-time" demands of this work except that I ask you: What could be better, more satisfying than this service—or, actually, more exciting? You have the greatest GIFT to bring to the world's table, my dear friends, and it SHALL BE HEARD—ALREADY—AROUND THE GLOBE!

Dharma speaks for all of you in response to that question: "Getting it done successfully (as we deem success to be), Sir!" So be it. My comment: "Then go make it so...! There is nothing to stop you except YOURSELF." What ye choose to think is what will make it so.

I'll give all of you a hint as to what Dharma realizes—and that is that it won't be long before I will need her services, for I am not going to disadvantage our position by yet walking on stage. We must do this job and be accepted because it RIGHT, not because it is sensational.

Focus to the news releases, please. There is so much backup that you miss as to be astounding and in that let me point out a few things that "are not seen" in the press.

One headline: "Libya's Gadhafi offers help to end Sayyaf crisis". But that is not what it seems.

The "article" itself says that Mr. Gadhafi CALLED to offer assistance in the matter of the "secessionist Moro Islamic Liberation Front (MILF) (Even that statement, however, is NOT true.), with talks to open June 20 in Tripoli, Libya.

"Mr. Gadhafi reiterated his full support for the peace talks, and thanked her for accepting Libya's offer to host it in Tripoli," Tiglaio (Presidential Spokesman) said.

[H: Now pay attention carefully to the wording of the next paragraph:] "He added that Gadhafi CASUALLY ASKED MRS. ARROYO ABOUT THE HOSTAGE CRISIS IN BASILAN, and told her that his government is AVAILABLE FOR WHATEVER THE PHILIPPINES MAY ASK TO HELP END THE HOSTAGE DRAMA."

"CASUALLY"? It is sort of like this—Mrs. Arroyo if you want to know about GAIA, why didn't you "casually" ask Mr. Gadhafi?

Have "we" contacted Mr. Gadhafi? No, but bunches of others from other countries HAVE. So much for that article.

Now, over in the paper with little attention is another article which will have significant meaning to that same referenced meeting: Excerpt: "3 Nur aides take over as OIC-governor."

COTABATO CITY—"Three subordinates of Autonomous Region in Muslim Mindanao Gov. Nur Misuari—two of them incumbent regional officials and the other still awaiting the election results in the second congressional district of Maguindanao—have separately assumed as ARMM officer-in-charge (OIC)...". Oops and golly, gee whiz. OIC more officially means: Organization of Islamic Countries—but this means "Officer-in-charge". Well, you just can't trust even the alphabet soup!

As a matter of fact, in spreading information and catch-up, let us not overlook the press release regarding GAIA as supplied by Bellringer-Martin-Young in the Mindanao TIMES, (Article by Mitchel R. Confesor, Publisher: G.E. Torres and, yes, there has been much communication with that entity), and reprinted with amazing update poppycock from Editor Young in Spectrum. Both the TIMES article and Dr. Young's comments and re-presentation were offered in CONTACT. Certainly, they can't deny knowing about GAIA, can they? Even that article didn't deny GAIA or the asset but rather, only misreported the amounts and potentials. Remember, readers, it was an international Internet bash-job of Ekkers—not the program. Neither Rick Martin nor Ed Young CAN DENY THE PROGRAM—lest Rick forget. For reference for any of you inspired readers: MINDANAO TIMES, <<http://www.mindanaotimes.com.ph>>. Address: Main Office: Cor. P. Reyes & Palma Gil Streets, 800 Davao City, Philippines.

By the way, in that same publication there is a very good release by one, Gil Santos—who happens to be one of our own visitors. He said that his article was simply “syndicated” (he is a very prominent commentator in the Philippines) and he was unaware of the “Gold” reference on the front page as he had not seen the paper (at that time).

Therefore, even if anyone bothered to ASK, these people would all recognize the topic, especially Mr. Santos, if they really want to know about GAIA.

I don't want to dwell on these things longer, for in today's paper there is the article by Jarius Bondoc “GOTCHA” who asks the IMPORTANT QUESTION OF THE DAY: “WHERE'S THE MONEY TO LICK POVERTY?” WELL, GAIA STANDS READY, WILLING AND ABLE!

[QUOTING The Philippine STAR, Monday, June 11, 2001, Jarius Bondoc, “Gotcha”:]

WHERE'S THE MONEY TO LICK POVERTY?

Days after the May 1 assault on Malacañang, social workers trooped to 22 slums from where most of those arrested came. Armed with survey questionnaires, they expected more to verify what they already knew than stumble on anything new. What do the urban-poor need most, they asked thousands of respondents. Some said they were fans of jailed ex-President Joseph Estrada, a few acknowledged Gloria M. Arroyo's ascendancy, most didn't care who was in power. All invariably said, “Give me a job, quick,” followed by “I'd like eventually to own the lot I'm squatting on.” But there was a constant heart-breaker: “Hush, can I trouble you with one request? My kids are sick. Do you happen to have food with you?”

Even the poorest of the poor find it undignified, un-Filipino perhaps, to beg for food. Hunger, after all, can be sated by a few morsels, scavenged from garbage most likely, followed by big gulps of water from the artesian well. But not for days on end, not if all the neighbors are as desperate.

Although used to seeing poverty, Undersecretary Veronica Fenix-Villavicencio found the slum immersion alarming. She'd been a student activist helping the homeless in the '80s, an NGO worker dealing with woodcutters in the '90s. Now with the National Anti-Poverty Commission, Veronica's voice cracked as she recounted the whispered entreaties of the masa in this promising new millennium. “More than five million don't have jobs, a third of them in Metro Manila,” she said as she fought back her tears, “they are hungry and need medicine, nutrition...”

There are many more things the poor need. A study that Veronica helped prepare with NAPC Secretary Ging Deles says it all about access to basic needs of the poorest 40 percent of households:

- * pregnant women with iodine supplements, 52.8 percent;
- * pregnant women with iron supplements, 59 percent;
- * access to family planning services, 89.1 percent;

- * access to safe drinking water, 69.7 percent;
- * availment of public housing program, 2.9 percent;
- * access to sanitary toilet, 67.7 percent
- * access to electricity, 47.3 percent;
- * family head gainfully employed, 57.6 percent;
- * with children aged 6-12 years in school, 82.1 percent;
- * with children aged 13-16 in school, 45 percent;
- * with working children, 20 percent.

Behind the stark statistics are the harsh realities of life not only in slums but also on hillside and coastal villages where more of the poor dwell. Almost half of mothers and infants aren't getting enough chances to survive. Close to a third of families fall prone to floods yet have no water to drink or latrines. Almost half have no jobs, and thus have no money for as basic a need as electricity. Children are dropping out after elementary school, not to work for lack of skills but to bum around with no money for fare or food to go on to high school. Hardly anybody lives in the few mass houses that government has built.

Knowing how acute the problem is, Social Welfare Secretary Dinky Soliman is shifting her department's meager funds into food aid. Health Secretary Manuel Dayrit has mobilized more medical missions and basic drugs that his office can afford. The housing agencies under Secretary Mike Defensor and the Urban-Poor Commission are working on ways to bring down the cost of mass houses from P500,000 to P80,000. Sure, they all believe they should not just give a hungry man fish, but teach him how to fish so he won't go hungry again. But teaching takes time. So man's tummy is grumbling. Can mentor and student take time out for snacks? A plan is to expand to other regions an earlier experiment in Bicol of giving school children a bag of rice to bring home at the end of classes.

[H: ARE YOU READERS “REALLY” READING THIS?]

Other agencies are rechanneling resources for quick employment. [H: Come now, what jobs and where?] With help of private foundations, Environment Secretary Heherson Alvarez is contemplating on recruiting tens of thousands to plant fruit trees along highways. Philippine National Oil Company president Thelmo Cunanan also has ordered tree-planting around government-operated mines and exploration sites. The board of the subsidiary PNOC Coal Corp. has decided to buy more coal from camote (small-scale) miners, and at higher prices.

[H: Oh, well, THAT should fix it. Let's see now, how many years does it take a fruit tree to bear fruit and how many will be fed—IF they ever bear fruit? How many will still be alive?

WHAT IS THE MATTER WITH YOU PEOPLE? GAIA IS INSTANTLY AVAILABLE FOR ALL THESE NEEDS—IMMEDIATELY! GOD HAS RESPONDED TO YOUR PRAYERS—ARE YOU TOTALLY BLIND, DEAF AND DUMB?]

Ultimately, though, the poser arises: Where to get more to replenish funds for emergency employment? [H: GAIA, GAIA, GAIA—ANYBODY OUT THERE? GLOBAL ALLIANCE INVESTMENT ASSOCIATION (GAIA)!!! GAIA IS A GLOBAL ALLIANCE/ASSOCIATION. THE INVESTMENT IS FROM GAIA—IT IS NOT AN INVESTMENT PROGRAM. HALF OF THE FUNDS GO INTO THE BANK TO PURCHASE GOLD TO DOUBLE THE SECURITY. THE FUNDS REMAIN AS RESERVES CAN BE USED BY THE BANKS TO MAKE MORE LOANS. REQUIREMENTS? A

PROJECT AND A REGISTERED ENTITY.

IS THERE SOMETHING WRONG HERE? INDEED—THE POLITICIANS AND BANKERS WILL NOT EVEN DISCUSS IT—JUST IGNORE. WELL, PHILIPPINES, IGNORING THIS PLIGHT WILL MAKE NONE OF IT GO AWAY EXCEPT YOUR NATION, YOUR WEALTH AND YOUR VERY FREEDOM. GAIA CAN AND WILL BE HAPPY TO SUPPLY FUNDS TO PUT EVERYBODY TO WORK THIS AFTERNOON—IF NOTHING ELSE THAN TO CLEAN UP YOUR PLACE AND GET READY TO BUILD AND FLOURISH “FOR SELVES”.

PERHAPS SOMEBODY COULD GET MR. BONDOC, OR MR. BENIGNO (TEODORO) or somebody with a mouth to be heard, to call, meet, confer and check out possibilities. THE POLITICIANS ARE NOT GOING TO SAVE YOUR NATION, DREAMERS—YOU ARE GOING TO HAVE TO DEMAND A HEARING. BUT TO REPEAT THE LINE:]

Ultimately, though, the poser arises: Where to get more to replenish funds for emergency employment? Re-elected Senator Frank Drilon believes the administration will have to bite the bullet and borrow from abroad. It's a risk, but close to full employment, even if on emergency mode, can jumpstart the economy enough to entice new investors. [H: B.S.! A GAIA package was sent to Mr. Drilon without the courtesy of a reply. Response? “He is busy with the campaign.” Before that? “He is busy with the trial.” But now get this next:] Rep. Joe de Venecia, the only aspirant for Speaker who has so far presented an economic agenda, adds that a New Deal-type of emergency employment is the first step to his Plan 747, that is, seven percent growth for seven years. [H: From what will you get growth? Stop lying to yourselves. By the way, we had a personal delivery made to de Venecia by one who said he was a close neighbor and that party is very well recognized around town. That delivery party simply was, he said, appalled at the non-response if nothing more than the courtesy of acknowledgement. Postscript question: Can the starving child wait seven years?]

The academe sees results not in foreign loans but in aid. Ed Morato, dean of the Asian Institute of Management, believes that Mrs. Arroyo's credentials as an economist, coupled with her physical attributes, put her in a unique position to seek help even from donor-fatigued governments. “Even the ongoing Abu Sayyaf crisis can be cited as example and used to highlight the poverty in the countryside,” he points out.

Cunanan says there's enough government money lying around in bank deposits to match foreign aid, as donors require. Such aid can generate more emergency jobs.

Ed Olaguer, also from AIM, advocates a more radical approach. Now is the time, he says, for finance officials to seek debt forgiveness or at least a moratorium on payments. He laments that government pays a billion pesos a day in debts—money that can otherwise go into pro-poor, anti-poverty programs.

[H: Why then, doesn't somebody get MR. ED OLAGUER over to meet Mr. Ekker at The Gilarmi and discuss that very topic. You don't need to negate those debts as if you need forgiveness for living—pay them off and stop the insanity.]

Prof. Elfren S. Cruz, one-time chief of president Cory Aquino's Malacañang staff, offers other details.

Now with La Salle Graduate School of Business, he says senators and congressmen should spend their usual P15-billion-a-year pork on emergency jobs in their respective locales. Another P15 billion can be raised from Pagcor, the charity sweepstakes and the President's Social Fund to create 300,000 new jobs to clean esteros, dredge rivers or plant trees. "Economists will claim that this kind of employment is nonproductive," Cruz argues, "but the funds are anyway being wasted, so why not use it to help the poor gain purchasing power which will help our domestic economy?" He also advocates buying Filipino products and tax incentives for companies that will help employ the unemployable. [H: Say what? (??)] Call his ideas fascist or communist, Cruz dares as he recalls the very words used at the start of the New Deal of U.S. President Franklin Delano Roosevelt. "So long as the more than five million get jobs, he doesn't care about labels."

[H: So, get Mr. Elfren Cruz over here also. The Gilarmi is right on Ayala Avenue, in Makati. Mr. Ekker will be very happy, indeed, to speak with you along with any others who wish to honorably participate. Now for you people who wish to contact Mr. Bondoc with these suggestions: He can be reached at The Philippine STAR as can Mr. Benigno. Mr. Bondoc is as close as your keyboard, LOCALLY OR IN DISTANT U.S.A., if you have e-mail: jariusbondoc@workmail.com]

[END OF QUOTING]

YOU can make THE difference if you want to actually DO SOMETHING. We are weary of people waiting for us to get this job done. E-mail messages go like the wind in split second segments.

The Powers-that-Be want this to be absolutely stonewalled until they can think of something ELSE to do to negate the program. You are responsible to see that it doesn't die on the vine, readers and friends (of humanity). Nobody has a corner on responsibility! IT IS YOURS! These people here have met the enemy head-on and risked the bullets. The investigators can simply go check out the records. There have been DOZENS of top-notch attorneys at law go over this with a fine-toothed comb. Denial was PROMISED by the Elite and to "stonewall" was in their first announcement! So what! They have only made it difficult to present the impossible which made the wait a bit more difficult to accomplish the impossible. As it was said: "There is no truth in them, the ones of Satan." I believe it was even stated that Satan was their father! Also: "They were liars from the start..."

Amazingly enough, our program (GAIA) costs a nation or a bank NOTHING, neither a centavo nor dollar.

What of the U.S.A. from where comes the program and the people making the offer? It is this asset unlawfully used that has brought the world to its knees and into the hands of the Elite.

The other participants holding assets from this contract have been all but destroyed. Remember that there is a Russell partner and "wife" involved who was a partner in offering the U.S. STATES a tremendous share of this wealth. She was amazingly stopped dead in her tracks—but not before careful measures were taken to protect the assets themselves.

Go read the Protocols of the Elders of Zion to finish understanding the Elite modus operandi as regards WORLD CONTROL.

Thank you, GCH

dharmia

Philippines Needs GAIA: NOW—Very, Very Badly

6/12/01—#1 (14-300)

RE: PHILIPPINES INDEPENDENCE DAY (103 YRS); DAY AFTER MCVEIGH; WILL THE ABU SAYYAF BEHEAD THE AMERICANS IN MINDANAO (OR DID THEY ALREADY)? WILL THIS BRING TROOPS (U.S.) INTO THE FRAY?

INDEPENDENCE DAY (103RD)
CELEBRATION: PHILIPPINES

So, the question today is: "Has there been any independence?"

My question is: Has there been any INDEPENDENCE "anywhere" on the globe? Or, are there simply days of pomp and circumstance, costumed parties and flag waving while arguing over the "National Anthem" and a seeking of becoming more DEPENDENT?

Dharma simply realistically recognizes that we double up or triple up on our work on holidays and weekends. How long can this go on? As long as it takes!

I actually caught her humming the Philippine National Anthem early this morning and feeling a really genuine love for these, her little brothers in the Pacific. The U.S. has such a responsibility to these people and yet the taking has been so much the greater than the "giving" to them.

It is really quite sad, for the U.S. wants to USE the Philippines but certainly wants NO RESPONSIBILITY. You must understand that the Philippines LOSES ITS VALUE if it should become a "State" of the U.S.

It is very much like the new desired (by the Elite) coalition establishment of the Americas. The U.S. along with the Queen's Canada would own it all and could then dictate the rest of the way without interference or objection. Would anyone gain? No, every one of the nations, including the U.S. and Canada, would lose as sovereign nations and people. After the treaties and agreements, the arguments are basically over. It is just a more finalized way of New World Order.

MCVEIGH

Ok, now you have killed McVeigh for crimes against humanity in Oklahoma City, U.S.A. Is the world BETTER today? Are you sure? One thing you will never now have: Truth of who, how, what, and why such a dastardly thing as that bombing happened in the first place. And, yes, the errors OF THE PEOPLE, as the Elite Planners work their wonders, increase, for each incident that happens you will DEMAND blood and death and more and more restrictions and control as you THINK you are getting protection. You are safe NOWHERE now.

By the way, how many of you who reach the end of your days would rather die of painful cancer than a nice quiet drug injection which "puts you to sleep"? Or would you prefer the beheading which is a rather primitive custom—(you know, like the French Revolution and England's finest hour!). Just WHO and HOW do you want GOD TO JUDGE AND HANDLE EARTHMAN, INCLUDING YOU? WHY?

The facts being that you make (create) that which "is"—as in the play being an actual illusion (play) at best—what is it you REALLY want? Whatever it is: YOU DO WANT IT "YOUR WAY", DON'T YOU? You DO pray to GOD to make things work out "for you", don't you? Don't fudge the answer, please.

You want to know something, inquirer? It will; the minute you get on the side of honor, truth and true goodness—along with seeking JUSTICE and FREEDOM—FOR "ALL", NOT JUST ABUNDANCE AND FREEDOM FOR SELF!

No, I am NOT going to preach on these things—you have had enough preaching to surely last you the rest of your experience.

ABU SAYYAF, MINDANAO AND CIA

No, readers, you cannot separate these topics any longer! You can't even pull Israel out of the loop of this overall topic. Why? Because Israel is the biggest ARMS dealer in the world today—anywhere.

Now, let us look at something else which demands attention at this time: drugs and money laundering. And, NO, I did not say there was actually a direct connection but let us consider PAST connections—coming right up through TODAY which even links George Dubya Bush, President, to drug traders. Circumstantial evidence? Well, my goodness, what else did you have on McVeigh?

When you look at the incredible war games being foisted off on, actually, native tribespeople in Mindanao, while calling them "Muslims", is it possible you just don't know your daily news?

Right now on CNN, the FIRST lead topic is "The Philippines". What nobody notices, however, is that on some of the back pages of the Philippine (Manila) papers is a renewal of the status of the Philippines as a "Money Laundering" possibility. What money would be laundered through this Island group? And why would the CIA with its "suggested" drug connections need money laundering?

BUT, is it actually a matter of as gross a thing as drugs? Well, yes and no. Drugs are out of hand in, especially greater Manila—but, no, that is NOT the bigger need for banks and money laundering. The CORRUPTION PAYOFFS MUST HAVE ABILITY TO CONTINUE TO CIRCULATE. People, it is KNOWN that of the Philippine IMF debt (just the IMF), there is due-and-owing a minimum of $6 Billion in interest payments alone. The going knowledge is that at least TWO BILLION DOLLARS of that sum goes to kickbacks—and these kickbacks are to very closely associated personalities. No wonder Mr. Estrada, after becoming President, gleefully exclaimed, "My God, the money just keeps pouring in—bigger than before," whatever "before" might indicate. So just exactly what did the President accumulate in JUST 18 MONTHS, billions and billions of pesos—more, apparently, than “before” when he was already receiving kickbacks and payoffs as political offices were held.

And, no, I am not into Erap’s personal affairs or trials with tribulations. I can guarantee you, however, that similar offers are being made right now to the new administration of which the claim is that only the President was changed-out while the corruption continued uninterrupted. That, however, is ALSO not our business as to ability to input other than observations exactly like this one.

We are NOT into money games or secret deals. Perhaps it is true that nobody, then, knows what in heck to do with us or our program. This is too hot a potato to toss around in the open—so try to bury said potato until it rots dead away seems to be the idea. I would guess, however, that in the world this Philippine mess, including GAIA, is considered “little potatoes”, if, indeed, HOT.

So what of the Philippines Central Bank and Philippine GOLD?

Now there is one for the books and right off the daily newspaper pages: 95% of the Philippine Central Bank GOLD has been shipped OUT OF THE PHILIPPINES to “SWAP” for monetary credits. But NOW where is the gold? GONE! SO, THE PHILIPPINES NEEDS GAIA—VERY, VERY BADLY. Actually, Bush and Boys need GAIA badly because the GOLD IS GONE! You see, when Dad Bush did his deals, he based his expenditures on NOTHING, especially not on gold to back up his grabs—except to acquire gold interests (i.e. Barrick) and some “Black Gold” (oil) holdings to outdo everyone. Check out Kuwait, Bahrain and, yes, indeed, Brunei!

And as we write, Indonesia’s Jakarta hoopla covers Australian World Order snatch of everything in East Timor which includes lots of “gas”, oil AND GUESS WHAT: GOLD. Even the Papua New Guinea pipeline project got dumped in favor of grabbing off East Timor, leaving PNG again in the pits. I can guarantee you that the Philippines or Indonesia will NOT be left with gold-plated palaces like Brunei or even as planned by one, Erap Estrada who just needed to get rid of his “pouring in” wealth.

Be all this as it may, the only way to “contain” the Philippines is to work up a major conflict in Mindanao whose people don’t want “to take it any longer”. There has to be a way to weasel in the military—and enlarge to the UN and you have a military presence in Mindanao that will never leave. Worse, it is already known and discussed quite openly here in wonderful picturesque downtown Manila.

How much banked or stored gold exists around the globe under the Marcos PLAN worked out WITH the U.S. Administration Reagan-Bush? Well, you certainly know that there is a lot in Iraq and more in Libya—oh, gosh and golly, gee. The Indonesia and PNG reserves are about to be seized by taking of the Central Banks under whatever subterfuge will fly, through the WORLD BANK. Just a wee-tad bit more debt and foreclosure is at hand without all that nasty negotiating for a quiet/secret snatch.

And so, when you reconsider the plight of Mindanao the overall picture is quite disturbing. It is especially disconcerting now that alienation is made with Malaysia if at all possible—but which just doesn’t quite make it all the way as far as brotherhood of the people is concerned. In addition, that nasty old

GAIA has a whole bunch, like many bunches of Deeds in Mindanao where it is said there is enough gold all by itself, to make it work perfectly—even through Malaysia or anywhere. One thing about the REAL Muslims (Islamic) is their brotherhood among themselves. And, NO, they DO NOT advocate violence in any manner whatsoever. Sorry about that, you people who think they are violent by teaching or nature. It does seem, however, that after being battered, bashed and robbed, they say they just are “mad as hell and won’t take it any more”. For goodness sakes, they don’t even take “interest payments”. It was easy, indeed, for Chase Manhattan Bank to steal everything they wanted. Moreover, after three generations of “revised” history, whoever was able to write the books could take over without much objection. Unfortunately, or fortunately as the case might be—the Muslims simply didn’t buy the revised historical presentations, including the Holocaust, unless there are some who work with that New World Order.

How many of you have noticed that a major player-member of Bilderbergers is a Palestinian?

How many of you will pick up a reference to Current Affairs as being a U.S. quarterly journal (magazine) as it is quoted? My goodness, yes, it is THE MAGAZINE OF THE CFR (COUNCIL ON FOREIGN RELATIONS) THE EXCLUSIVE CLUB OF THE COMMITTEE OF 300.

You might want to ask along about here: “What does that have to do with Abu Sayyaf and Mindanao?” EVERYTHING!

And, you continue by asking: “What does all this have to do with the Federal Government (a foreign entity), a Federal Building in Oklahoma City, U.S.A. and a Timothy McVeigh?” EVERYTHING!

CLOSER TO HOME WITH AN EXAMPLE?

Response to Ellen from Ekkers regarding the “Bankruptcy” papers you forwarded this morning:

The Financial corporation emerging from bankruptcy in Santa Barbara happens to be THE Financial Institution owned by the same high rollers who also owned Santa Barbara Savings and Loan and who carried the paper on Ekkers’ house until the prior owners of the property itself were put into bankruptcy. Since there was a contract with Santa Barbara through those prior owners, Ekkers were 100% involved. You can check out this tale with Audrey J.—for she accompanied Ekkers to Santa Barbara to meet with the Resolution Trust Corporation (RTC) after the takeover of Santa Barbara Savings. Only a couple of things wrong here.

It was noted that the big shots of Santa Barbara Savings and Loan Association (called Association) took massive bonuses, switched around officers and offices and actually put into their home office (biggest office) the area RTC executive Director. Wow, that was a day to remember, so I’m sure Audrey can expound on it quite sufficiently.

The whole story is far too long and dreary for here but the shakeout is that the good loans of those “insider” institutions went to Bank of America—while those considered questionable, problem or non-performing loans (mortgages) went to payoff by YOU THE TAXPAYERS OF THE GOOD OLD U.S.A. Believe me when I remind everyone that the Ekkers were very definitely, from the beginning, PROBLEM CUSTOMERS.

Worse than this might appear was the fact that the LEGAL firm from which came the Municipal Judge, Jason Brent of Mojave, California who first did-in the Ekkers (along with the law firm of one, Steven Horn, adversary par non-excellence) and the RTC was the firm, Shea and Gould (out of New York and Beverly Hills), that had Controlling interest in the “Association”.

To protect themselves the Financial Company in Santa Barbara along with the dirty little bunch of them took Bankruptcy—Chapter 11 (restructuring). All they had to do was divest, get paid off and do business under some other entity temporarily and finally NOW, after all these years—will get their final release by court order. The court just wants to tell as much, for any objection, regardless of what is stated, will go to the trash can just like the entire case was handled to the tune of hundreds of thousands of dollars lost to the court and lawyers. The dirty bounders come right back into business bigger and better than ever with NO DEBTS—while the RTC went down and out and the criminals win again.

Possibly more interesting is how might have our people even ended up with paperwork? It certainly does point out that Ekkers WERE VERY DEFINITELY A PART OF THE CASE—EVEN WHILE THE CLAIM WAS THAT THEY WERE NOT AND HAD NOTHING TO DO WITH THE PROPERTY.

I would hope that someone will make sure Millers learn of this little side-lark through the legal jungle.

Could Ekkers reopen the case and object? Of course, that is what the paperwork is all about! Laugh while you can, citizens, you will surely be next!

I do want these things documented, E.J., because there are so many clouds on THAT property “title” as to astound the never-astounded.

Then there is an additional problem with that particular property: There is a spring under the house itself which “runs”, mostly underground, during any wet season.

There is also a Sipapu which has only meaning to the few of you. It is, however, a blessing for the respectful. However, to the “wicked”, let us say, it is a dastardly place from which to have stolen property. Does this mean ghosts and goblins? No, it means a bit of Spiritual specialness.

E.J.: Note that that beautiful home was for sale three years prior to your involvement and it hasn’t improved to date. It just sits there empty, awaiting—what? People on the very street itself can’t stand the “noise” and ringing in their ears. It shared GREAT JOY and wondrous experiences. Never overlook the reminders of possibilities.

Is the place “cursed”? No, indeed! It was blessed just as you were and are blessed. Joy flows from these little revelations and realizations. That spring, alone, is an albatross attached to that house for it was not “disclosed” as under the law—even when the RTC sold it. My goodness, what possibilities! Then when Millers again put it up for sale, it was “overlooked”.

Now all the contents are lost (gone), the birds gone, and the very heart of the place is mourning. You can’t believe such a thing? THINK AGAIN!

I know, you tend to put aside the issue because being 9,000 miles away and unable to DO anything, even protect the businesses which were “home officed” in that structure, you try not to realize the loss? JUST SEE TO IT THAT NO STATUTE TIME LIMITATIONS LAPSE! That includes the Spectrum case. You will NOT be locked in Manila forever and some of these things are not just personal, they are mandatory responsibilities—especially corporate fiduciary responsibilities. We will have to clean it up—all of it. Even that which you would “rather not” must be attended. Options by then, however, will be MANY. But, no, you will not escape the building in that area, for there is much to be done—and by your journey back, there will be ability for people to be available to handle it.

I don't want to belabor these points but I see great questions which arise in the “what if” unknown. I cannot get rid of the “what-iffing”, for that is each individual's choice. Certainly there ARE ways to achieve the needs perceived for the interim push—even if the push is “forever”. When the “can'ts” are released in the light of “what is right”, you can let go—and God will...! However, only through prudence, good management and good stewardship will the outcome be perfected. We have sent forth GOOD and, therefore, ONLY good shall ultimately return. Know that it is so.

As we look around, especially in the Philippines, you can see such a need unto the smallest child that you can realize we cannot leave our post nor our participation. Three years is long, yes, but already you don't remember the dates of your so-called big events (good or bad). Most of you can't even remember the year and thus much the less, the date of things you believed at the time you could never ever forget.

Recognize this truth by stopping and considering things in your own special life. Even the loss of a home only conjures a “thought”—and only the loss of the living parrots both large and small, actually bring “pain” as to loss of property. It is, even then, only the happenings of the experience that brings such sadness—and further resolution and confrontation are the only causes of regret. Moreover, the loss of the sparrow, Albird, still brings the most acute response to the heart, as does the tiny monkey, Sam. Man, without these emotions is NOTHING—for Man must feel LOVE/JOY and LOSS to be whole. Soul is measured by the conscience.

When you accept life as a series of experiences, negative and positive, to be expressed, the overall picture becomes far more comprehensive. You can experience some things WITH another or others, but only YOU can experience that which is YOURS. This is true of the most dense jungle in Sulu or Sumatra or the driest desert in Saudi Arabia. Perhaps this can help put things into perspective and also bring realization of “remoteness dilution” (the farther the distance and the longer the time interval) brings the relative emotional reality as well as the softening of events themselves.

This is in no way to mean that you either “forgive” or “forget”—for “forgiveness” is truly a nebulous idea. Forgetting is truly a no-no, for once you “forget”—you have negated the very experience itself with its lessons learned (or not learned as the case most usually is). The most creative abilities, however, come from the negatively perceived obstacles in the pathway. That is because, if all goes as you wish, you pay little attention. You can both make them go as you wish AND BE CREATIVE IN HANDLING THE “PROBLEMS”. Be a bit willing and versatile while remaining totally “adaptable”. Try it; you'll like it.

I would leave you with this thought: Act in every way and in every day toward protection of that which is your sovereignty in both world, nation and self. Independence within that sovereignty is really all the freedom you have with which to attend yourself. It is a precious thing—and how long you hold it is UP TO YOU.—GCH dharmā

The News Desk

By John & Jean Ray

THE GOLD POOL

By Clif Droke, gold-eagle.com, 6/9/01

CHAPTER 3

Alan Greenspan was no stranger to the tales of the great manipulative cliques in the gold market of past years, or “gold pools” as they were often called. Even though federal regulations had long since made it illegal for any group of speculators to operate in organized groups or pools, he knew it was still very much a common practice, particularly within those trading groups organized within the Federal Reserve System. Foremost among these pools were those operated by the Fed Financial Affairs Committee, known as the “FACE”.

Greenspan's mind swirled at the thought of the task to which he had been assigned: oversee the manipulation of the gold market down to $400/oz. He knew this campaign would be a long, arduous, painstaking task. He knew further that many thousands of traders and investors would be financially crushed along the way, many of them irreparably.

Greenspan's mind flashed back to the oft-repeated insider's tale about the infamous “Erie clique” of the late 1800s. At that time, shortly after the Civil War had ended, the leading figures in the banking and money scene were more often than not caught in the middle of some conspiracy to manipulate some commodity, security, or anything that could be manipulated. The leading members of this notorious group—the “FACE” of its day—included Jay Gould, president of the Erie Railway, at that time the biggest rail line in the country; James Fisk Jr., comptroller of the same; and Frederic Lane and Henry Smith, directors of the same. Also involved in the Erie pool to manipulate the gold and stock market of that day and time were representatives of the N.M. Rothschild banking house in London and another very large banking concern in Vienna. In those days, every notorious financial scandal and conspiracy to manipulate markets usually had its origin in some European banking house. And N.M. Rothschild was usually the culprit.

Of this Greenspan was fully aware; in fact, whenever he thought on this he usually found himself repeating the line, “The more things change, the more they stay the same.”

In the days immediately following the Civil War, gold commonly traded anywhere between $120 and $140 per ounce. The country had just emerged from the horrors of war and most people were expecting a deflationary crisis to emerge after experiencing a prolonged period of inflation due to a wartime economy. After three or four year's time, however, the collapse never materialized and people then assumed the coast was clear to begin speculating again. At that point the door was swung wide open for a notable advance in all sorts of prices—stocks, commodities (chiefly cotton and wheat), even real estate. What almost no one was expecting was a decline or destabilization of the currency or an inability of the government to meet its monetary obligations. Therefore, most investors and speculators were betting on a decline in the price of gold.

Since there was so much bearishness among the trading public with respect to gold prices, it was only natural that many thousands taking huge bets that the price of gold would drop. Some were even so daring as to expect a drop all the way down to $100/oz., and made their trades accordingly. A huge “short interest” arose on the gold exchange, which meant that speculators who were bearish on gold had borrowed gold they didn't actually own with expectations of buying the gold at a much lower price when and if the price dropped. Of course, if the price didn't actually drop, it would mean certain disaster for a great many traders. Needless to say, the short interest on the gold exchange had risen to a level not seen in many decades—and it seemed as if the entire country was counting on a massive drop in the price of gold. This is when the Erie clique decided to make its move.

At the time the Erie clique began to operate with vigor in the U.S. gold market, the supply of coin was not over $20 million, and was probably less. The government held from $90 to $95 million, about $20 million of which were a special deposit represented by gold certificates that were afloat in the banks and in the hands of the people. Deducting these 20 from 95, there were $75 million as the amount of gold actually owned by the government. The Erie clique knew, therefore, how much gold they would have to buy on the open market in order to control prices in their favor.

The conspirators began by purchasing $20 million in gold from the available floating supply. As soon as this amount was bought the conspirators were masters of the situation and held a monopoly over the gold market. In their own words, “They held the market in the palm of their hand.” Every merchant who required gold to pay duties—and every speculator who had sold gold for future delivery—would be compelled to come to them to buy. The fact that there were an unusually large number of traders who were willing to operate on the “bear side” was the golden goose the conspirators hoped to pluck. It was nothing to them that in the course of their operation, the credit of the country would be gravely impaired and thousands of merchants would inevitably be ruined. Considerations of the public welfare commanded little respect in the halls of the Erie clique; and as to the merchants, it was their business to take care of themselves.

Gold had sold at $129.50 on the presidential inauguration of Ulysses Grant in 1869. The campaign of the Erie gold pool was opened around the middle of September of that year. Jay Gould, the leader of the Erie clique, called a meeting of the pool at his offices one morning at that time. One of them proposed that they should buy a few million dollars worth of gold. Millions to those men were as mere hundreds to ordinary mortals. The others assented. And each agreeing to take three million, the veteran operator of the group, disdaining concealment, went in person to the Gold Room of the New York Stock Exchange—where gold contracts were bought and sold—and bought $9 million worth of gold at $133-$134. It seems probable that this purchase, added to what the clique had previously bought, made them possessors of all the actual gold in New York outside of the Sub-treasury. The situation, however, was so little understood by the public that the sellers were as confident as ever, and the clique experienced no difficulty in buying from one to two or three millions more each day.

In the gold market of that day there was what was called the Loan Department of the gold exchange in New York. In that part of the exchange, parties had gold to lend—that is to say, exchange it for its market value in currency with persons who require it for duties or for delivery—at rates which vary according to the condition of the money market and the short interest. When money was very tight, holders of gold had to pay usurious rates to get currency in exchange for their coin. When everybody believed that gold was going down and the short interest was large, holders of coin were often able to obtain a bonus for its use. By lending out the gold they had bought at the current rates, the clique was enabled to gradually accumulate much more gold than could have been delivered by the bears in one day had they been called on for it—and this without attracting any attention.

The market, however, was sure to feel the effects of such steady purchases before long. Within a day or two after the purchase of nine millions at $134, gold was selling at $138. On the morning of September 22, 1869, the clique probably owned several millions more gold than there was in the city outside of the Sub-treasury. This gold was partly loaned to the bears—and partly “carried” by banks and bankers for the clique on margins.

Later that day, a caucus meeting of the clique took place in the back offices of William Heath and Co., on Broad Street. The purpose of the meeting was to put the price of gold up to $200 or higher, if only they could “carry” their gold without lending it, and so compel the shorts to buy in. But, on the other hand, the premium was so absurdly high that it made one dizzy to think of having to find a market for $20 or $30 million. On either side, ruin for someone was inevitable.

On September 23, the clique began operating in earnest. Gould had a host of brokers buying gold for him. To his own clerk, who represented him in the Gold Room, he gave the Napoleonic order: “Put gold up to $144 and keep it there.” His clerk proceeded to buy $7 million in the execution of this order. Altogether, Gould must have purchased, directly or indirectly that day, not much less than $20 million worth of gold. The price opened at $141 and closed at $143.

The most astounding feature of these immense operations is that they were probably achieved without the outlay of one single dollar—virtually all of it was undertaken through enormous borrowings. That this was possible was due to the facilities afforded by the Gold Exchange Bank, and to the custom of lending gold. It would appear that Gould not only lent all the gold he could himself, but whenever he gave a broker an order to buy, he likewise requested him to lend the gold in his own name. As gold was constantly rising, the lenders were never out of pocket a single dollar.

On the evening of Thursday, Sept. 23, another meeting of the conspirators took place. At that meeting it was suggested that difficulties would necessarily occur in the Clearinghouse, and that it was highly improbable that the bank would attempt twice to clear so enormous a transaction as that of today’s. It was judged necessary that the manipulation campaign should culminate on the following day. How to effect the culmination was the question at hand. The clique owned and held contracts for a very large amount of gold—nearly $110,000,000. The short interest alone on the market for gold was $250,000,000. The total amount of gold fell short of $25,000,000. Whatever was the difference between $25,000,000 and the aggregate net purchases of the clique represented the uncovered short interest, which, in the event of a corner, would have to be settled at the dictation of the clique and under any terms they cared to dictate.

It had been decided by the clique that the following day the operation should culminate—and that gold would be put up to $200. “This will be the last day of many a gold trader,” Gould told fellow members of the pool.

The next morning, on Sept. 24, gold was put up sharply. This was done by a broker acting on the orders of Gould and company. Gold opened at $143 at about 9:15 a.m. The broker was ordered by Fisk and Gould to bid it up to $145, then to $150, then to $155, and finally to $160. It reached the latter figure before 11 a.m. At about the same time, a number of brokers were directed to confer privately with the shorts, to advise them earnestly to settle with the clique; and to threaten them—in the event they did not settle—that gold would be put up to $200 before the close of trading that day. Needless to say, it didn’t take much convincing to get the hoards of “shorts” to settle on the terms of the clique.

Settlement once established as the order of the day, there was no longer any motive for putting gold up—and Gould sent into the Gold Room of the exchange, half-a-dozen brokers with orders to sell all the gold they could. Needless to say, the day was one of wild excitement. The gold ticker in many boardrooms and offices, to record gold price fluctuations, ceased to be of any use. It worked only a fraction of the time, so large were the transactions being made that day, and the capacity of the tickers so inadequate to register such a large volume. The ticker took so long to indicate an advance of just one percent that, though it was incessantly in motion, it was never quite correct. Gold was jumping about two or three percent a minute. The Gold Room was thronged. Every importing merchant was vitally interested in the movement; no one could sit still in his office. Each entrance to the Gold Room was blocked with masses of excited and angry men; it needed some perseverance and some muscle to work one’s way through the press. On the brokers’ faces every variety of expression was depicted. Here was a jubilant group, evidently people who had expected to be ruined by the advance in gold, and who were now saved by its precipitate fall; and here were knights of rueful countenance, people who had been frightened and had bought it during the rise. Among the older and more experienced brokers, grave apprehensions for the future were mingled with indignation at the infamous conspiracy. It was already evident that the crisis must lead to numerous failures, and for very large amounts; no one could tell, in fact, where the catastrophe would end.

It was said that the government broke the corner by selling five million in gold; however, this was not the case. The corner collapsed of necessity from the instant the shorts went “in a rush” to Smith, Gould and Martin’s office to settle. If the government had not sold a single dollar, the result would have been the same.

In the meantime all was confusion at the Gold Exchange Bank. This institution was the clearinghouse for the gold brokers of the country. The transactions in gold on that fateful day of Sept. 24, 1869, had been so enormous that the balances in gold and currency were unprecedentedly large. Some five or six millions of certified checks had been paid into the bank that morning—and seven or eight million in gold. Money was scarce at that time; the nation’s banks were hard pressed. This sudden and unexpected withdrawal of so large an amount of money from circulation led to one of the worst panics Wall Street had ever seen at that time.

Its severity may be imagined when it is stated that money was loaned at 250 percent, per annum, and that stocks fell from 20 to 50 percent in a single day. New York Central, a leading stock of that day and time, which had been selling at $215 or $218, fell to $145, to take one prominent example. Several of the largest banking houses in the country were compelled to suspend payments; and of those which outlived the storm, quite a large number lost all they had.

All of this was the work of the gold conspirators. They alone, of all the people in the market, had made money out of the general desolation.

Finally, the last stroke in this great conspiracy was given by the Erie clique. The Gold Exchange and the Stock Exchange were enjoined from using their machinery to enforce fulfillment of the contracts of Sept. 24, 1869, and the Gold Exchange Bank—on the affidavit of one of the confidential brokers of the Erie clique—was thrown into the hands of a receiver.

A chill went up Greenspan’s spine whenever he recounted the operations of the Erie gold pool and the fateful consequences of their scheme. Now, nearly 120 years later, it was his turn to re-enact the events of that infamous page in America’s financial history, only with a different twist: He was to manipulate the price of gold downward instead of upward. With such a long and sordid history before him—and with the events of October 19, 1987 still fresh on his mind—he could only dream as to what the outcome of this conspiracy would be. The intrigue, he knew, had only just begun. (To be continued.)—Clif Droke is the editor of the weekly Internet Stock Forecast (www.istockforecast.com) newsletter and the author of several books on trading and technical analysis, including Technical Analysis Simplified and Moving Averages Simplified (Traders Library). cdroke9819@aol.com

MEXICAN TRUCKS MAY ROLL INTO U.S.

By Bill Hillburg, Washington Bureau, 6/10/01

Opening border to big rigs stirs safety fears

WASHINGTON—President George W. Bush plans to break down the last major barrier to trade with Mexico and give thousands of Mexican big-rig trucks full access to Southern California and the rest of the nation.

Supporters say the move, which is opposed by a bipartisan group of House members from Southern California, is needed to fulfill the economic promise of the 1994 North American Free Trade Agreement. Foes say the Bush plan will unleash a potentially lethal fleet of untrained drivers and unsafe trucks on Los Angeles freeways and streets.

“We have always been in favor of NAFTA. Mexico is California’s largest trading partner and 80 percent of that trade comes by truck,” said Warren Hoemann, vice president of the California Trucking Association, which has 2,500 member companies. “But we also want Mexico to abide by the same safety rules we do and that hasn’t happened yet.”

Mexican officials hold an opposite view.

“We have fulfilled all of the standards requested by the U.S.,” said Javier Mancera, minister of trade affairs for the Mexican Embassy in Washington. “We are in full compliance and there are no problems that I know of. It is the U.S. that is out of compliance with NAFTA.”

Mexican truckers are now restricted to a 15-mile-deep strip inside the border and required to transfer their cargo to domestic carriers or deliver them to border-area warehouses. Under NAFTA, they were to have been given full access to U.S. roads on Jan. 1, 2000.

President Clinton, who pushed for approval of NAFTA, ordered a delay in late 1999, citing safety concerns.

A trade tribunal that oversees the NAFTA pact ruled in February that the United States was out of compliance with the trade agreement. That set the stage for a final decision by Bush, which NAFTA supporters expect before the end of the year.

White House spokesman Ken Lisaius said there was no set timetable for a Bush decision, but "the administration is committed to fair trade and living up to our obligations to nations with which we have trade agreements."

The president, who has announced support for a free trade zone throughout the Western Hemisphere, last week ordered implementation of another NAFTA trucking provision that had been blocked by Clinton since 1995.

The order, which allows U.S. subsidiaries of Mexican companies to set up their own trucking operations within the United States, instead of being required to use American trucking firms, is expected to have a minor impact on trade and highway safety. But NAFTA backers hailed it as a strong indication of Bush's support for opening up the border.

Mancera cited trade data showing that California farms and businesses exported $19.03 billion worth of goods to Mexico in 2000, a state volume second only to Texas' $51.72 billion. He said California-Mexico trade, up 192 percent over 1993 levels, could be greatly increased if cumbersome border rules were eliminated.

U.S. critics charge that Mexico lacks adequate truck safety inspection systems and work rules for drivers. They also say that the four states charged with regulating NAFTA border traffic lack needed manpower and that enforcement varies greatly among California, Arizona, New Mexico and Texas.

Both critics and supporters of open truck trade said California has by far the most stringent inspection system.

But officials of the California Highway Patrol, which handles an average of 3,000 Mexican truck and driver inspections per day at Otay Mesa, near San Diego, said most vehicles get only a cursory check from inspectors.

The Otay Mesa facility, which operates daily from 6 a.m. to 10 p.m., reported a failure rate of 20 percent for trucks entering from Mexico. Faulty brakes and incomplete insurance, licenses and other paperwork were cited as the major reasons for detaining trucks and drivers, who must correct problems or return to Mexico.

A 2000 report by the Department of Transportation's inspector general, which examined border crossings from Texas to California, found that, overall, only 1 percent of trucks entering the United States from Mexico were being inspected.

Of that fraction of border truck traffic, 35 percent of inspected vehicles were found to have such dangerous defects that they were put out of service on the spot.

A spokesman for the CHP, which conducts spot safety checks in the Los Angeles-Long Beach port area and other sites with heavy truck traffic, said those inspections also result in a 20 percent average failure rate for U.S.-registered big rigs.

"There is no Mexican infrastructure to ensure safe trucking," said Robert Black, spokesman for the International Brotherhood of Teamsters. "U.S. drivers are limited to 10 hours a day at the wheel, must keep logs and are subject to random drug tests. Mexican drivers can go 20 hours or more per day and keep no records and have no drug rules.

"Also, the U.S. tracks all interstate trucks and drivers on a computer database. Mexico has no system. It's a recipe for disaster."

NAFTA supporters argue that the Teamsters and other trade and labor groups oppose opening up the border to trucks because they fear increased competition from Mexican companies.

"There have been concerns in the past, but the rules are now in place on both sides of the border," said Albert Zapantas, president of the Washington-based Mexican-American Chamber of Commerce. "It is now time to have real free trade."

Zapantas, an East Los Angeles native, and other NAFTA supporters also argue that open border treatment for Mexico is overdue. They note that trucks from Canada, America's other NAFTA partner, have enjoyed full access to the United States since 1998.

"Our drivers are all trained, licensed and regulated," Mancera said. "How can our trucks be so bad? Many of the large trucks sold in the U.S. are now built in Mexico for American companies and the same models are on our roads."

Rep. Bob Filner, D-Chula Vista, whose district includes the border zone, gave the CHP high marks for its inspection program, but said more manpower is needed. He also cited a near-total lack of inspection programs in other states.

"Every truck gets a visual inspection, but they are pulled over for further inspection only if there is an obvious problem or safety hazard," said CHP Sgt. Rich Stewart, spokesman for the Otay Mesa inspection station. "And trucks that have passed a prior inspection and have been certified are most likely to be passed."

While current NAFTA rules require Mexican trucks to stay within the designated border zone, Stewart said the CHP relies mostly on patrols and freeway checkpoints to keep vehicles from continuing on to the Los Angeles area or points beyond.

Filner—who wants Bush to hold off on fully opening the border until stringent inspection programs, operating rules and adequate manpower are in place on both sides of the border—has plenty of company in Congress.

"There are some genuine issues with NAFTA's impact on our ability to regulate safety and the environment," said Rep. Adam Schiff, D-Pasadena. "Trade is definitely good for the economy, but we have to make sure we don't lose control."

Rep. Juanita Millender-McDonald, D-Torrance, is among 30 House Democrats who co-sponsored a measure that asks Bush to keep current border trucking controls in force.

"I fear that, if Bush opens up the border before both sides are ready, soon after we're going to have a horrible truck crash somewhere in the U.S. involving an unsafe Mexican vehicle or driver. Americans are going to die in that crash and Congress will have to try to fix the problem. But it will be too late for the victims."

VOTERS IN IRELAND REJECT EXPANSION OF EUROPEAN UNION

By Sarah Lyall, New York Times, 6/9/01

DUBLIN, IRELAND—Voters in Ireland threw the European Union's expansion plans into sudden disarray today by unexpectedly rejecting a European treaty that was to pave the way for 12 new members, most of them former Communist countries.

The decision to reject the treaty, drawn up in Nice, France, in December, seems to have come from a mix of apathy—only 32.9 percent of registered voters turned out for Thursday's vote—and a deep-seated fear that an enlarged European Union would threaten national sovereignty and siphon money away from Ireland in favor of needier countries.

The vote, 54 percent opposed to the treaty and 46 percent in favor of it, will surely delay plans to expand the European Union, but it does not necessarily mean the expansion will not take place. Ireland could renegotiate parts of the treaty and then take the new version back to voters for another referendum, possibly as early as the fall.

Over the last few decades, Ireland has been one of the biggest beneficiaries of the increasingly powerful European Union, whose 15 current members are drawn from Western Europe. Despite an economic expansion that has helped turn Ireland into one of Europe's most robust economies, the Irish seemed reluctant to extend the same generosity to others.

"There was nothing in the Treaty of Nice that was good for Ireland to motivate people," Anthony Coughlan, secretary of the National Platform, which worked to defeat the referendum, said in an interview.

When the Irish imagined the inclusion of millions of Polish farmers "with two cows apiece" in the European Union, Mr. Coughlan said, they thought, "Our money would be going to farmers, but it wouldn't be going to Irish farmers; it would be going to Polish farmers."

Ireland's unease over European expansion is hardly unprecedented. Many European countries are worried about ceding too much power over domestic issues to the European Union. Last year, in the first popular test for Europe's common currency, voters in Denmark rejected the euro. Britain, too, is embroiled in a deep identity crisis over its ties to Europe, although the Conservative Party's Save the Pound platform proved unpopular with the voters in Thursday's election.

Ireland is the only European Union country required by its Constitution to have a referendum on the treaty. In other member countries, the treaty is to go before the national legislatures, and its passage has been presented as a virtual certainty.

Prime Minister Bertie Ahern said there were no easy solutions to the problems created by the vote.

"While I am certain that the vast majority of the Irish people remain strongly committed to the European Union and enlargement [MM: Don't count on it.], it is clear that there are genuine anxieties and concerns about the future, which go well beyond the terms of the treaty itself," said Mr. Ahern, whose government led the campaign for the treaty and who was badly shaken by the defeat. "We are going to have to reflect deeply on how those may best be addressed."

Other countries in Europe, too, were stunned by the results of the vote. In a joint statement, Goran Persson, Sweden's prime minister and the president of the European Council, and Romano Prodi, president of the European Commission, said that they were "very disappointed" by the result, but that they would continue to work toward expansion.

Under the current plans, the first new members would begin the process of joining the European Union as early as 2003.

In addition to providing for the broad expansion of the European Union, the Treaty of Nice, negotiated over four difficult days and nights last December, would reconfigure voting strength and the way decisions are reached in a number of European Union institutions.

During the first half of the month-long campaign before Thursday's vote, approval seemed all but assured. But a poll published last week showed the gap between the two sides decreasing, and opponents of the treaty—a loose coalition of religious groups, socialists, nationalists and environmentalists—began to capitalize on the public's fears about what acceptance would mean.

In addition to the unsavory prospect of paying money to the European Union at the expense of Ireland's own subsidies, ratification of the treaty raised for some voters the specter of a European Union full of impoverished people from the East flooding into Ireland in search of jobs [Sound familiar?]. In the last several years, tens of thousands of refugees from poor and war-torn countries have come here, as they have to other countries in Western Europe. The influx has been hard for Ireland, traditionally a country of emigrants rather than immigrants, to accept.

"They've allowed too many refugees into this country at the moment," said Kevin Collins, a 50-year-old house painter interviewed outside Doheny & Nesbit's pub in central Dublin, explaining why he voted against the treaty. "They've started ghetto areas in Dublin."

Nor does Mr. Collins have much faith in the government's explanation about what an enlarged European Union would mean, or indeed, in the European Commission itself. "It's too bureaucratic an organization, and it's getting too big," he said.

Many Irish people feared that ratification of the treaty would force Ireland to take part in the European Union's Rapid Reaction Force, thus disturbing the country's traditional neutrality.

"I don't think the Irish public gives a tinker's curse about European institutional reform," Ben Tonra, deputy director of the European Institute at University College Dublin, said in an interview. "The real issue is Ireland's involvement with the European Rapid Reaction Force."

Mr. Tonra added that the government, which led the "Yes" campaign along with the Catholic Church, had done little to convince voters of the merits of the treaty. "What were the government incentives to vote for it?" he said. "It was just generic abstract good will towards potential future partners in Eastern Europe."

A humbled Mr. Ahern said the government should have worked harder to sell the treaty to voters.

"I am disappointed that all of us on the 'Yes' side—the government, the main political parties and the social partners [IBC/NWO gang of parasites!—were not able to persuade [brainwash] a higher number of voters in making such an important decision," he said. It was clear, he added, that those supporting the treaty had not succeeded "in overcoming the negative fears and perceptions, which in many cases were generated around issues largely outside of the treaty."

Mr. Prodi and Mr. Persson said the European Union, too, had to find better ways to explain its work in ways that ordinary people could understand.

"This situation undoubtedly underlines the need for greater efforts from all of us to explain Europe to our citizens and to involve them more thoroughly in the debate about the Union, its role and its future direction," they said.

CALIFORNIA DENIED WAIVER ON CLEAN-GAS ADDITIVES

By Scott Lindlaw, Associated Press, 6/10/01

EPA rejects Davis' request to forgo ethanol and other oxygenates.

CRAWFORD, TEXAS—The Bush administration will not exempt California from a rule requiring that gasoline contain clean-burning additives such as corn-based ethanol, which critics say could raise gas prices in the state.

Democratic Gov. Gray Davis asked for the exemption, arguing that California no longer needed an additive because refiners had other ways to make gasoline blends cheaper and cleaner.

Bush, a Republican who lost the state in the presidential election, also has rejected Davis' request for federal price caps to ease California's power crisis. The additive decision has far-reaching consequences for the oil industry and farmers.

Davis spokesman Roger Salazar said he could not comment directly on the decision because the governor had not been notified of it officially.

But he said rejection of the waiver request could increase the cost of producing gasoline with ethanol and drive pump prices up.

"In the short term, oxygenates do nothing to improve air quality," Salazar added.

Two years ago, Davis banned the use of MTBE, which adds oxygen to help fuel burn more cleanly but has tainted water supplies. He ordered that the additive be phased out after 2002.

That would leave gasoline refiners to meet the federal requirement with the other widely available oxygenate, ethanol.

Davis asked the Clinton administration to waive the federal oxygenate requirement entirely.

Rep. Henry Waxman, D-Los Angeles, who chaired a House subcommittee that helped draft the Clean Air Act in 1990, said Saturday he was stunned by the decision since requiring an oxygenate in the fuel could harm consumers and the environment.

"It really is an unbelievable decision. It's incomprehensible to me, because if the waiver had been granted, it wouldn't have any environmental consequences because the Clean Air (Act) requirements would still have to be met," he said.

"President Bush's actions can lead to higher prices for gasoline and possible shortages in California," he said. "At some point, the president is going to have to decide whether he's president for the entire country or just for those states that voted for him."

California officials also argued that the current requirement could raise gas prices at the pump as much as a nickel a gallon once MTBE is phased out. Prices for gasoline averaged $1.97 in north Orange County last week and $2.09 along the coast.

But the EPA, after consultations with the White House, rejected Davis' plea, concluding that the environmental benefits of the oxygenate rule were too important, said an administration official, speaking on condition of anonymity.

Davis' fuel waiver request had languished until now, complicated by political factors and the change of administrations.

The Environmental Protection Agency was expected to issue the decision as early as Tuesday, three administration officials said Saturday.

Bush gave strong hints about the decision during a trip Friday to Iowa, his third to the state since taking office.

"I still strongly believe that ethanol is important, not only to reduce dependency upon foreign sources of energy, but also as a source and a way to clean the air," said Bush, who was spending the weekend at his Texas ranch.

Bush is assiduously courting Iowa, a major supplier of corn, looking ahead to the 2002 congressional elections and to his own potential re-election contest in 2004. He lost the state to Democrat Al Gore by fewer than 5,000 votes last November.

Farm groups and their ethanol-producing partners have lobbied intensely against the waiver, reminding administration officials that corn-producing states in the Midwest were generally behind Bush in the election.

One of the biggest ethanol producers, Archer Daniels Midland, contributed more than $500,000 to Republicans during the past two years, including $100,000 to Bush's inauguration.

The stakes are immense for corn-producing states: An estimated 580 million gallons of ethanol a year will be needed to supply California alone under the oxygenate rule.

Sen. Charles Grassley, R-Iowa, is among those who has been seeking a decision from Bush.

In an interview aboard Air Force One on Friday, Grassley said Bush had told him recently: "I don't know how I'm going to do it, or when I'm going to do it, but I think you'll like what we're going to say."

MODERN 'TOLERATION' TYRANNY IN DISGUISE

COMMENTARY

EXCLUSIVE TO THE SPOTLIGHT
[MM: To subscribe to THE SPOTLIGHT
call (800) 522-6292.]

By Tony Blizzard, 6/4/01

"Hate-crimes" laws are not aimed at stopping hatred but at censoring truth telling.

Hate-crime laws are in reality a program to force toleration of the actions of those who hate Western culture. Those people who defend our cherished way of life—by objecting to the culture distorters who want to destroy everything the Western world holds sacred—are to be turned into criminals.

In the U.S., as far back as the 1930s, the question of whether "hate" should be outlawed had been broached by the enemies of truth due largely to the America-first movement's exposures of drum beating for U.S. involvement in what became WWII. Patriots who saw no reason for America to enter that war—a war to save Communism—were rounded up and tried for sedition in a Soviet-style political trial.*

While every effort was made to present the defendants as haters of America, it was their internationalist accusers who harbored real hatred for defenders of true national principles. The propaganda barrage stigmatizing patriots as "haters" escalated when the globalist United Nations came into existence after that destructive war, which did save Communism utilizing American might.

In a 1947 publication approved by Cardinal Spellman of New York, Rituale, Romanum, the anti-hate issue was early put into proper perspective:

"The long-range effects of this campaign [to criminalize selected hatreds] are even now evident. It is producing the 'spineless citizen', the man who has no cultural sensibilities, who is incapable of indignation, who faces moral disaster, political disaster and impending world catastrophe with a blank and smiling countenance. He has only understanding for the enemies of his country, nothing but kind sentiments for those who would destroy his home and family. He is universally tolerant, totally unprejudiced. If he has any principles, he keeps them well concealed. He is a faceless, characterless puttyman."

Real men of that generation despised such people as “gutless wonders”. Today they are praised as “politically correct”.

English populist G.K. Chesterton, always ahead of his time, mused: “Modern toleration is really a tyranny. It is a tyranny because it is a silence. To say that I must not deny my opponent’s faith is to say I mustn’t discuss it.”

That is exactly the censorship objective of the Anti-Defamation League of B’nai B’rith (ADL), as the creator and promoter of “hate crimes” laws throughout the world.

Those ADL conspirators work to nullify intolerance for evils they promote—arrogantly retaining for themselves the right to be world arbiter of what will be tolerated and what will not—replacing the edicts of God and Nature concerning right and wrong with their own total intolerance of anything in the way of their world-conquest agenda.

In order to understand the true purpose of ADL-written and ADL-lobbied “hate crime” laws, already in place in nations such as Germany, Canada and Britain—and scheduled by the ADL for every nation—it is necessary to understand something of the passion called “hate”.

Universally acclaimed deep thinker of the ages, Thomas Aquinas, recorded that all passions stem from the single passion of love. Hatred, the “contrary of love”, Aquinas contended, is simply passion against that which would threaten a love. For instance, one’s hatred of poison is a reaction to one’s love for life.

Because “hatred is based on love,” reasoned Aquinas, “it follows that hatred is a great power for good in man’s life. Hatred enables man to avoid the evils that would destroy him.”

It is precisely the hatred for those evils now in the process of destroying Western civilization which the ADL-written “hate crime” laws are designed to criminalize, neutralize and quiet, always in the name of indiscriminating tolerance.

To thus “make putty” of the collective will for the defense of Western man’s civilization is a necessity to the implementation of the New World Order slave state of the global plantation. Those “plantation owners” are too few in number to conquer and rule without the manipulated cooperation of their victim.

No mainstream media mention is ever made that the same forces who write laws to stymie the hatred of evils they sponsor, are the world’s real haters—especially intolerant of anything concerning Christ and Christianity.

The reason for their intense hatred was given by the Pharisees when they demanded Christ’s crucifixion. Unless destroyed, they announced, he will “take away our place and our nation.”

The Pharisees’ intense love of their exalted position among the Israelites, with attendant perks, was threatened by the superior teachings of Christ, who was drawing the people away from their control, thus engendering their bitter hatred against him. That hatred has not waned to this day.

The SPOTLIGHT, almost alone, has informed readers of ongoing censorship by the ADL, which today censors school texts, libraries and the establishment media, blacklisting all materials it will not tolerate—yet all the while blathering to the public that it is fighting “hate”.

 The story about FDR’s little-known sedition trial is told in the November/December 1999 issue of The Barnes Review (TBR) magazine. One copy is $8 from TBR, 130 Third St. SE, Washington, D.C. 20003 or call (800) 311-3615 for subscription/ordering information.

GATA UPDATE: REG HOWE OPPOSES
J. P. MORGAN, CHASE, GOLDMAN SACHS
AND DEUTSCHE BANK

From: LePatron@LeMetropoleCafe.com, 6/9/01

AT THE MATTISE TABLE: PLAINTIFF’S
OPPOSITION TO MOTIONS OF J. P. MORGAN,
CHASE, GOLDMAN SACHS AND DEUTSCHE BANK
FOR LEAVE TO FILE REPLY MEMORANDA IN SUPPORT OF THEIR MOTIONS TO DISMISS

“The absurdity, not to mention danger, of allowing the cluster concept to insulate the derivatives businesses of commercial banks from competition analysis is underscored by their off balance sheet interest rate derivatives. Table 8 of the OCC derivatives report for December 31, 2000, shows Chase with $ 10.7 trillion in notional value, Morgan with $ 5.5 trillion, and all others combined with $ 9.4 trillion of interest rate derivatives. The LTCM affair suggests that concentrating $16.2 trillion or 63% of these derivatives in one bank is to play Russian roulette with the U.S. financial system (Complaint, para. 53). So, too, is the manipulation of gold prices alleged in the complaint. That J.P. Morgan and Chase, traditionally the Fed’s banks (CO 16), are deeply implicated in both, is unlikely to prove coincidental.”

The Defendants filings may be read at Adam Hamilton’s wonderful Website: <http://www.zealllc.com/howe.htm>

Also posted at The Matisse Table are two charts by Mike Bolser:

1. Gold Derivatives in Billions of Dollars
2. Interest Rate Derivatives in Trillions of Dollars

A picture is worth a thousand words—in this case two thousand words.

The Gold Derivative Chart reveals that according to the Office of the Controller of the Currency (OCC), the gold derivatives on the books of Morgan and Chase exploded after the Washington Agreement in September of 1999—while the gold derivatives at all the other banks remained steady.

The Interest Rate Derivative Chart reveals that the interest-rate derivatives began to expand dramatically on the books of Morgan and Chase around mid-1995, just about the time that GATA and Reg Howe have fingered The Gold Cartel for rigging the gold price. In recent years, the interest rate derivatives at Morgan and Chase have exploded and now stand at a staggering $16.2 trillion, while they have gone up only slightly at all other banks combined.

As Reg Howe put in his response to the Court, someone is playing Russian Roulette with the U.S. financial system. Frightening is too calm a word to describe what Mike Bolser’s charts shout out to you.

To take it a bit further, it might be best to review the note that Mike Bolser sent me on May 31, 2001:

Hi Bill [Murphy]:

As we have discussed, I am interested in the broader motivation behind those parties manipulating the gold markets and have started a work in progress to that end:

GoldGates Real Motive?

By Michael Bolser

Summary

We restate our findings on preemptive selling as validation of gold market intervention.

In addition, we restate our discovery that in August 2000 1700 tonnes of U.S. Treasury gold bullion reserve underwent a change in ownership consistent with a sale to a foreign entity. However, the motives attributed to those parties responsible for this gold manipulation have been historically weak. We have been troubled by the enormous risks taken by those responsible for free-market manipulation and have been seeking clues to justify such risks. In this essay we explore the possibility that gold price suppression may have been part of a much larger scheme which depended in part upon a controlled price of gold.

We suggest that a manipulated gold price was a prerequisite for the assumption of the $16.2 trillion in Interest Rate Derivatives currently held by J.P. Morgan-Chase. We draw attention to these disproportionate derivative positions and remind readers that the associated risks attached to these interest-rate derivatives depend in part of inflationary expectations.

Our preliminary data is shown in the attached chart [excluded] describing the Interest Rate Derivative Positions held by J.P. Morgan-Chase and the next largest U.S. banks compared to the rest of the U.S. banking system which hold these derivatives. As you can see J.P. Morgan-Chase has taken a $16.2 trillion position in Interest Rate Derivatives. Please note as well the Q3 1999 sharp increase by Chase (at that time). This increase coincided with a long period of gold price quiescence... a prerequisite for successful derivatives strategies. At the end of the quarter the WA upset that quiescence bringing unwanted volatility to Chase and its huge position.

Recall from Nicholas Dunbar’s book Inventing Money, the LTCM disaster was hastened by volatility; indeed, it played the key role. In this boutique hedge fund’s case it was Italian bonds, Russian bond defaults, Caribbean counter party defaults and currency turmoil that triggered their demise. It is clear that volatility and leveraged derivatives are a dangerous mix.

There is a long history linking inflationary pressures, sharply rising interest rates and gold price volatility. Such a climate of interest rate volatility is incompatible with the large risks we now see in J.P. Morgan’s Interest Rate Derivative position as reported by the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency... <http://www.occ.treas.gov/deriv/deriv.htm>

We note that J.P. Morgan Chase was the principle seller during today’s key last day before COMEX first notice day on the June gold contract. Perhaps they were mindful of the threat to their Interest Rate Derivative book by a potential COMEX default? We continue to be troubled by reports of stock market futures intervention presumably designed to eliminate volatility.—Michael Bolser

More than a number of you out there are perplexed by the continued strength in the dollar. GATA has long maintained that one of the motives for the manipulation of the gold price was to facilitate Robert Rubin’s strong dollar policy. It more than appears that the build up of gold and interest-rate derivatives at J.P. Morgan Chase are somehow linked to this policy.

The ramifications of all of this are mind-boggling and an American disgrace because it has put the U.S. financial system at serious risk.

When GATA visited with the Speaker of the House, Dennis Hastert, on May 10, 2000, we explained that the GATA delegation was like a group of cancer doctors that found a malignant cancer. The cancer was treatable with chemotherapy types of treatment—but the side effects would be very painful. However, we stated that to do nothing and go into denial would eventually prove to be fatal.

The Gold Cartel, including Robert Rubin, have made a disastrous miscalculation about gold demand and the amount of central-bank gold that would be required to continue their scheme far into the future. The chickens are now coming home to roost. The physical gold market is seizing up. The Gold Cartel is running out of supply. A gold syndicate of buyers is taking them on—for they know that only an explosion in the gold price can offer any kind of long-term solution to this growing financial nightmare.

The price of gold must be allowed to rise, to rise sharply and fast because the problem is growing by 100 tonnes to 160 tonnes per month—as gold demand far exceeds mine and scrap supply.

Will there be financial trauma? Yes, no doubt about it. But, it will be survivable if something is done soon.

There is one other type of solution. The Gold Cartel can admit what they have done. They can admit their lies to the American and world public. They can apologize for lying to Senators and Congressmen in just about every state in the Union. They can claim that they did what they did in the best interests of the average American. Then, they can announce that half of America's gold supply (4,000 tonnes) is being sent to the bullion banks in the cartel to keep them from going belly up.

That is just an example of what could be done to try and solve the problem. The problem with these types of solutions is that they could set off financial nuclear bombs in other markets. That is why it is so important to understand what Mike Bolser has uncovered.

Any solutions such as the one above will surely send the dollar into a tailspin. Foreign investors will want OUT. That will likely set off the interest-rate-derivative time bomb at J.P. Morgan-Chase. Then who knows what could happen.

Now, we come to the importance of Frank Veneroso's supply/demand work at The Dos Passos Table entitled:

*Facts, Evidence and Logical Inference:
A Presentation On Gold Supply/Demand,
Gold Derivatives and Gold Loans
By Frank A. J. Veneroso*

In this brilliant work, Frank explains thoroughly why the central bank gold loans are 10,000 tonnes to 16,000 tonnes. Let us use the mid-range of 13,000 tonnes. If the U.S. were to sell 4,000 tonnes of our gold to try and solve the problem, it still would leave another 9,000 tonnes outstanding—almost double the 5,000 tonnes that bullion dealer apologists would like you to believe.

Mine supply is only 2500 tonnes per year. Once the gold problem becomes known by the citizens of the world and financial institutions of the world, most everyone is going to want to own some gold. Gold demand will soar. Many of the bullion/central banks that have the 9,000 tonnes out on loan are going to want their gold back and will be petrified of force majeure gold defaults.

It is not hard to visualize a daisy chain of financial collapses.

The share prices of J.P. Morgan and Chase have been acting lousy lately and the firms have received a few downgrades by bank analysts. They are stocks to watch.

GATA cannot solve the problem. We can only inform governments and the peoples of the world about what is really going on in the gold market and present all our evidence—which overwhelmingly proves that we are correct.

One thing for sure, the gold price is going to explode. Financially speaking, the place to be RIGHT NOW is to be loaded up with gold shares and/or, gold itself.

It is truly a once in a lifetime investment opportunity.

GOT TO BE IN IT TO WIN IT!—BILL MURPHY, CHAIRMAN, GOLD ANTI-TRUST ACTION COMMITTEE (GATA)

HAS THE ULTIMATE CANCER CURE BEEN FOUND IN INDIA?

The Hindustan Times, 6/6/01

HYDERABAD—Indian cancer researchers have taken a giant step on the road to discovering the ultimate cancer cure by developing a drug that selectively targets the cancer cells without harming the healthy ones.

Researchers in Kolkata claim that patients in “very advanced stages” of cancer for whom all other treatments had failed have been brought back to “excellent” health with the help of a drug formulation they have developed after research spanning more than a decade.

“We have what we think is a magic bullet against cancer,” says Manju Ray, a biochemist at the Indian Association of the Cultivation of Science (IACS) where the drug was developed under a project funded by the Department of Science and Technology and the Council of Scientific and Industrial Research.

Most currently available anti-cancer drugs are toxic because they also damage the normal cells. Ray says the IACS formulation, containing “Methylglyoxal” as the lead ingredient, combats only the diseased cells—the cherished goal of cancer researchers worldwide. Methylglyoxal is a metabolite in the human body produced during glucose breakdown.

Others involved in the project are Swapna Ghosh of IACS, Manoj Kar and Subhankar Ray of the University College of Science, and Santajit Datta, a medical practitioner. Results of human trial conducted by them with the new drug have recently appeared in the Indian Journal of Physics.

While Americans are going ga-ga with their new anti-cancer drug “Glivec”—that was featured on the cover of May 28 issue of Time magazine—the low-profile, cash-strapped Kolkata researchers have been working quietly for over a decade shunning publicity until they obtained proof from human trials nine weeks ago.

According to their published paper, the Methylglyoxal-based formulation had “a dramatic positive effect on the patients”.

For instance, the condition of 11 out of the 19 patients treated—most of them in a very advanced stage when the treatment began—are now stated to be in “excellent physical condition”. Five are in stable condition and only three died during the course of the study.

Since the submission of the paper, the number of patients treated has crossed the 40 mark with more than 70 percent success, according to Manju Ray.

Most remarkable fact, according to the scientists was that Methylglyoxal was successful against different types of cancer—unlike “Glivec” which targets only the chronic myeloid leukemia.

Those whose health returned to “excellent” condition after treatment with Methylglyoxal included patients in “very advanced stages” of colon cancer, acute myeloid leukemia, non-Hodgkin's lymphoma, and cancers of ovary, breast, liver, lung, bone, gall bladder, pancreas and oral cavity.

The patients were inducted for the trial, from January to June 2000, after obtaining permission from the Drug Controller General of India, the scientists said. The drug was administered orally for about six months with gradual reduction of daily dosage from the initial 25 milligrams per kilogram of body weight.

Researchers said development of the drug was preceded by years of basic research involving human cancer cells in culture and animal experiments that showed that Methylglyoxal selectively killed the cancer cells without affecting normal cells by exploiting “a very significant” biochemical difference between the two.

Explaining the mechanism of action, the scientists said cancer cells required a large amount of an energy-providing substance called ATP (Adenosine-5-Triphosphate) for survival.

“Methylglyoxal inactivates the enzyme (Glyceraldehyde-3-Phosphate Dehydrogenase) needed for ATP production in cancer cells and thereby starves them to death. Normal cells remain unaffected.”

Manju Ray said that chemists knew of the Methylglyoxal molecule for about four decades—and its anti-cancer effects in animals had also been studied. “But surprisingly, no one bothered to initiate further research leading to human trials,” she said.

The researchers said concern in some quarters about safety of Methylglyoxal were not borne out from the clinical trials, which showed that in combination with protective agents like Ascorbic Acid and vitamins, the drug Methylglyoxal had no major toxic effect. They said there was scope for further enhancing the drug's efficacy.

THOUSANDS GET MENINGITIS VACCINE

Associated Press, 6/9/01

SALEM, Ohio—With grimaces and brave looks, the first of up to 5,800 Ohio high school students and teachers rolled up their sleeves and got their shots Friday in a mass inoculation against a meningitis-related outbreak that has killed two teenagers.

The outbreak has spread fear and confusion, through this blue-collar area about 40 miles from Cleveland. Classes and graduations were cancelled Friday—and thousands of students and parents stood in line at vaccination centers set up at schools.

“It's basically a relief to get the shot,” said Carey Rogers, 17, who was vaccinated at Salem. “A couple of my friends had a couple of parties but my mom wouldn't let me go to their house. You've got to think about it with everything you do.”

The mass vaccinations were recommended by the state Health Department for students and staffers at six schools. The state is paying for the $55-per-dose vaccine. Surrounding counties donated needles and the services of the nurses.

Two 15-year-old students at West Branch High in Beloit died two weeks ago of meningococemia, a blood infection caused by the Neisseria meningitidis bacteria. The same bacteria also cause meningitis, a disease of the brain. School officials have said the two might have passed the infection by sharing a water bottle at a picnic.

A third student, Christin VanCamp, a senior at Marlinton High, also developed a blood infection from the bacteria. The 18-year-old student, who had been in a coma, was upgraded to satisfactory condition Friday.

The bacteria are spread through saliva.

On Friday, an early morning rush led to long lines at the schools.

At West Branch High, officials said they vaccinated 450 students in the first hour.

By 2 p.m., about 2,000 people had received the shots at all four high schools where inoculations took place.

Over the weekend, thousands of residents lined up at hospitals for hours to receive antibiotics, which are effective for a day or two. The vaccine protects for three to five years.

The vaccine is up to 90 percent effective against the bacteria, said Dr. Nancy Rosenstein of the Centers for Disease Control and prevention.

When Doing Business In Another State (Or Country)

By Ron Kirzinger, 6/9/01

The one question most frequently asked with regard to Nevada corporations relates to how one can use a Nevada corporation when operating in another state (or country). In many cases it is entirely possible to legally avoid having to register or qualify to do business in the foreign jurisdiction and a set of guidelines to this effect was presented in "Tip of the Week" #15.

On the other hand, in many situations it is necessary to register within the foreign jurisdiction because business is being actively conducted there. In such cases you might be pleasantly surprised to learn that there is a fairly simple method of doing so that can still afford you all of the benefits of Nevada's sheltering statutes—and tax savings, in addition.

The strategy laid out below is excerpted directly from The Nevada Corporation Manual, which we strongly urge everyone to obtain for reference.

HOME STATE BUSINESS WITH A NEVADA CORPORATION

Strategic objectives: For any business subject to home-state taxation, this strategy offers development of a corporate base in the haven of Nevada; asset protection; inherent and enhanced liability protection; and reduction or elimination of state income taxes.

Tactics and tools: incorporated home-state business (a Nevada corporation qualified to do business in the home state will work nicely); Nevada corporation; nominee service; office package (or maybe not); promissory notes; security agreement; trust deed; UCC-1 filing; management agreement (or maybe not); irrevocable proxy and attendant agreement; personal guarantee of corporate obligation; appropriate business license; Nevada bank account

HOW TO IMPLEMENT THE STRATEGY

1. Assuming that you are operating (or intend to operate) a business in your home state (or country) and that it is subject to state taxation, the first step is to incorporate that business. For purposes of this presentation, we will refer to this entity as HOME STATE, INC. or HSI. If it is already established as a properly registered corporation in your home state, skip to the next step. If it is not incorporated, set up a corporation in Nevada and qualify it to do business in your home state; make it a taxpaying, bona fide, home-state-regulated corporation. This arrangement will result in the payment of registration fees in both your home state and Nevada annually, but the nominal extra fees for maintaining a Nevada base are insignificant compared to the long-term advantages. You might end up foregoing privacy with this entity but you will retain the advantages of a Nevada domicile, with the option of eventually retreating to the safe haven of Nevada.

2. Next, set up a Nevada corporation, which we will refer to simply as NV CORPORATION or NVC. This second entity should be given sufficient "substance" in Nevada; it might have a "home office" with its own telephone line, answered in the name of NVC during regular business hours, along with mail forwarding services. For this purpose it might suffice to use any of the "office packages" provided for a moderate fee by various resident agents in Nevada. The best (and often costliest) such arrangements typically include a lease agreement for the office space provided, even if it is only provided on a shared basis. NVC should also be established using nominee officers and directors, for privacy. And, of course, it should have its own Nevada bank account, for which many resident agents and incorporation services can provide an Employer Identification Number obtained without the need for your Social Security Number to back it up.

3. Assuming, for the sake of this example, that HSI is a retail business; it buys its products from various suppliers. (If it is another type of business, perhaps other products, services or ideas will "fit the bill". For example, advertising; research and development; or intangibles such as patents, copyrights, trademarks, or even "the right to market or promote" its unique concepts.) NVC is going to become the main supplier for HSI, even if all it does is to buy the same products that HSI otherwise would, marking them up by an appropriate amount, then supplying them to HSI. From the perspective of the Board of Directors of HSI, this is considered to be a good business decision as it greatly simplifies the ordering process—and NVC is 100% reliable in supplying needed products. This decision should be documented with a corporate resolution or in the minutes of a meeting of the Board of Directors of HSI.

4. From this point forward, HSI never again turns a profit. Instead, the markup put on the products by NVC results in great profitability for NVC at HSI's expense. NVC, of course, earns this income in Nevada, which has no state tax. "Poor" HSI actually loses money and as a result it ends up borrowing money to continue its operations, getting deeper and deeper in debt. Who would loan money to an insolvent company like HSI? Most banks would not, so HSI turns to NVC to help it out. NVC will lend money but only at a high rate of interest, befitting the nearly insolvent condition of HSI. With its tremendous profitability, NVC might also loan money to other businesses, as it is beneficial in several ways for NVC to not rely entirely upon one customer.

5. The money loaned from NVC to HSI is documented through a series of promissory notes payable on demand. It is agreed that any disputes shall be resolved through application of Nevada's Statutes, effectively putting this arrangement out of reach of the "long arm" laws. HSI enters into a security agreement with NVC, securing assets as collateral against the loans. On any equity in real property, HSI issues a trust deed (mortgage) to NVC, which is properly filed with the County Recorder for the appropriate county in the home state. Finally, to secure its notes, NVC registers a UCC-1 claim against all of the assets of HSI with the appropriate County Recorders in both the home state and Nevada.

6. The results? HSI turns into the proverbial turnip, with no profitability and hence no state income tax to pay. It has no net worth (or perhaps even negative net worth) making it an unlikely target for prospective litigants. Having no unencumbered assets, HSI would simply be unable to pay any judgment against it, if such an unfortunate circumstance should prevail. The company with the assets, NVC, has virtually no exposure to potential litigation, as it does not interact or do business outside of a small circle. Voila! Asset protection, liability protection AND reduction or elimination of home-state taxes!

POTENTIAL PITFALLS (AND COUNTER-MEASURES)

1. The first potential pitfall is in common with all corporate strategies but bears repeating at least once more: Failure to maintain corporate formalities (for either corporation in this example) could lead to problems.

Response: Fortunately, the counter-measure is simple and obvious: Always maintain proper records! Document corporate decisions with appropriate resolutions or in the minutes of meetings; use the tools specified and in the manner specified; maintain accurate accounting records; and remit all taxes due in a timely manner.

2. What about home-state regulations regarding apportionment of income between related companies, whereby the home state's regulations will often end up apportioning 100% of the income to its own jurisdiction?

Response: The answer to this question lies in the fact that ownership of NVC, which was set up for privacy, is not demonstrably related to ownership of HSI. NVC is a separate and unrelated entity—to the extent that ownership of NVC is different than ownership of HSI. While the ownership of HSI might be freely disclosed—WHO OWNS NVC? AND HOW WOULD ANYONE PROVE THE ANSWER TO THAT QUESTION? Recall that NRS 78.257 says, in part (emphasis added): "...Any stockholder or other person, exercising rights under subsection 1, who uses or attempts to use information, documents, records or other data obtained from the corporation, for any purpose not related to the stockholder's interest in the corporation as a stockholder, is guilty of a gross misdemeanor..." That clause alone should manage to keep the riff-raff out. Recall also that there is no statutory requirement for the issuance of stock; so, who owns NVC in the case where no stock has been issued?

3. But what if the attempt to penetrate the privacy of ownership of NVC is serious and a COURT ORDER is issued to do just that?

Response: Alright, let's say that due to disclosure required on NVC's IRS form 1120—in the interests of avoiding classification as a "controlled group" or as a "Personal Service Corporation"—let's say that the number of stockholders has been declared as "6 or greater". And let's say that whoever is trying to cut through the privacy of NVC obtains a COURT ORDER to inspect NVC's corporate records. You're "done for", right? WRONG; at least not if you have a half-dozen friends in the world who will work with you—at no risk to themselves! (If you do not, contact us regarding "nominee shareholding" and see what can be arranged.) In all probability you previously issued 100 shares of the stock to each friend, subject to a side agreement (sealed with a handshake instead of a signature), and made a record of this issuance of stock in the corporation's stock ledger, noting that it was issued to "bearer", "for services rendered" (satisfying the requirement of what the lawyers call "consideration"; remember that Nevada's statutes allow stock to be issued for services). What constitutes the side agreement? Oh, perhaps a provision that allows you the right to repurchase the stock for a nominal amount at any time, on demand, along with an irrevocable proxy to vote all such shares issued? They might OWN it, but you CONTROL it—do you see the difference and the advantage?

4. Well, OK, but what if these “friends” turn into enemies and try to take control of the corporation in devious ways?

Response: Let's see what would happen if the side agreements failed to do their job, if they somehow got “lost and forgotten”: Any formal attempt to take over the corporation on the part of the stockholders would have to be done at a stockholders' meeting, of which the corporation itself must be notified, along with the stated purpose of the meeting. (This is a standard provision in a corporation's Bylaws. If it is not in your Bylaws—put it there. If you don't know how to accomplish this properly, please contact us.)

You have 25,000 shares authorized and 600 shares issued, so any such maneuver by your new-found enemies could be forestalled by the issuance of 601 shares to someone more “friendly”! Or, better still, issue all of the remaining shares—diluting the outstanding shares substantially—leaving the former-friends-turned-hostile with exactly 2.4% interest in the company. And if that's too much for your liking?

The Board of Directors (YOU) may amend the Articles of Incorporation and increase the number of authorized shares to, say, one million—leaving the traitors with six-one hundredths of 1% of the value of the corporation; a veritable “mouthful of dirt”. (Again, if you need help with amending the corporation's Articles, please contact us.)

5. What about the IRS designation of “personal holding company” that applies to all of the “passive income” earned by NVC on interest payments made by HSI?

Response: Go back to the definition of “personal holding company”, which applies when 60% or more of the corporation's income is derived from “passive” sources AND there are five or fewer shareholders. The answer to this is simple and obvious: Since you CONTROL the income stream, ensure that it is never more than 60% “passive” in its source. Have NVC sell HSI some products, or services or intellectual property. OR simply ensure that there are 6 or more stockholders.

6. What if someone sues HSI AND me, personally? How can I protect my personal assets?

Response: This is happening to an increasing degree in many states outside of Nevada, where “piercing the corporate veil” to attack a corporation's officers and directors is becoming commonplace. So, you want to be a turnip, too, with no assets and no profile for potential litigants to attack? Fine, just sign a personal guarantee of corporate obligation to guarantee HSI's debts to NVC. In short order, you too can be protected by a UCC-1 claim against all of your personal assets—filed by NVC, just as it did against HSI.

The downside to judgment-proofing yourself, of course, is that you will personally become less credit-worthy in the eyes of conventional lending institutions. You will have to decide for yourself whether or not this issue is an overriding factor.

Any other potential pitfalls? We don't think so but if you come up with one worthy of consideration, we will be pleased to provide suggested counter-measures to it in the next printing of the manual!

We hope that all who are struggling to work within the system to effect positive change in the world will learn about and use the tools presented. At Budget Corporate Renewals, we stand RWA (ready, willing and able) to assist you with any questions that arise.

NEVADA CORPORATIONS:

Nevada Vs. “Offshore”: Working With Your Capital

Budget's “Tip of the Week” #17:

What About “Offshore”?

“What about setting up a corporation ‘offshore’? I've heard that offshore corporations don't have to pay any tax and that I can move my money offshore to shelter it.” Up front, there is little that can be done offshore that cannot be accomplished in and through the shelter of Nevada corporations. But let's look at just a few things that this questioner should consider before moving in this direction.

There CAN BE tax advantages, particularly in cases where the offshore entity earns its income in a tax-free jurisdiction from activities in locations that do not tax the income. Such opportunities can be hard to find. On the other hand, if the offshore entity (sometimes called an IBC, for International Business Corporation) is OWNED by U.S. stockholders, the stockholders are still subject to tax on capital gains and on any income derived from the IBC. In most cases offshore shareholding is NOT private, unlike in Nevada. Further, the United States has developed MLATs (Mutual Legal Assistance Treaties) with virtually all offshore locations, allowing for the extension of U.S. law—and the powers of the I.R.S.—into those jurisdictions, at will.

One good solution might be for the offshore entity to be owned by a private Nevada corporation. Just keep in mind that the Nevada corporation would still be subject to taxation on any income or capital gains derived from the IBC. In many cases, however, it might be better to simply extend the structuring of Nevada corporate shelters than to try to operate offshore. The main reasons for this are more immediate control and, of course, privacy. The Nevada Corporation Manual sums it up like this:

“Nevada is unique in that it not only offers a high degree of privacy but ready access to your capital that is not likely to be denied in even the most extreme turmoil that COULD develop in the world's financial markets. In these highly uncertain economic times, long-range planning should take into consideration the possibility—even the probability—of extreme turmoil. In that event, there could be some real shock felt by those whose strategies are oriented around offshore structures. It is entirely possible that in a real emergency offshore funds would be totally inaccessible, depriving the owners of those assets the use of their own capital when they need it the most. For any situation where ready access to one's capital is required, and especially if you wish to work with your capital, Nevada corporations are THE answer.”

In September 2000, the globalist OECD (Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development) proposed the total elimination of any and all offshore tax advantages. The Bush Administration has withdrawn its support—for the time being—from this initiative, probably allowing time for repositioning by at least some of the Big Boys. Ultimately, though, it seems likely that offshore jurisdictions will be precluded from offering tax advantages to foreigners. When that happens, it will leave the shelter of Nevada corporations as one of the very few true “havens”.

CORPORATION SETUP AND MAINTENANCE FEES

Budget Corporation —includes:	Nominee Service	$200
• First-year resident agent fee	Obtain EIN	$ 50
• Corporate Charter	Bank Account Setup	$100
• Articles of Incorporation	Expedite (24-hr. setup)	$100
• Corporate Bylaws
• Corporate Resolutions	Annual Resident Agent Fee	$ 85
• Budget corporate record kit	Budget Mail Forwarding (18 pcs/yr)	$ 50
• 3.5” floppy disk of resources	Full Mail Forwarding (240 pcs/yr)	$150
	TOTAL	$350

Learn how to use the Big Boys' tools to your own advantage:

THE NEVADA CORPORATION MANUAL

Just $35 + $10 S&H

Budget

Corporate Renewals

Nevada Corporations
at Budget
prices

(702) 870-5351

P.O. Box 27103, Las Vegas, NV 89126
BCR@BudgetCorporateRenewals.com
www.BudgetCorporateRenewals.com

PHOENIX JOURNALS LIST

THESE WORKS ARE A SERIES CALLED THE PHOENIX JOURNALS AND HAVE BEEN WRITTEN TO ASSIST MAN TO BECOME AWARE OF LONG-STANDING DECEPTIONS AND OTHER MATTERS CRITICAL TO HIS SURVIVAL AS A SPECIES AT THIS TIME. SINGLE JOURNALS ARE NOW ON SALE FOR $3.00 (REG. $6.00). (Shipping extra—see right.)

1. SIPAPU ODYSSEY
2. AND THEY CALLED HIS NAME IMMANUEL....
3. SPACE-GATE, THE VEIL REMOVED
4. SPIRAL TO ECONOMIC DISASTER
5. FROM HERE TO ARMAGEDDON
7. THE RAINBOW MASTERS
9. SATAN'S DRUMMERS
10. PRIVACY IN A FISHBOWL
11. CRY OF THE PHOENIX
21. CREATION, THE SACRED UNIVERSE
38. THE DARK CHARADE
39. THE TRILLION DOLLAR LIE...VOL. I
40. THE TRILLION DOLLAR LIE...VOL. II
41. THE DESTRUCTION OF A PLANET—ZIONISM IS RACISM
42. UNHOLY ALLIANCE
43. TANGLED WEBS VOL. I
44. TANGLED WEBS VOL. II
45. TANGLED WEBS VOL. III
46. TANGLED WEBS VOL. IV
48. TANGLED WEBS VOL. V (OUT OF STOCK)
49. TANGLED WEBS VOL. VI
50. THE DIVINE PLAN VOL. I
51. TANGLED WEBS VOL. VII
52. TANGLED WEBS VOL. VIII
53. TANGLED WEBS VOL. IX
54. THE FUNNEL'S NECK
55. MARCHING TO ZION
56. SEX AND THE LOTTERY
57. GOD, TOO, HAS A PLAN 2000—DIVINE PLAN VOL. II
58. FROM THE FRYING PAN INTO THE PIT OF FIRE
59. "REALITY" ALSO HAS A DRUM-BEAT!
60. AS THE BLOSSOM OPENS
61. PUPPY-DOG TALES
62. CHAPARRAL SERENDIPITY
63. THE BEST OF TIMES
64. TO ALL MY CHILDREN
65. THE LAST GREAT PLAGUE
66. ULTIMATE PSYCHOPOLITICS
67. THE BEAST AT WORK
68. ECSTASY TO AGONY
69. TATTERED PAGES
70. NO THORNLESS ROSES
71. COALESCENCE
72. CANDLELIGHT
73. RELATIVE CONNECTIONS VOL. I
74. MYSTERIES OF RADIANCE UNFOLDED VOL. II
75. TRUTH AND CONSEQUENCES VOL. III
76. SORTING THE PIECES VOL. IV
77. PLAYERS IN THE GAME
78. IRON TRAP AROUND AMERICA
79. MARCHING TO ZOG
80. TRUTH FROM THE ZOG BOG
81. RUSSIAN ROULETTE
82. RETIREMENT RETREATS
83. POLITICAL PSYCHOS
84. CHANGING PERSPECTIVES
85. SHOCK THERAPY
86. MISSING THE LIFEBOAT??
87. IN GOD'S NAME AWAKEN!
88. THE ADVANCED DEMOLITION LEGION
89. FOCUS OF DEMONS
90. TAKING OFF THE BLINDFOLD
91. FOOTSTEPS INTO TRUTH
92. WALK A CROOKED ROAD WITH THE CROOKS
93. CRIMINAL POLITBUROS AND OTHER PLAGUES
94. WINGING IT....
95. HEAVE-UP (Phase One)
96. HEAVE-HO (Phase Two)
97. HEAVE 'EM OUT (Phase Three)
98. ASCENSION OR NEVER-EVER LAND?
99. USURPERS OF FREEDOM IN CONSPIRACY
100. BUTTERFLIES, MIND CONTROL—THE RAZOR'S EDGE
101. THE BREATHING DEAD AND CEMENT CHILDREN
102. SACRED WISDOM
103. CONFRONT THE NOW CREATE THE FUTURE
104. FIRST STEPS
105. AMERICA IN PERIL—AN UNDERSTATEMENT!
107. RING AROUND THE ROSIE...!
130. TRACKING DOWN THE KILLER (OUT OF STOCK)
"AND OTHER FORMS OF MURDER" (The Health Book)
222. BIRTHING THE PHOENIX VOL. 1;
223. BIRTHING THE PHOENIX VOL. 2;
224. BIRTHING THE PHOENIX VOL. 3;
225. BIRTHING THE PHOENIX VOL. 4
227. RISE OF ANTICHRIST VOL. 1;
228. RISE OF ANTICHRIST VOL. 2;
229. RISE OF ANTICHRIST VOL. 3;
230. RISE OF ANTICHRIST VOL. 4

FOR INFORMATION ABOUT JOURNALS, BOOKS, ETC., MENTIONED IN THIS NEWSPAPER, PLEASE INQUIRE:

PHOENIX SOURCE DISTRIBUTORS, INC.
P.O. Box 27353
Las Vegas, Nevada 89126
1-800-800-5565
(Mastercard, VISA, Discover)

Phoenix Source Distributors SHIPPING CHARGES:

USA (except Alaska & Hawaii)

UPS-$3.75 1st title, $1.00 ea add'l
Bookrate-$2.50 1st title, $1.00 ea add'l
Priority-$3.40 1st title, $1.00 ea add'l

ALASKA & HAWAII

Bookrate-$2.50 1st title, $1.00 ea add'l
Priority-$3.40 1st title, $1.00 ea add'l
UPS 2nd day-$9.00 1st title, $1 ea add'l

CANADA & MEXICO

Surface-$3.00 1st title, $1.50 ea add'l
Airbook-$4.50 1st title, $2.00 ea add'l

FOREIGN

Surface-$3.00 1st title, $1.50 ea add'l
Airbook-$8.00 per title estimate

(Please allow 3-4 weeks for delivery on all book orders)

CONTACT Staff

Margie Berndt
Mark Moore
John & Jean Ray
Rex Smith
Princeton Winton

PLEASE NOTE:
CONTACT and Phoenix Source Distributors are NOT the same! Checks sent for JOURNALS or book orders should NOT be made out to CONTACT—and vice versa.

Editorial Policy

Opinions of CONTACT contributors (including ads) are their own and do not necessarily reflect those of the CONTACT staff or management.

CONTACT: THE PHOENIX JOURNAL is published by

CONTACT, Inc.
P.O. Box 27800
Las Vegas, NV 89126
Phone: (800) 800-5565

SUBSCRIPTION RATES

Subscription orders may be placed by mail to the above address or by phone to 1-800-800-5565.

Subscribers: Expiration date appears on upper left side of mailing label.

Quantity Subscriptions: U.S. For Foreign subscriptions call or write for shipping charges.

SINGLE SUBSCRIPTIONS					QUANTITY SUBSCRIPTIONS
Quantity	U.S.	U.S. ENVELOPE	CANMEX	FOREIGN	Quantity	10 COPIES	25 COPIES	50 COPIES	100 COPIES
13 ISSUES	$30	$40	$40	$45	13 ISSUES	$95	$125	$160	$275
26 ISSUES	$60	$80	$80	$90	26 ISSUES	$190	$250	$320	$550
52 ISSUES	$110	$150	$150	$170	52 ISSUES	$380	$500	$640	$1,100

BACK ISSUE RATES

Miscellaneous copies of individual back issues are $3.00 each copy
Shipping is included in the price for U.S. orders
Foreign please call or write for additional shipping charges

WORDS OF WISDOM FROM HATONN

CONTACT OR SPECTRUM?

I want to briefly respond to a most unusual question from a totally "out of the blue" person: "It appears Spectrum will fail, possibly close, so will you go back to writing for CONTACT or what?"

I have never stopped writing for CONTACT—but I have NOT written, nor have my compatriots written for Spectrum. Tails wag a lot of dogs, my friends. Therefore, "or what" has no meaning.

January 6, 2001