

CONTACT

PHOENIX JOURNAL REVIEW

News Reviews, Previews and Alternative Views

NOT TO OPPOSE ERROR IS TO APPROVE IT NOT TO DEFEND TRUTH IS TO SUPPRESS IT

VOLUME 49, NUMBER 11

NEWS REVIEW

$ 3.00

AUGUST 1, 2007

NV Corporation Laws Changing October 1

8/1/07 (20-350)

Wed., August 1, 2007, Year 20, Day 350
Manila, Philippines

NO MORE BEARER SHARES "HOW TIMELY"

Nevada's legislature meets only every two years, in odd-numbered years, to effect changes in Nevada's laws. The 2007 session has resulted in unprecedented changes affecting PRIVACY OF OWNERSHIP. How very timely it is for these changes to come into effect just as the key issue of the ownership of Mission-related corporations has come into sharp focus! The timing is so absolutely fortuitous that it becomes rather easy to see the Divine Hand in all of this.

Eddyjo Ekker is now "painted into a corner" with regard to terminating the services of Ronald Kirzinger in all corporate capacities involved with Mission-related corporations. Having failed in his attempt to uphold the argument of somehow being entitled to a "double vote" as both Director and Chairman ("double voting" being proscribed by the Articles of Incorporation), he then asserted the position that it was "the owners" who ordered termination of his co-criminal investigation—until now. All of that changes, effective October 1, 2007.

As reported in USA Today, "A Senate Permanent Subcommittee on Investigations hearing last year spotlighted testimony showing that Nevada was one of several states where a company's true owners could hide their role by listing the names of stand-ins in state records," effectively thwarting IRS and other criminal investigation.

Please note that privacy of ownership of Nevada corporations has been affected only with regard to criminal, not civil, matters—underscoring the need for dissatisfied lenders to avail themselves of recourse other than through normal civil procedures.

Normally, ownership of a corporation is denoted by stockholding and share certificates are made out in the name of the owner. Until now, Nevada has tacitly allowed the use of "bearer shares", where the certificate is made out to "Bearer" instead of any named person. Does this impact Global Alliance

(Continued on page 2)

- ☞ Bearer Shares Prohibited, Void October 1
- ☞ Ownership Open to Criminal Investigation
- ☞ New Regulations re Fraudulent/False Filings
- ☞ New Regulations re Resident Agents

Director, illegitimately giving himself sole control. "My, my, my!" as Doris Ekker might exclaim.

Mr. Ekker probably felt this was a safe posture to take, inasmuch as Nevada's corporation laws have always stood for near-absolute protection of the privacy of ownership, even to the extent of thwarting

CONTACT
P.O. Box 27800
Las Vegas, NV 89126

FIRST-CLASS MAIL
U.S. POSTAGE PAID
BAKERSFIELD, CA
PERMIT NO. 758

FIRST CLASS MAIL

ALSO IN THIS ISSUE:

- Gyeorgos Hatonn, Slayer of Dragons.....page 5
- De Jure* T-A Foundation Withstands All Scrutiny.....page 8
- Will the Locusts Prevail?.....page 11
- The Passion of St. George.....page 13

Investment Association? Referring to the Articles of Incorporation we see that it does:

GLOBAL ALLIANCE INVESTMENT
ASSOCIATION
ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
ARTICLE II—STOCK

Section 1. The Issuance of Stock

All stock is to be issued to "BEARER".

Section 2. Number and Class

The total number of authorized capital stock of the Corporation shall consist of a single class of twenty-five thousand (25,000) shares of common stock, no par value.

Thus, if stock had been issued and Mr. Ekker held the certificates, he was the owner. If someone would ask if he was the owner, he could physically hand the certificates to another bearer (with an agreement to get them back, of course!) and truthfully answer, "No, I am not the owner." Pretty slick, huh?

Does the language used in Article II mean that 25,000 shares of stock made out to "BEARER" were issued from the outset? Not to my understanding.

The operating phrase is the future-tense "to be"; i.e., this should be construed as saying that if/as/when stock is issued at some time in the future, it is "TO BE" issued to "BEARER". If the intention was to mandate that all stock was to have been immediately issued, the operating phrase should have been "shall be"—but the mandatory "shall" word is not used.

In any case, as of October 1, 2007 (due to the new legislation in Nevada) any stock supposedly/allegedly issued to "BEARER" (whether by misconstruction or otherwise) is VOID and an amendment of the Articles of Incorporation would be required PRIOR to the issuance of any stock, which would have to be named "PERSONS". As a Director of Global Alliance, notwithstanding EJ Ekker's unlawful actions, I would vote against any such amendment BECAUSE IT WAS NEVER INTENDED THAT GLOBAL ALLIANCE SHOULD BE OWNED BY ANY KIND OF "NEW ELITE" CONTROLLERS.

It is going to get "very interesting" for supposed "shareholders" of Global Alliance Investment Association and related or subsidiary entities, assuming there is an investigation into these serious matters.

What will the ability to discover the true beneficial ownership of Global Alliance reveal? In the last issue we examined some of the problems such disclosure presents for EJ Ekker and his enabling cohorts. Here are some "awkward" questions for them to answer (and about which you might want to think as well):

- Who purports to own the single greatest asset in the world, worth some $60 trillion (in 1996 dollars) and payable only in gold (at 1996 prices)?
- Was such purported stockholding reported on tax returns?
- On what basis was ownership ascribed to these certain individuals while other lenders and contributors were left out?
- How can it be said that Global Alliance exists for the benefit of all people, when only a few are entitled to ownership?
- Do the Nevada Business Registration (Nevada

NV Sec of State Announces

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

DATE: June 18, 2007

CONTACT: Nicole Lamboley or Scott Anderson 775-684-5709

Secretary Miller Announces Corporate Filings Reform

Carson City, NV - Secretary of State Ross Miller announced today the Governor's approval of Assembly Bill 25 which strengthens Nevada's laws regarding corporate filing practices.

"Nevada is a great place to do business and provides a favorable climate for those businesses looking to incorporate here. We need to maintain our competitive edge and insure that our filing practices are not used by rogue companies to perpetrate fraud or bilk our citizens," said Secretary Miller. In recent months, a United States Senate subcommittee has been looking at a number of states and their filing practices and is considering federal legislation aimed at reform of commercial recording disclosure requirements. Nevada was one of the states singled out by the leaders of the subcommittee, who sent a letter urging Nevada and other states to address their concerns through state legislation.

Nevada is the first state to adopt a requirement that a company's record of beneficial ownership must be maintained and available upon request by the Secretary of State during the course of a legitimate criminal investigation. The entity must further respond to any interrogatories that would assist in the investigation. Companies not complying with the provisions could have their charter suspended or revoked by the Secretary of State. "This legislation strikes at the heart of the fraudulent practices but does not pose a barrier to legitimate commerce," said Secretary Miller. "Law enforcement can now timely obtain the information they need to further investigations of money laundering and terrorist activity, but legitimate enterprises can continue on with business as usual."

Notably, the legislation also makes substantive changes to the state's corporate custodian laws. In an application to the district court to obtain custodianship of a corporation, the applicant must now include detailed disclosure information that must be filed both with the court and the Office of the Secretary of State. Secretary Miller said, "The custodianship reform requires greater disclosure in cases of corporate takeovers so that our judges and public stockholders can more effectively evaluate which situations are legitimate and which are done with nefarious intent. It is an empowering tool to hold accountable those who have fraudulently abused our laws." In testimony before a legislative committee, Secretary Miller cited fraudulent instances where Nevada based stockholders were able to obtain corporate custodianship, issues shares of stock of that corporation and later bilk investors from substantial sums of money, without alerting the officers, directors or shareholders of the troubled corporation.

The reform legislation further allows the Secretary of State to license and inspect Nevada based transfer agents who register securities not traded and regulated by the major markets. It also gives the Secretary of State authority, upon approval of the Attorney General, to examine records of anyone issuing securities that are not properly licensed. "We have seen several high profile instances of 'pump and dump' stock schemes orchestrated by Nevada based entities but controlled outside of our jurisdiction," said Secretary Miller. "The inspection of Nevada based transfer agents will allow us to take preventative steps to protect our investors and effectively enforce our criminal statutes in instances of white collar fraud."

Continued Overleaf ...

Department of Taxation) forms filed annually really show that EJ Ekker owns "0%"?

- When was the stock supposedly issued?
- Why has there never been a stockholders meeting?
- Which "stockholders" supposedly owning what percentage of Global Alliance demanded termination of the services of Ronald Kirzinger over the issue of a supposed PERSONAL INSULT to EJ Ekker?

The answers to these questions will be very revealing, indeed, and must be forthcoming after October 1, 2007 in response to any legitimate criminal investigation.

Note that after October 1, 2007, failure to disclose beneficial ownership (upon demand by the Secretary of State in response to any legitimate criminal investigation) could result in suspension or revocation of the corporate charter altogether—at least until the investigator's questions with regard to ownership are resolved to his/her satisfaction.

EJ EKKER, DIA CONNECTION
AND EXECUTIVE ORDER 12333

Perusal of some of the "Wantagate" information just released provides a SHOCKING insight. The article captioned "Global Train Wreck Erupts on Cue", Friday, July 27, 2007, makes the following statement:

"Under President Reagan's 1981 Executive Order 12333, U.S. intelligence operatives were licensed to establish corporations under their own specific control, and of which they could be the sole owners and Principals, for the purposes of entering into contract arrangements with the CIA, the Defence Intelligence Agency [DIA], the Office of Naval Intelligence (ONI) and any of the other faces of the vast U.S. intelligence community requiring their specialised services."

Oh—my—gosh.

Did somebody say EJ Ekker "was" associated with the Defense Intelligence Agency (DIA)?

Corporate Filings Reforms

The new laws contained in AB 25 resulted from a Task Force established by Secretary Miller at the start of his term as Secretary of State. "We assembled a group of corporate law, business and law enforcement experts to develop legislation that would address some of the concerns of the U.S. Senate subcommittee," said Secretary Miller, "and I believe this legislation could become model legislation that other states may want to consider."

Secretary Miller also serves on a Task Force of the National Association of Secretaries of State that is looking at the issues raised by the subcommittee and Nevada's proposed legislation was presented at a recent meeting.

In addition to the substantive reform in AB25, the Secretary of State supported other legislation aimed at curbing fraudulent practices in Nevada. Collectively, these statutes:

- Require any entity filed in Nevada to maintain ownership records in the United States which must be made available to the Secretary of State within three days of a legitimate criminal inquiry. The entity must also respond to any interrogatories issued by the Secretary of State which would assist in the criminal investigation. The Secretary of State is authorized to suspend or revoke the charter of any entity not complying with the requirements
- Authorizes the Secretary of State to license certain Nevada based transfer agents and inspect any necessary records
- Requires substantial disclosure requirements be filed in District Court and with the Office of the Secretary of State before a stockholder can be appointed custodian of a troubled corporation. The applicant also must provide detailed evidence showing attempts to contact the officers, directors and shareholders of the corporation for which custodianship is sought.
- Allows the Secretary of State, upon approval of the state Attorney General, to inspect the records of anyone issuing unlicensed securities.
- Prohibits the use of controversial "bearer shares," which allow the trading of company stock in bearer form by attributing stock ownership to whoever physically holds the shares.
- Allows the Secretary of State to craft regulations to address fraudulent or false filings filed with the Office of the Secretary of State.

Secretary of State Miller's office will be conducting regulation workshops and hearings later in the year detailing the processes relating to AB25 and other business related legislation.

Secretary Miller further announced the assignment of Investigator Chris Young as the office's "Commercial Filings Enforcement Officer." Investigator Young will assist law enforcement agencies in their investigation of Nevada based entities.

Nevada ranks second per capita, next to the State of Delaware in the number of corporate filings. Currently there are over 310,000 entities on file with the Secretary of State's office.

Has it sunk in yet?

Anyone can look up EO 12333 on the Internet and, sure enough, here is what you will find in Section 2.7: "Agencies within the Intelligence Community are authorized to enter into contracts ... with private companies ... and need not reveal the sponsorship of such contracts or arrangements ..."

Is it possible that Eddyjo Ekker has really been working for a Commander other than Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn all along? Could there be some undisclosed contract between EJ Ekker and DIA? Wouldn't you like to know—and wouldn't you like to know who owns Global Alliance Investment Association?

If this is NOT the case—if EJ Ekker is not working in accordance with EO 12333—it would be "nice" for him to stand up and say so, directly, and to have his attestation notarized. Failure to negate the possibility should leave a very important question in any reasoning individual's mind: On whose behalf is this man acting, REALLY?

AS GCH EXPLAINED 14 YEARS AGO: IT'S ALL ABOUT FROZEN COMMISSIONS

The fact that the EO 12333 citation was presented in the latest Wanta-related information suggests quite strongly that the "Wanta Group" represents the claims of some part of the Intelligence Community. And now perhaps you can see how the actions of EJ Ekker might not actually be at all in opposition to—but rather, appear to be in concert with—this group of grabbers. Why use the word "grabbers"? Simply put, it looks like they want half—and the other half, too! That is NOT in the Divine Plan.

I, for one, certainly do not fault these ones for going after that which is past-due and owing to them. They were "left out in the cold" and their promised rewards (commissions) were simply frozen by the crooks holding the reins of power. No doubt, God will work with and through these "frozen out" agents and associated parties to help them obtain their just rewards, IF they will work with God for HIS purposes. That IS in the Divine Plan.

For some insights into all of this, let's look at a transcription from the August 8, 1993 (14 years ago) meeting with Commander Hatonn in Tehachapi, California:

[From the start of tape 1-a, we hear:]

Your elements of the CIA, Mossad, KGB, the "black government", they all know who I am—and that's why you're alive.

There are trillions of dollars floating around locked up in frozen accounts ... commissions for ones who "helped" your government.

[And from tape 2-b:]

... Every day that passes, comes a greater realization that you have ones looking out for you. It is NOT as simple as your enemy coming in and blowing you away; it IS as simple as that if you can't make up your mind. We do not tread where we are not invited. And yet, if all you want is just to cover your ass—forget me, don't ask me, because I'm not interested in that part of you. I have ONE interest and that is your soul. And if you're not interested in your soul but only those assets, then your focus is incorrect and you are going to be time-consuming. That is also fine IF YOU DON'T GET IN THE WAY. And you're certainly welcome to be ignorant, if you bother to LEARN. ...

As far as your nation is concerned, it's teetering. You can watch Mr. Clinton and the game they are playing. If they would just release the commissions that are owed on the money that Bush raised—at the expense of so many of your American people and so many of the wealthiest men in the world put in, so they could gain. It's arbitrage, it's not a matter of costing you anything but it did cost a lot of people something and they came in on the basis of arbitrage and then when it came time, they [the ones who made up the game] took the money. The government took the money, the Elite took the money, the New World Order took the money—Scowcroft, Kissinger, Eagleburger, they took the money and they funneled it through BCCI, BNL, City Bank, and then when it was time to pay the commissions, they froze them.

There's one Saudi Arabian sheik that is absolutely miffed and he happens to be the third largest and richest man in the world. And he was taken for $1.5 trillion. But they sort of won't let him into the States. Oh, he footed the bill for arms for Iran, arms for the Contra, for Ollie North, and he's sitting there. They will pull down your currency before they ever will pay those. And they're sitting there mostly in value because they had to show in the beginning as collateral against other things. So they've got it all tied up, all ruined and they will collapse this government before they will ever pay that.

So you can't go at it that way—"just release the commissions, we'll all live happily ever after"—so you have to put something in there for the people. Why would people raise up and write to and demand that Clinton release those funds or do something? Because there is a built-in bargain point: "You release those funds, Mr. Clinton, and we'll pay for your wife's happy little ding-dong health plan." That gets Hillary on your side, makes her look a little better. Also, out of $1.5 trillion surely they can put another $10B and pay those people along that [flood-damaged, at the time] Mississippi. Those are the places where I bargain. You go for that, buddy, I'll help you get that money released.

... And yet you can't go out and just ask for release of funds; these are criminals. But you can go for damages, something that if you do win, whatever currency or debit system or whatever is the working order after the collapse of the currency, then you may have something of value to come back. So they're not going to release a bunch of currency to you; certainly not going to release a bunch of gold to you. You're teetering anyway, you don't have any foundation; it's like a dirigible with a hole in it, it's just going like this, all over everywhere, holding up long enough to get these things squelched, do you see, get it all under control.

And when your own Secretary of Treasury and Attorney General are paid by the International Monetary Fund, not even your government, guess what, that's your judicial system and your money system and it's all being run in America through that Federal Reserve System and then it's all funneled into the International Monetary Fund where you're going to go borrow some more to pay for Mississippi at a very high interest rate that's going to sock you in deeper. Will it work? What else are you going to do? Just waiting for it to all fall out. Good luck—it's all going to fall out.

Only those so blind they will not see would argue TODAY with that bottom-line assessment from Commander Hatonn 14 years ago. There is only ONE good solution and it is called the Divine Plan.

One of over 300 pages of Federal Reserve System printouts released in 2002 showing transfers of enormous sums of money in the early 1990s. Note the bottom entry for $100 BILLION to Pilgrim Investment, Inc., a Bush company. WAS BONUS 3392-181 THE COLLATERAL FOR THESE HUGE SUMS?

NET: NYC FILE: OPEN *.
REQ#: 3425741 CONTACT: SUF-14
CODE: 500-SUF-14-SIA-19
AUTH: 3329997

- 890810 / 34 / 31 / 364117 / Five Hundred Million U.S. Dollars
 [ $ 500,000,000.00 ]
 Sender: Coutts Bank / London England ACCT # 2339153
 Receiver: Morgan Guaranty Trust / NY NY / ACCT # 72 - 200 - 0011
 Credit # 001 - 330274 - 79 Martwell Investments
 Transaction # L B N / NICK 0341 Security Code: D B M - 102
- 890810 / 35 / 11 / 715881 / Five Hundred Million U. S. Dollars
 [ $ 500,000,000.00 ]
 Sender: Chase Manhattan Bank / NY NY / ACCT# 02 - 38168 - 311
 Receiver: Marine Midland Bank / NY NY / ACCT# 05 - 1348 - 212
 Credit: Pilgrim Investments Inc.
 Reference: 7.5 - 20
 -7.5% - 20% PEN
- 890810 / 35 / 11 / 715883 / One Billion U.S. Dollars
 [ $ 1,000,000,000.00 ]
 Sender: Chase Manhattan Bank / NY NY / ACCT# 20 - 38168 - 311
 Receiver: Arab Bank Corp / Monaco / ACCT# 6 - 1 - 38622
 Credit: Pilgrim Investments Inc.
 Reference: 7.0 - 20
 -7.5% - 20% PEN
- 890810 / 35 / 11 / 715883 / Five Hundred Million U.S. Dollars
 [ $ 500,000,000.00 ]
 Sender: Chase Manhattan Bank / NY NY / ACCT # 02 - 38168 - 311
 Receiver: Bank of America Walnut Creek CA. / ACCT # 04 - 382 - 1
 Credit: Francis X. Driscoll Trust
 Reference: Prime Bank Note Purchase
- 890811 / 35 / 11 / 918119 / Ten Billion U.S. Dollars
 [ $ 10,000,000,000.00 ]
 Sender: Chase Manhattan Bank / NY NY / ACCT# 02 - 38168 - 311
 Receiver: Metropolitan Federal of Tennessee / Nashville Tn /
 ACCT# 312
 Reference: Trading Account / 05 - 7547 - 361
- 890811 / 36 / 1018115 / One Hundred Billion Dollars
 [ $ 100,000,000,000.00 ]
 Sender: Chase Manhattan Bank / NY NY / ACCT # 01 -3081 - 12
 Receiver: First Interstate Bank of Denver / Denver Co. / ACCT# 0621864
 Credit: Pilgrim Investment Inc.
 Reference: D B M - 102

CONFIRMATIVE WANTAGATE CITATIONS

This situation was only beginning to fester 14 years ago, when the hot topics were people like Vince Foster (who somehow managed to put a SECOND shot into the back of his head when he supposedly killed himself) and Marc Rich (Reich), the 'fugitive financier' who made Time's list of "10 Most Notorious Presidential Pardons". On the other hand, some actors never seem to leave the stage, including SIR George HW Bush, who recently participated in "seafood" discussions with President Vladimir Putin of Russia. Apparently, they tried to bury—literally—SIR Leo Wanta but he is now the spearhead of a wittingly or unwittingly allowed themselves to be enticed into dodgy transactions and contracts without querying 'source of funds' – deals which they thought were valid, and would yield great cascades of golden eggs ..."

Commander Hatonn referenced the necessity for a "built-in bargain point" to allow for release of the frozen funds in some measure, specifically mentioning Hillary Clinton's "health care" initiative, which emerged later. The initial structure was Hillary Clinton's 'Children's Defense Fund', as we read in Christopher Story's narrative:

"... [I]t is routine practice for illegal, intelligence-linked fiat money-generation operations to be masked movement aimed at recovering the frozen commissions.

Today the boil is erupting as both the dollar and the economy are at the edge of "falling out", as GCH described 14 years ago. Christopher Story's coverage of "Wantagate" ("Global Train Wreck Arrives on Cue", July 27, 2007) gives some idea of what is shaping up:

"The previously trumpeted avalanche of inflationary liquidity was triggered specifically and uniquely by the panic arising from Wantagate – as holders of illicit 'fiat' money funds created from the leveraging and hypothecation of stolen and diverted 'on-the-books' assets, have scrambled almost in unison to protect themselves from prospective prosecution for fraud and tax evasion, by seeking the collectivisation of 'their' assets through placing them with 'hedge funds', a.k.a. 'private equity' groups which specialise in obfuscating 'source of funds'."

Who are the people involved in this scheme, hoping to "clean up" (as long as the system survives)? Mr. Story writes:

"They are the participants and counterparties in layered hypothecation transactions who were promised wild returns by George Bush Sr. et al, and who either

12 45

See B5C1

Handwritten notes and signatures

Handwritten notes and signatures

Handwritten initials

Handwritten initials

by a ‘real economy’ project – such as Hillary Clinton’s ‘Children’s Defense Fund’, or Enron: which, after the criminal operatives had spawned innumerable internally-originated high-yield investment programmes and had poured the proceeds into the offshore accounts of ‘Enron partnerships’, was ‘hollowed out’ and subsequently left as an empty carcase – given that these operations were soon yielding far greater fiat ‘profits’ than Enron itself; whereupon, to cover the tracks of the perpetrators, it was ‘taken down’ by specialist agents (like BCCI), leaving ranking personnel (plus a few token Big Shots) to be indicted and sentenced to extended jail terms, for cosmetic public consumption purposes.”

Several years ago, now-deceased Sherman Skolnick (RIP May 22, 2006) posted on the Internet some very revealing Federal Reserve System printouts, specifically identifying large payments involving SIR Alan Greenspan, a certain ‘Jorge’ (SIR George HW Bush) and companies such as Pilgrim Investments (a known Bush company) and reportedly even the Queen of England. As it turns out, many people were privy to knowledge of those transactions, including all of the major news media, who “chose” not to report this information or delve into the story. By the way, the SkolnicksReport.com website is still accessible and contains an amazing amount of information on these subjects. Again, from the latest “Wantagate” write-up:

“The surfacing of the ‘FINS’ at the Washington Unanswered Questions.org meeting in June [2002], had become ‘necessary’, in part, because of earlier leaks by competing US intelligence sources following 9/11, of some of these pages denoting Federal Reserve Board print-outs itemising huge payments to parties named on the sheets – including Pilgrim Investments (a George Bush family trust), Martwell Investments (Marc Rich, a.k.a. the long-term DVD operative Hans Brand), the Vatican, and attorneys for other most ‘interesting’ recipients.”

Christopher Story argues that there are not one but TWO DIFFERENT $27.5 trillion amounts involved. Presumably in 1992, George Bush Sr. obtained a “huge private loan raised from 200+ banks with a 7.5% per annum coupon at a deep discount for 20 years and one day (ending in 2012) ...” WHAT DO YOU SUPPOSE HE MIGHT HAVE USED FOR COLLATERAL, IF NOT BONUS 3392-181, the very asset upon which the Global Alliance Certificate of Debt is based?

Meanwhile, right in the thick of all this action, Mr. Eddyjo Ekker, “formerly” (?) of the DIA, ALONG WITH HIS WIFE, Doris Ekker, ended up as co-Directors of Cosmos Seafood Energy Marketing, Ltd. and Global Alliance Investment Association. When Doris Ekker died, she was immediately replaced in all capacities by Ronald Kirzinger by virtue of arrangements made months earlier. Co-directorship with Doris Ekker prevented unilateral actions by EJ Ekker—but now Mr. Ekker claims to have terminated the services of Ronald Kirzinger “on behalf of the OWNER(S)”. “My, my, my!”

Just HOW important might it be to determine WHO OWNS GLOBAL ALLIANCE, now that you are aware of Executive Order 12333 allowing for hidden contracts with intelligence agencies and EJ Ekker’s involvement with same? Ponder it, if you must.

Ronald Kirzinger (“of” Hatonn)

Gyeorgos Hatonn Slayer of Dragons

8/1/07 (20-350)

Wed., August 1, 2007, Year 20, Day 350
Manila, Philippines

ENTERING YEAR 21
ON THE COSMIC CALENDAR

August 8 marks the birthday of Esu Jmmanuel and August 17 will be the first day of Year 21 on the Cosmic Calendar. As this is a time of celebration, let’s have a little fun exploring the meaning of this point in the new cycle, integrating timing clues previously provided in the Phoenix Journals (of which this writing, too, forms a part).

In the February 7 issue we covered the significance of this being the Chinese Year of the Pig, a year of “fire over water” wherein we could expect “authorities imposing their will onto the people”. We noted that the Pig is in opposition to the Snake, so this would not prove to be a good year for the Snakes. Commander Hatonn indicated that there was “something to” the Chinese Calendar and said we should pay attention, so perhaps this is a good point to revisit.

As Richard Giles of Astrology.com noted: “Fire is on top this year with Water below—and Fire cannot burn without support. When Fire and Water clash, they either result in lots of scalding hot steam and explosions or they can transform whatever situation it was into something completely different.” Mr. Giles said we could expect: “chemical fires, industrial explosions and incidents related to factories or chemicals mixed in the wrong manner causing toxic poisoning and maybe even in food poisoning outbreaks. The Fire Pig year will also be a year of drama and change in politics, as the Fire/Water combination means clashes of values and criticism, unrest, threatened coups or violence in politics and arguments, disputes and fights over values and rights.” He also said we could expect the economic system to hold up through the first half of the year (into August) but after that the Fire-Water conflict would probably kick in.

Hmmm... sounds pretty accurate to me!

The calendar employed by GCH in dating writings through “Dharma” is based on the Mayan Calendar but reset to zero as of August 16, 1987. On the Cosmic Calendar, Year 21 could be viewed as returning us to the initial “glyph” (of 20 such characters) in the Mayan symbols.

The Sun rises in the East and appropriately, the first Mayan/Tzolkin glyph is the first of five “Suns of the East”—the RED DRAGON. The East is the direction of “coming to power”, and the Red Dragon glyph represents BIRTH, the renewal of life, the initiation of new creations.

Most of us would tend to associate the “dragon” with the nation of China, so it would not be too surprising to see the Chinese assert themselves to an even greater extent this year. Relating this symbol to the Chinese Calendar “Year of the Pig” we find at least one strong similarity: The Red Dragon, like the Chinese Pig, has dominating PARENTAL overtones. The element of the Red Dragon is water and could thus be viewed as the Water underlying the Fire of the Chinese Year of the Pig.

To put this YEAR in perspective, here is a brief excerpt from Phoenix Journal 22, Pleiades Connection Vol. I, describing the Initial Phase of the Golden Age and where we are within it:

This is the initial phase of the “Golden Age”, the transition phase of the two centuries. The culmination of this period will come in time—it is said to be around 2028 in calculation of your years. Therefore, if you are to count in accordance with projections and probabilities, you are in a most difficult present circumstance. The REALLY INTENSE revolutionary force of this “new epoch” began around and just prior to your mid-1800s and since then the extensive alterations on Earth rush irresistibly forward.

The New Age already demands its tribute, religious delusion, rapidly developing sciences, rampant crime, and wars of extirpation, characteristics of this time which can not be ignored. The first half of the transition period lasted almost a hundred years, until the first third of the 1900s in your counting, while the Earth felt the last of the old age—as it was known.

Since that time, rapidly evolving events, discoveries, inventions, etc., were characteristic as for no other time in history as you can recognize it. Your whole sun-system with all its innumerable creatures is under the control of this “new” time. Each and everything is influenced by it, because this is a cosmic law and it is according to this law, to which are subject all movements of planets and all life forms of and within the Universe. Therefore, it can be considered that before your mid-1800s and hitherto, existing regulations not of the Creational character replaced those of Creational disposition.

The origin of this epochal change is in the radiation effect of the huge central sun around which your system circles once in every 25,860 years, and passes through the 12 epochs within the meaning of the cycles. The Earth has already touched the outer borders of the “Golden

Year 21
Red Dragon, First of
20 Tzolkin Glyphs

Radiation” of the central sun, which are of the strongest and most revolutionary radiation.

As we can see, this year marks the “first step” into the FINAL 20-year period which completes the 200-year initial period of transition into the Golden Age. During this Initial Phase, our technology advances to the point where we “can” join the Cosmic Brotherhood of Higher Universal Man. This is NOT “The End of the World” as the idiotic and blasphemous expressions of one “Jonur” pretending to write for Commander Hatonn would have you believe. IT IS, HOWEVER, THE END OF THE BEGINNING. Are we having any fun yet?

WHO IS GYEORGOS CERES HATONN?

Not long ago my own Mother asked me, “Who is Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn?” For her benefit (if she reads this) and for the benefit of others who might have the same question, I will expand on the brief answer I gave her that day: “He is a Messenger of God; an ethereal or what you might call “angelic” being; He represents what you call ‘God’.” The unknowing ridicule and refer to Him as a “space commander” but HE IS A HOST OF GOD, obviously not satisfied with the limited and limiting definitions ascribed by the churches.

Let’s begin with Commander Hatonn’s self-description:

I am Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn, Commander in Chief, Earth Project Transition, Pleiades Sector Flight Command, Intergalactic Federation Fleet-Ashtar Command; Earth Representative to the Cosmic Council and Intergalactic Federation Council on Earth Transition. You may call me “Hatonn”.

Let there be no misunderstanding of WHO I AM! I come in this portion as a fourth-dimensional Project Commander in charge of Earth Transition.

We are referred to in many ways: the Pattern Beings, the Winged Ones, the Travelers of the Heavens, the Sky People, the Light Bearers and the Flying Tribes—we are but the Hosts sent in service for a transition back into Godness and to act as alarm clocks to those sleeping while destruction descends upon you. We are come at your request to open the door of the prison you have built around your selves without realizing the consequences of the isolation of a fragment taken from the whole of God-ness.

The God within calls softly unto you to open your eyes and see that which He has sent unto you to Light your path. We are your brothers, come to show you the way and the “Captain” of the ship is perfection of brilliant light which is missed by the totality of its surrounding capacity.

We come with total love and petition that you look carefully indeed, for the cycle of change is now upon you!

We of the lighted brotherhood of the Cosmic and Galactic participants are ready to make our presence upon your place. We travel and act in the direct service and under Command of Esu Jesus Immanuel Sananda. Sananda is aboard my Command Craft from whence He will direct all evacuation and transition activities as regards the period you ones call the End Prophecies of Armageddon.

As difficult as this may be for some to accept, the writings of Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn through Doris “Dharma” Ekker are the WORD OF GOD, superseding the tampered “holy books” of all the religions. The writings were date and time stamped, and presented via specifically identified frequency, which enabled the NSA and other intelligence agencies to VERIFY the accuracy of transcription, “verbatim”. In the end, their machines could decipher the messages with such facility that they no longer even needed Doris Ekker’s transcription. Of course, these ones were not too anxious to share the Word of God—after all, “knowledge is power”. The Phoenix Journals are the RECORD available to all men throughout the World.

Many OTHERS have “come along” PRETENDING to present from “Hatonn” but these have uniformly proven to be either ego-bound or outright PSYOPS (Psychological Operations) of the intelligence agencies, acting for the “powers that be”. The latest in this group of deceivers, whether wittingly or unwittingly, is the one who calls himself “Jonur”—but otherwise fails to identify himself. The known-false and blasphemous “Jonur” writings are being endorsed by Eddyjo Ekker but are NOT part of the record of the Phoenix. We’ll return to this subject further along. For now, let’s continue with the discussion of “Who is Commander Hatonn?”

SUMERIAN-ARYAN KING DAR FOUNDER OF CIVILIZATION

Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn has made it clear that the religious authorities have done their utmost to disparage the natural recycling of id-entities from one incarnation into the next. He confirmed several of the past life experiences of his chosen scribe, Doris “Dharma” Ekker, who lived lives as: Akhenaton, Socrates, Simon Peter, Sir Francis Bacon and William Lloyd Garrison, among others.

The name Gyeorgos is Greek and comes from the roots Geo, “of the Earth” and Ergon, “work”, certainly an appropriate title for an “Earth worker” in charge of this Transition. For His part, Commander Hatonn acknowledged that He has walked on this planet but “graduated” to the etheric realms to be of service. Who “was” Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn? In the meeting held in Tehachapi, California on August 8, 1993 Commander Hatonn declared:

“I was King Dar, I came with my people and that area was known as Aryan-Sumaran. These were the original ‘white’ people, not as tall as my energy form but taller than what your modern-day Kurds are but in the ... basically, the blue-eyed, blonde expression.”

I don’t have a copy of Nora Boyle’s book, Garden of Aton, and I am not aware of whether or not she looked into this particular relationship. I went online and did some basic research of my own. I learned some things that raised an eyebrow on more than one occasion, some of which I would like to share in this writing. I do not propose that you take all of these statements as “gospel” but rather as a simple sharing of information available in the public domain today. If this subject interests you, there is much, much more to be found along these lines on the Internet today. The following is a simplified summary of the information I came across.

King Dar was of the Duranki lineage of the Anunnaki, the Pitris or fathers, also known as the “winged ones”. He was the “first Sumerian king”, based on the transcription on his great grandson King Udu’s stone bowl, an artifact which has survived through to the present day and which dates back to 3245 BC. He was the head of the first ARYAN dynasty. The word “Aryan” has, of course, been awarded great notoriety in association with Hitler and the Nazis through the standard programming techniques. The reason for these PSYOPS appears to be to isolate us from the true history.

Much of this history had been held for years in the area of Mesopotamia which we call Iraq and the ancient documentation appears to have been the object of many of the aerial bombardments of the Gulf War (I & II—but really all just one continuous, non-stop war of aggression by the modern-day “Nazis”).

Aryans are the tall, blue-eyed and blonde-haired people from the area where we now find the Kurds. These Aryans are now often referred to as Nordic peoples. In the Nordic Eddas we find the legends of Her-Thor (Thor) and the name Thor ties in to Dar from a linguistic perspective: Dar→Dur→Tur→Thur→Thor. The Stone Bowl of Dar equates with the Stone Cauldron of Thor and quite probably also with the Holy Grail of the legendary King ArTHUR (the phonetic equivalent of Her-Thor).

In India, Dar appears in the form of InDRA. I did not go very far down this path of connections but there are definite tie-ins suggesting that much of the culture of India also stems back to good old King Dar.

As the “King of the Winds”, Zaks, his name migrates into the Greek God, Zeus. Zaks/Zeus is related phonetically to Sabakhios, the Sky Father of the Phrygians and Thracians. Zaks becomes Za-Ga-Ga and traces back to IA (Ga-Ia or Gaia, perhaps), also ENKI, EA, Jupiter and Jove. Zechariah Sitchin’s Lost Book of Enki describes the Anunnaki Enki with characteristics very similar to Zeus.

King Dar, as the first Sumerian king, has been called the FOUNDER OF CIVILIZATION.

There is very little history publicly available from over 5,000 years ago, unfortunately, but Commander Hatonn also identified one of his “more recent” incarnations and with regard to this one there is substantially more information available.

GYEORGOS, DRAGON SLAYER THEN AND NOW

Commander Hatonn also identified himself as “George from Cappadocia, the dragon slayer”. It’s not too surprising to find that there are TWO famous/infamous Georges during the same general era: Saint George the dragon slayer and another one, a pork-selling Bishop of ill repute, who was far from a saint but who was always more strongly connected with Cappadocia. Needless to say, the adversary always works overtime to cover up great truths.

In looking at this second known lifetime of Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn, the first things I came across were numerous connections of the “dragon slayer” to other ancient “myths”—which also, “oddly enough” trace back to King Dar of Aryan Sumeria:

There is the slaying of the serpent by InDRA in Vedic and Hindu mythology; the battle between Thor and Jormungandr in Norse mythology; Zeus’ defeat of Typhon in Greek mythology; and even the old story of how Perseus slew the sea monster threatening the virgin Andromeda. ALL OF THESE STEM BACK TO THE ARYAN “MYTH” OF THE SUN-GOD (ONE LIGHT) AS CONQUEROR OVER THE POWERS OF DARKNESS.

Gyeorgos is, of course, a direct antecedent of our English name, George. Why did Commander Hatonn choose to use the GREEK spelling? In my opinion, one of the main reasons for choosing the Greek reference might have been to steer us to the account of Saint George’s life provided by the original Greek manuscript from which numerous other accounts—Syriac, Coptic, Arabic and Ethiopic—were derived. Unfortunately, there is no indication at this time that the original Greek document survived. In 1971 author Helen Gibson, who evaluated the four surviving “original” texts, wrote an article entitled “Saint George the Ubiquitous”, which was published in Saudi Aramco World magazine, in the Nov-Dec 1971 issue.

From these “original” but translated and tampered texts, Ms. Gibson concludes:

“It seems certain now George was the only son of a Palestinian sheikh, a Christian who enjoyed an important position in the country under the Roman governor of the province. He trained hard in athletics as a youth and later joined the local army with a commission, where he proved a bold and skillful soldier. On his father’s death, George set out to see the province governor with a view to taking on his father’s position.

“What exactly happened there is not known. That he was tortured and eventually killed for refusing to take part in pagan sacrifices, however, seems true. And some unusual circumstances must have occurred during these proceedings. Otherwise St. George would never have lived in legend for so many centuries.”

Indeed, the evidence is very strong that “some unusual circumstances” MUST have taken place. It is said that he was TORTURED FOR A FULL SEVEN YEARS AND ACTUALLY KILLED ON FOUR SEPARATE OCCASIONS. The accounts of the deaths seem incredible, Saint George’s body being cut into ten pieces, for instance, or entirely reduced to ash on another “occasion”. No matter what the Emperor tried, he could not silence the testimony of Saint George of Cappadocea.

The following is an excerpt from “Saint George the Ubiquitous” by Helen Gibson:

Theodotus, Bishop of Ancyra (now Ankara, Turkey), in the 5th century wrote a lengthy account of the saint’s martyrdom, full of intricately gruesome details of his suffering. He read his work to his congregation on April 23, in a church dedicated to St. George.

He tells how the Roman Emperor Diocletian and his 70 nobles had persecuted Christians for three years. Public exhibitions of every known form of torture had stopped anyone from professing the faith until George came along.

St. George’s tortures take up several hours of reading:

“And they pounded him on it (stone slab) until the whole of his body and his bones were crushed to pulp ... they beat his head with a hammer and with a rod of iron until his brains protruded through his nose ... then the wicked king commanded them to bring a great iron saw and to saw him down the middle of his head and his belly ... ”

St. George at the Center of Russian Coat of Arms

During this seven-year period of torture, George performed a number of miracles and converted both a magician sent to kill him and the wife of the governor, or “wicked king”. They in their turn suffered torture and death, together with 30,000 others inspired by St. George’s example.

The magician often features in paintings and frescoes of St. George.

After being put to death three times in the most horrible ways, Theodotus says, George finally succumbed to a beheading and was buried. Eastern and Western tradition alike make his burial ground the little town of Lydda where Peter the Apostle healed Aeneas. Its modern equivalent lies about 15 miles southeast of Jaffa.

Throughout his account, Theodotus makes no mention of a dragon except in describing the governor, whom he also calls a “serpent.” In the same way, artists and writers of bygone times may have decided that the infamous governor could only be depicted as a monster. Perhaps this is how the dragon crept into the history of St. George.

Decrying such accounts as having come from Aryan-swayed churches (rather strongly influenced by the impact of Gyeorgos’ persistence, we might guess), the Acta Sancti Georgii were outlawed by Pope Gelasius in AD 496. Somehow, however, the essential TRUTH has survived into today. Commander Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn has always taken a posture AGAINST “martyrdom” with an attitude of “been there, done that”. This time, a different approach to the same problem with the same old “dragon” seems to be in order.

GYEORGOS AND THE GOLDEN LEGEND

In the “classic” story of Saint George the Dragon Slayer, the people of a region sacrificed one of their own to the “dragon” on a regular basis. Finally, it was the daughter of the King himself who was to be sacrificed and the King was distraught. He made an offer to the gallant, warrior, Gyeorgos: “Save my daughter from the beast and I will reward you with all of my gold and silver and half of my kingdom.” Gyeorgos agreed and promptly slew the dragon, leaving his reward to the people.

It seems to me that Gyeorgos has slain the modern-day “dragon” (serpent) and is owed the same reward. Perhaps the people will get around to accepting their legacy WHEN THEY REALIZE THE DRAGON HAS HAD ITS FANGS REMOVED.

Aren’t “old myths” and “fairy tales” fun?

Many groups and even entire nations have adopted Saint George as their “patron”, including Palestine, Greece, Serbia, my home country of Canada—and Russia, to name a few. In the country that bears his name, Georgia, he is often referred to as “White George”. (And it is worth noting: Mohammedans seem to identify with Saint George as Elijah; in Islam there are references to Mar Girgius.) Have a look at the Russian Coat of Arms nearby and in the very center you will see GEORGE THE DRAGON SLAYER. Are you surprised? In the 1993 meeting, Gyeorgos Hatonn said, “My coat of arms is a lion on either side, as big as me.” It may be some time before the meaning of that statement is clear but this seemed like the right place to include it.

For those who might want to do some research on the one who tends to follow King Dar, the second king listed on King Udu’s stone bowl was named: Gin, “the increaser”; Gan, “field and produce”; Kan or Kon from the Nordic Eddas, where Kon was the “knight-errand” of Thor; and this seems to relate to Commander Korton, who was introduced by Commander Hatonn in several writings. And by the way, Korton IS NOT the phony for whom “Jonur” sometimes claims to write, and yes, I do say so with some authority on that particular subject. Be very cautious in accepting casual identification or outright non-identification when it comes to matters wherein your soul well-being is at stake.

I hope you enjoyed the “side trip” because the future is only the past, revisited, as the cycles repeat “forever” while we are bound within this prison of time and space. St. George, “now” Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn, shows us the way to this very day.

Ronald Kirzinger (“of” Hatonn)

De Jure T-A Foundation Withstands All Scrutiny

8/1/07 (20-350)

Wed., August 1, 2007, Year 20, Day 350
Manila, Philippines

7 YEARS AGO

Are “WE” somehow going to go forth and do battle with the dragon? NO, the dragon may well fall but not because we destroy him. We create better ways, grow through what is and defang the dragon while using his hot breath to create energy for our lamps. The dragon has to live on the same physical planet as do you! By the way, dragons die of nuclear bomb explosions TOO.—GCH, 8/9/00 (13-358)

Everything in nature occurs in the context of cycles and within our own lives it becomes obvious that we continually “re-engineer” similar sets of circumstances. There can be great benefits in going back over the writings from Commander Hatonn from 7 years prior in order to see what has changed and what has remained the same. Also, there is the opportunity to evaluate the events of the prior cycle in light of that which has been learned since. If you maintain a personal diary or journal, you might try looking back 7 years to see what insights might be obtained.

Here’s an interesting entry made by Doris Ekker, which I have just re-encountered and about which I now have substantially different perceptions. On August 4, 2000, 7 years ago, Doris wrote:

If we think the big Satan isn’t after us—

I want to share a realization I had a couple of days ago when I really felt “down” and hopeless and suddenly like an electric shock I got right up off the couch and went nuts. E.J. was downstairs and I actually saw such a dark blob in the room as to catch my breath. I shouted to “get out of this place and back off” and I literally pulled in my own strength and knew it was not some other entity; I knew the power was in myself. I haven’t shared this because it was too personal but I want to share it now because I literally watched it move out of the room and I knew I was in control of it. I did invoke a few names in my behalf but the realization was incredible. These nits can’t do a thing unless we LET THEM. NOTHING. All they can do is bring down more and more on their own heads as they struggle in their wallow.

What do YOU think that extremely “dark blob” was? It is reassuring to realize that such dark energies MUST depart when the Light so commands them. Darkness simply cannot remain in the Light and so my constant efforts will be devoted to keeping the Light shining very brightly. With great thanks I acknowledge the many powerful prayers of support which register in my quiet times.

IDENTIFICATION OF RECEIVERS

Looking back seven years, we see that Commander Hatonn was making a point with regard to those who would usurp His very name. Today on the Internet you can probably find half a dozen so-called receivers for Commander Hatonn. How many of those IDENTIFY themselves? Who or what is a “Jonur”, for instance? Was that Norey’s Hatonn or did the edited product more reflect Dr. Young? When is a Bellringer really a Mulhausen?

MOREOVER, if any of these writers claiming to write for Commander Hatonn ACTUALLY HOST HIS ENERGY, why have NONE of them managed to arrange any kind of open meeting such as the ones held by the Genuine Article for a decade?

On August 10, 2000 (Year 13, Day 359), Commander Gyeorgos Hatonn wrote:

If there has been such a genuine claim to myself and my compatriots—WHY HAVE THERE BEEN NO MEETINGS IN PUBLIC FORUM FOR DISCUSSION? HAVE I NOT PRESENTED THROUGH AND WITH MY SCRIBE FOR A DECADE? HAVE THEY NO ABILITY TO BRING FORTH SUCH INTERCHANGE? WOULD YOU NOW BELIEVE IT IF THEY TRIED IT? IT IS HOGWASH AND THEIR FULL INTENT IS TO DESTROY AND WIPE OUT POSSIBILITY OF POSITIVE GROWTH AND BUSINESS VENTURES WHICH CAN MAKE A DIFFERENCE TO THE PEOPLE—ALL PEOPLE.

How many readers have learned enough DISCERNMENT to TEST the information presented in order to ascertain its validity? Along this same subject line of identification of so-called “secretaries”, on August 13, 2000 (Year 13, Day 362), GCH wrote:

GCH/D

IDENTIFICATION:

Author: Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn (GCH)

Secretary: Dharma (D) [KNOWN as Doris J. Ekker]

IS ALL THIS NECESSARY?

NO.

I need only identify and confirm with my “secretary” and she/he must identify to the public so there is identification of source.

Readers must read and perceive that which they will. This is JOURNALISM, not mysticism. This means that the ultimate responsibility of presentation rests with the receiver (READER) of the information presented in the material. If you are told otherwise, then the information is not truth. Your perception of our writings is yours, as it has been, is, and forever shall be.

When you read a book don’t you have to actually READ it? WHO IS THE AUTHOR?

Does the author back up presentation with historical data? DO YOU CHECK IT OUT? No? Why not?

Since the paper, CONTACT, is OUR paper and you will find that WE of this paper write for OUR readers you will find sufficient identification, as in this instance with either my name or my initials and that of my secretary who has to put the thoughts to paper as in “typed print”. You can only judge my input by the validity of my secretary and that is simply the way of it.

If a journalist puts his own words to type or press, fine, you certainly need no other identification for he is his own secretary. If, however, the author is in the deepest of darkest jungle, then the only way to directly contact source is through the secretary. THERE ARE NO DEBATES OR QUARRELS ABOUT THE MATTER, ONLY THE EXCUSES FOR NOT DOING WHAT IS REQUESTED OR A DESIRE TO HIDE SELF FROM PUBLIC RECOGNITION IN HOPES THE WRITER WILL BE MISIDENTIFIED AND BE PRESENTED IN FALSE DISPLAY ...

In the same writing we find the injunction: “... [I]t is mandatory to COUNTER and CONFRONT any lies and false presentations.”

ISN’T IT VERY STRANGE, THEN, THAT THE MESSAGES DELIVERED BY “JONUR”—SUPPOSEDLY FOR/FROM COMMANDER GYEORGOS CERES HATONN—FAIL ON THIS VERY POINT OF MANDATORY CONFRONTATION?

WHY NO SUCCESS YET?

Another “tidbit” from the August 13, 2000 writing worthy of pondering in the context of why there has been no success yet through EJ Ekker: “If we become worse than the tyrants in power I can tell you right here up front: WE WILL NOT BE ALLOWED TO SUCCEED.”

From a writing of August 9, 2000: “We are working toward COMMUNITY and not to either communism or communal anything. Most certainly we know no one in our tribe who wants to be dictator or king. That is what our people are trying to do—get rid of the ones who demand kings or dictators.”

The August 9, 2000 writing also addressed the issue of those on the scene in Tehachapi at the time, when half a million dollars worth of grain in silos had to be dealt with, cleared up and cleaned out. The question at the end of this excerpt—“What do you want to be when you grow up?”—should identify the main party to whom this message is lovingly addressed. Unfortunately, despite great encouragement, that one did not act appropriately then and apparently refuses to grow up and do the right thing right through to the present. If that one really wants to know why no success yet—he should go within and REALLY stand in the Light. Here is what Commander Hatonn had to say at the time, 8/9/00 (13-358):

There are, just for starters, some near half million $$ tied up in grain, beans and food products—most in granaries. Should Margie have to clear it up and move it out? Where is everybody else? WHO HAS AN INTEREST IN THE INSTITUTE?

Because of lack of tending, as is, half the value or more may be lost to use. Oh well.

Ah, and the granaries themselves? What of them? They were purchased, expensed for construction, augers built to move the grain as to on-load and off-load from shipping trucks. WHO BOTHERED TO LEARN HOW TO USE THOSE THINGS? Oh, I see, it was Charles? Bob J.? Stan D.? Pablo? WHO?

Is it not time, local team, to focus on how to phase out the current projects that can't seem to have operations capability without two old folks busting their brains in the Philippines?

Oh, I see, you wanted just to lend money and get double your money back with interest and leave the broken pieces for another? Shame on you! Or, let's put it where it's at: You just wanted to eat the finished bread as given to you and certainly you did not want to touch that nasty old pile of grain.

YOU WANT TO LIVE?
YOU WANT TO SURVIVE?
DO YOU?

The real question remains, however, in any instant: HOW?

The measure of intent is always with self. You must confront, first, self. “What do you want to be when you grow up?”

Disgruntled lenders should note the position taken by GCH with regard to debts owed by the Phoenix Institute and/or corporations other than Global Alliance Investment Association. On August 10, 2000 (Year 13, Day 359), Commander Hatonn made this clear statement:

“Another sideline to consider is what has been set forth by our GAIA officers and directors in the form of legal resolutions and considerations. GAIA has resolved to cover the debts of the Institute when funding is in place for transfer. That is the first obligation covered in GAIA's projected intent.”

Refusal to confront the lies and criminal usurpation of EJ Ekker—and actual endorsement of his position—leaves these dissatisfied lenders in a position to simply WAIT until the time “when funding is in place for transfer”. If that is not comforting, they COULD make efforts to have a court cause Global Alliance Investment Association to cover the debts of other companies BUT THAT IS NOT A LIKELY OUTCOME WITHOUT ABILITY TO PROVE THE COMPANIES HAVE COMMON OWNERSHIP. “Good luck.”

Erap sued for plunder by 'Rajah Soliman heir'

By Jocelyn R. Uy

COMES NOW A "PRINCE" suing jailed ex-President Joseph Estrada in another case of alleged plunder.

Lawyer Homobono Adaza yesterday unveiled the new case as the

ERAP SUED/A18

Erap sued for plunder by last 'Rajah Soliman heir'

From page A1

country awaits judgment day on Estrada's 6-year-old plunder trial involving P4 billion in alleged ill-gotten wealth.

The new complaint centers on the "Erap City" mass housing project sitting on a piece of land in Montalban, Rizal, purportedly owned by the "remaining heir" of native chieftains Rajah Soliman and Lapu-Lapu, Prince Julian Tallano.

Tallano claims to be the descendant of King Luisong Taguean and the rightful owner of the entire Philippine archipelago which the "royal clan" purportedly acquired through original Certificate of Title No. 01-4, supposedly the very first title issued in the country in 1764.

Adaza had planned to lodge Tallano's six-page complaint, which included over 100 pages of annexes, in the Office of the Ombudsman yesterday afternoon but he showed up almost empty-handed claiming his computer had broken down.

The complaint will instead be filed today. Similar suits will also be filed separately against affluent families, like the Ayalas and Aranetas.

The only document Adaza shared with reporters yesterday was a letter to the Land Registration Authority requesting all registry of deeds nationwide to stop issuing to nonowners transfers Certificate of Titles OCT No. 01-4.

The letter, dated July 5, 2007, was addressed to LRA administrator Benedicto Ulep.

Adaza said Tallano was charging Estrada with plunder, violation of the antigraft law and the code of conduct and ethical standards for illegally acquiring a 2,500-hectare parcel of land in Montalban owned by the Tallano clan.

Tall tale

The controversial "Erap City" which had been touted as the "first ever well-planned socialized housing project" was undertaken by the Estrada administration to provide shelter to poor residents of Quezon City and Rizal province.

"This land belongs to the Tallano family and this is not only recognized by court decisions but also by the late President Ferdinand Marcos," Adaza told reporters.

"You will be surprised because this is a thing that will explode all over your faces ... it will even rewrite Philippine history because this country used to be ruled by native kings and the current claimant is the successor of the original ruler of this country," he elaborated.

But Cagayan de Oro Rep. Rufus Rodriguez, who is acting as Estrada's spokesperson, dismissed the case as a "tall tale that will not sell."

"Is it credible to believe that one family owns the more than 7,000 islands in the country?" Rodriguez asked.

Waste of time?

He said the Ombudsman should "not waste its time" on the case, which suspiciously came only after eight years since after the "Erap City" was constructed and just when a decision was expected to be handed down on Estrada's plunder case, possibly next month.

"We see a hand of politics in this ... This is a desperate move of his detractors, whom we are calling not to further cause harassment and oppression against Estrada," Rodriguez said at a separate press conference.

In an effort to "recover" these lands from the government, Tallano, who owns the Tallano Noble Estate Corp., had sought judicial remedies from the Pasig and Pasay City courts nine years ago.

In 2001, a Pasay City court was reported to have handed down a ruling which awarded the Philippine archipelago to Tallano.

“Prince” Julian Morden Tallano Makes the Front Page with Suit for Plunder versus Joseph Estrada

TALLANO CHARGES ERAP WITH PLUNDER

“Prince” Julian Morden Tallano—who “belatedly” incorporated the Don Esteban Benitez Tallano & Don Gregorio Madrigal Acop Foundation after being in breach of the Agana Court’s order for some 27 years—is making a bold move to stop the massive land grabbing that goes on every day here in the Philippines, enriching many of the most wealthy families in the country.

This is GOOD NEWS from our perspective, if only because it is finally MAKING THE FRONT PAGE and being drawn into the public’s attention in a big way. It is NOT NECESSARILY APPROPRIATE for the “Prince” (as he calls himself) to take this action in his own name because the land titles issue SHOULD be addressed by the Foundation formed pursuant to the court’s order for that very purpose. Or did he merely participate in its forming, while remaining in breach of the court’s orders?

Don’t be surprised if an intervenor enters this case, which we (the de jure Foundation) are entitled to do at any time. Meanwhile, however, we are actively working to re-establish a friendly relationship with Julian Tallano. To do so we must overcome the concerns raised by EJ Ekker “and company” with regard to his SANITY. Well, I am prepared to accept that he is sane and capable, IF he can demonstrate that he is genuinely working for the best interests of THE PEOPLE and not just trying to replace the names of Ayala and Araneta as “kings of the Philippines”. We shall see if he can align himself with God’s true purposes and if so—things will move forward very briskly indeed.

DE JURE FDN LETTER TO SEC

It has been brought to our attention that EJ Ekker “and company” intend to unlawfully amend the articles of incorporation of the Foundation to change its name. To counter that sly maneuver, the Foundation’s legitimate President, Cenon C. Marcos, has written a letter to the Securities Exchange Commission (SEC) asking that they do not process any application submitted by the pretenders. Contrary to what Mr. Ekker has led people to believe, the letter was well received by the SEC (as you can see from the file stamps)—not “thrown in the trash”.

What part of “You’re fired!” do you not understand, Attorney Estepa? The court has accepted our petition for substitution of counsel and your ongoing actions purportedly on behalf of the Foundation are not welcome. Moreover, you will find that efforts to obtain the MEMBERSHIP BOOK, required by the SEC for any amendment, will continue to be FUTILE.

By this time EJ Ekker and Dra. Brenda Bandaay should have received service of process with regard to LIBEL for the public notice they presented in a local newspaper declaring that Cenon C. Marcos, Professor Jaime Ramirez and the Foundation’s TRUE Secretary, Erlinda R. Marcos somehow “gave up” their positions as trustees. The would-be usurpers participated in a BOGUS “annual meeting” at which the presence of a quorum was certified which COULD NOT HAVE EXISTED. The first hearing date for the CRIMINAL LIBEL CASE is set for August 21.

In the end, as this situation is resolved in TRUTH, the efforts of the two Americans—EJ Ekker and his vote-multiplier, Tom Taylor, who otherwise did NOTHING for the Foundation—CANNOT STAND AGAINST THE QUORUM OF THREE FILIPINOS, with or without one Canadian on their side. To think otherwise seems very foolish, indeed.

INTERNET NOISE

The Internet is a great place to fish for information, even if you’re just a crusty old captain who liked to serve up bait for sushi to your guests. And when you’re looking for a PONY, you should expect a certain aroma, whether or not it is offensive to your particular sensibilities. Some individual who will not provide identification can make all the demands or purported “offers” he/she wishes but they are next to MEANINGLESS.

One such character alleges that Ronald Kirzinger smells bad because I must have been involved in the issuance

De Jure Foundation Letter to SEC To Block De Facto Move to Usurp

Don Esteban Benitez Tallano and Don Gregorio Madrigal Acop Foundation

SEC Reg. CN200322944

TIN: 237-114-038

30 July 2007

CORPORATE & PARTNERSHIP REGISTRATION DIVISION
RECEIVED BY: Jan 7. 31. 07

Atty. Ferdinand B. Sales
Assistant Director
Corporate and Partnership Registration Division
CRMD, Securities & Exchange Commission
Edsa Greenhills, Mandaluyong City

Re: Potential false filing by expelled former Trustee and former legal counsel

Sir:

It has come to my attention being the President of this above foundation that the group of Mr. EJ Ekker & Atty. Alejo Estepa is planning to submit to your office an application to change the name of our foundation. This move of the aforementioned group is not valid, because as early as last March 17, 2007 Mr. Ekker had been expelled as trustee and member and Atty. Estepa had been terminated as legal counsel of the foundation as of March 19, 2007 and this period is before our annual meeting on April 7, 2007.

Further to the above and complying with your Circular No. 9 of June 29, 2006 we had submitted our amended GIS on March 27, 2007 in compliance with General Instruction No. 4 informing your office of the changes that occurred between March 17, 2007 (expulsion of Mr. EJ Ekker and suspension of Mr. Tom Taylor) and March 19, 2007 (termination of the services of Atty. Estepa).

In view of the foregoing, may I therefore request that should they persist in pursuing their plan to change the name of the foundation or apply for any amendment of the articles or by laws of our foundation, we are hereby registering our objection. We pray that your Office will not accept the filing of Mr. EJ Ekker and Attorney Estepa’s group and if ever your Office receives their application you will not process and approve such application.

Anticipating your favorable action on this regard.

Thank you.

Very respectfully,

CENON C. MARCOS
President

Cc: Asst. Director Atty. Edgardo F. Del Rosario
Corporate Filings & Records Division

8-B San Bernardo St., Bgy San Joaquin, Pasig City, MM

Telefax: (02) 640-4559

www.TallanoFdn.com: Info@TallanoFdn.com

Will the Locusts Prevail?

Mon., Aug. 7, 2000 8:50 A.M. Yr. 13, Day 356

RE: LET THE U.S. HELP IN A TANGIBLE WAY—GCH/D

As we watch nations fall into chaos and agony of projected hardship, let us look to possibilities which can come from very REAL and now “realized” assets and potentials.

INTERNATIONAL MONETARY FUND, ET AL.

The IMF as structured has no recourse other than to disallow any plan other than their own, and that is simply the way it IS. They continue to “lend” funds and, to make it work, the interest strips the assets of the loans themselves before there is use of the funds for purposes allotted. This gets ever bigger and bigger in scope and disallows any way for any nation using such funds (loans) to EVER be able to recover.

This is now a global realization and therefore comes the very intent to phase out the old systems as to “NAME” so that there is illusion of change but an ever stiffening control system—even if the so-called strings are seemingly cut away or debts “forgiven”. You are working with world bankers and power brokers and they will not do anything which does not bring realization to their goals of Domination and Order.

CHAOS IN POLITICAL CIRCLES

As we look at various nations, the easiest of course being the Philippines, we find opportunities to both serve and share and give honor and recognition to the old colonial masters as well as to the recognition of the needs of the newly freed colonized citizens.

Let us not dwell on the interchanging political network of high-ranking officers and managers of a nation as in even the President who owns property and stashes money in the very “Master’s” nation which he just visited. By this, there was press attention to Estrada resting in his Los Angeles home. What does this do to poverty-stricken Payatas residents from the foot of “Smokey Mountain” garbage dump? Or for that matter, as today’s headlines read: “What if Pinatubo rim fails?”

This is a good observation because Pinatubo is a devastating potential awaiting opportunity to flood villages in a most catastrophic manner when the lake fills or the volcano blows.

These are massively expensive construction projects to restructure safety guards, move villages, or do what is responsible.

Next let us consider the toxic wastes left by the U.S. Military which is devastating whole village multitudes of poverty-level citizens having to live in those structured areas holding such waste. How many mutants do you need to fix the problem? In a civilized world the cost of care and nurturing such handicapped and maimed children, and adults, is devastating in itself to a bankrupt government.

The government officials get paid off in dollars and those are moved into security against their time of “jumping ship” from the colony and having to take up residence in the sheltering arms of the Master’s house. But it need not be so blatant or so devastating to the servant’s quarters.

Remember, please, that everyone, including Mr. Erap’s new “buddy” (the definition of the term erap) Clinton. Clinton is sent to Washington as A SERVANT of the “people”. Indeed! But is that what you get? No, he oppresses or charms (whichever is suitable in the moment) the visitors and fools the citizens while SERVING HIS OWN MASTERS FROM A VERY MUCH HIGHER CARTEL/CABAL.

WHY WAIT FOR HANDOUTS OF CRUMBS AND WORTHLESS CAST-OFFS?

The cry from the Philippines today is of the failures to acquire the more desirable “handouts” from Clinton. Well, Clinton can’t hand out ANYTHING so what is this groveling?

We have, through Global Alliance Investment Association (GAIA), valid assets as in U.S. Treasury debt assumed by the Federal Reserve in the Act of 1913. It is based on GOLD which was to have been held to cover the debt plus interest since the late 1800’s. Is this strange? Only in that it has never been used as in “honored”, but indeed USED and used by the very controlling Masters along the way and their unrighteous puppets. Fine, there is enough to go around to solve the death-wish problems and rebuild some structure for stabilization and growth of the lesser endowed or manipulated nations and the people.

How much would it cost in dollars to clean up the toxic site so controversial? A billion dollars? $10 billion dollars? A hundred million dollars? Nine hundred and fifty thousand dollars? WHAT?

Would that not be a superb PROJECT on which to base use of GAIA assets, hard gold purchased to INSURE (as in collateral) and held to insure the project is accomplished? Would this not look GOOD for both the U.S. in allowing non-interference while costing it nothing and the Philippines nothing? The cleanup would provide jobs; the bank would gain reserve assets enabling it to lend to other projects, and security would be in place without even touching the basic economic structure as in “weakening” or “collapsing” any/either system.

Further, the funds can be issued TO BUSINESSES WHO DO THE PROJECT WORK AND DO THE CONSTRUCTION—WITHOUT GOVERNMENT INVOLVEMENT IN THE CORRUPTION FLOW. YES, WE CAN DO THAT!

Look at Mt. Payatas dump! WE CAN DO THAT ONE TOO. WE HAVE AT LEAST THREE PROPOSALS READY AND WAITING FUNDING APPROVAL FOR JUST SUCH CLEAN-UP PROJECTS—WAITING—DONE AND WAITING. THESE WOULD ALSO OBIVIATE GOVERNMENTAL POSSIBILITIES OF CORRUPTION.

of “many, many” Deeds of Assignment—as if there is something wrong with offering the opportunity for joint venture partners to participate in fruition of the Divine Plan. In a quid pro quo, however, I will declare that I, personally, have only been involved in the issuance of a very small number of Deeds and those only since Doris Ekker passed away; the rest were issued, in most cases, quite a few years ago by Doris and EJ Ekker IN ORDER TO SECURE THE HOLDINGS and nothing wrong with that.

The “quid” (no squid or sushi, please, Captain) for the “pro quo”?

Alberto Fujimori (former President of Peru) and a JAPANESE had some interesting thoughts regarding this claim of Global Alliance Investment Association or actually of that COSMOS SEAFOOD claim over the old Peru Bond ‘ that I considered to be dealing with bat guano and being a semi-legal claim in many respects). However He has some sobering thoughts which I cannot quote on this public forum without his permission, just that it seems that maybe the U.S. Treasury is at the mercy of manipulators. Still it was confirmed that it was legally issued by Peru originally and then in-between some evilpersons made a decision to grab the U.S. Treasury by its balls and make claim for the interest to be paid in GOLD, not in paper currency.

This “non comment” is quite revealing and affords confirmation of information from a Russian source, who used almost the same words to describe Mr. Wolfensohn’s response to intense questioning with regard to validity of the Globaliance/Cosmos underlying asset. The former head of the World Bank apparently said that the claim was “just an old man’s pipe dream”. When pressed, he relented, calling it “real” and adding, “but those crooks stole it from us and we will see to it that it never gains value within the system”. “It’s only hearsay” BUT “there you have it”, with or without official denials.

For the past seven years, de jure (if unacknowledged) control over this great asset has acted as the invisible fulcrum upon which very many changes in the World have been leveraged.

The ever-reasonable (and Gyeorgos-adhering) Romanov faction is seeking any kind of middle ground with the Habsburg group, offering rational solutions to the alternative of all-out WAR. If it would come to war, don’t you see, Russia and China shall not be beaten. It is only that they realize that they must live on this planet after all is said and done that has prevented catastrophic consequences for the NATO Nazis and Rothschilds. If you want to believe there was no relationship between Mr. Putin’s deference to Captain George HW and the stand-down of U.S. plans to nuke Iran, that’s alright, go back to sleep.

CONTACT is reaching a new audience. There have been thousands of downloads since the split, not counting the number of issues spread by email (at least hundreds more). From correspondence, I know that there are entirely NEW readers, just beginning to see and understand the outworking of the Divine Plan. Every day is a “Good” day as we move forward.

Ronald Kirzinger (“of” Hatonn)

If the businesses are corrupt it will be found out soon enough, my friends.

There are enough GAIA assets already issued and holding to do anything and everything necessary in Mindanao as proclaimed by “fixing” such as infrastructure—yea, even REBUILDING IT PROPERLY FROM GROUND UP. We hold two fully drawn projects with paper already issued for TWO rail systems in Mindanao and can also present ability to do the more recently suggested network of “hookup” to existing stations and rail links.

Are the U.S. controllers BLIND, DEAF AND DUMB? No, they are totally corrupt and use the Fed, IMF, and other funds sources as the whip and shackle. And, because they fail to keep ANY agreement, it is assumed by them that neither shall we and that therefore we will somehow gain control. Well, we could do quite a whole document on that point—but it is not control we seek or desire.

Yes, we are moving on a BIMP-EAGA type of monitoring and resource association. We are also working on the newly re-considered ASEAN Monetary Fund. Perhaps that can be the “Asian” MF if the nations involved will but work together.

WAR AND RUMORS OF WAR

It has to be recognized, and it is now NAMED, readers, that the culprits in Mindanao are not Muslims, not Christians, not Arabs and not any of the other pre-determined to-be-blamed chaos creators. These are all connections directly with the Mossad (who makes sure arms are delivered and, believe me, bought and paid for in blood AND MONEY), MI-6, and yes, involvement by CIA.

This is recognized, known, and thus the fear-factor beyond a bunch of religious frights.

I have no intention of getting into that can of worms, at least not until after our security is in place, for we have no thing to do with any of that political bloodshed, nor shall we jeopardize our people further by sending them off on goose chases where the very “protectors” are the “enemy” itself.

POLITICS IN THE U.S.

My people presenting this “asset” are “AMERICAN” citizens. Don’t overlook that I did NOT say “just U.S.” Further, do NOT overlook that there is a North America, a Central America and a South America with lots in-between—INCLUDING PERU, MY DEARS! THE DEBT IS OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA THROUGH THE TREASURY DEPARTMENT AS RECOGNIZED TODAY.

THIS DEBT CAN BE DENIED; IT CANNOT BE NEGATED.

As to politics in the U.S., or Globally, for that matter, we take no big note for all players are basically the SAME and all of the political game is just that, a “fool’s” game of get and getcha.

With that realization in mind, who would we like to see in the seat of power in Washington? Either or neither. The debt is that of the U.S. but was validated by use by one George Herbert Walker Bush, SR. Now Mr. Bush’s buddies, with namesake son, are moving into the seat of dishonor. How can you miss it, lambs?

Is that good or bad? Depends on how much intelligence there really is in those circles of the lie. If there is any intelligence at all, they will bless us greatly, grab some of the credit (and cover for past deeds of misuse) and allow a moving forward in quiet balancing of the playing fields. Man is given free-will choice and God takes proper opportunities to simply level some of the field’s pits and mountains. That which is constructed through evil is often used by God to produce the very equipment to level that field—THAT IS THE WAY OF THE HUMAN PHYSICAL EXPERIENCE. An entire globe could be delivered into FREEDOM if man would just do so. AND HOW IS YOUR DAY?

IMF NEEDS

There can’t logically just be a “dump the IMF” as it is structured for they can’t quit and the government can’t just dump. As things evolve, however, the IMF can be PAID OFF with its own debt, GAIA can cover it while the IMF gains funds for itself, the banks gain reserves and actual collateral upon which currency can stabilize and be secured as to value.

IF THERE IS NO ATTEMPT TO ACCOMPLISH THIS THEN THE FACTS ARE GOING TO BE MADE IN NEON LIGHTS AROUND THE GLOBE, AND THE TOTAL CORRUPTION AND INTENT OF DESTRUCTION BY THE POWER ELITE WILL BE LAID FORTH.

SOVEREIGNTY IS THE POINT, AND NOT “WILL THEY ALLOW...”

I don’t need to rewrite Ekker’s observation as stated but as to the GAIA validity and ability for use, it has nothing, at this point, to do with approval or disapproval for use but such as the U.S. Treasury, or otherwise.

The “product” is good—period. So, whereat and wherein does the use thereof reside? IN THE SOVEREIGNTY OF “SOVEREIGN” NATIONS EACH WITHIN ITSELF.

By this very reality it is the responsibility of the SOVEREIGN entity, in this case “nation”, to make such judgment and use. Let us say that Mr. Jones hands a note of IOU to Mr. Brown and collection day arrives. Who determines the use of the IOU? Well of course it is Mr. Brown. Now, if Mr. Brown has decided to ASSIGN his note, or a portion thereof, over to Mr. White, then Mr. White can also decide in his own sovereign rights how to utilize that IOU.

Now, taking this hypothetical example a bit farther: Suppose the IOU has become “empty” of value by deliberate actions of Mr. Jones—or, Mr. Jones simply denies the thing—does that make it invalid? NO.

Now, look at, say, Mr. Jones’ secretary or treasurer—or in the case of the U.S. where KNOWING parties are within the Treasury department. Is Mr. Summers (Sec. of Treasury) or Mr. Munk (High-level person within the Treasury Department) personally responsible for the debt? No. They simply serve as agents for the system wherein there is a line of flow. The debt is not negated and, when due and payable on maturity of the IOU itself as to qualifications, etc., the funds (or whatever) must be either paid or negotiated. In contract agreements this can be accepted as a simple verbal agreement between parties and is even more valid in perception and actual construct if there are witnesses to such verbal or intended requirements regarding the debt itself.

When you have “corporate” status involved then it becomes a regulated “agreement” subject to corporate regulations and legal ramifications affecting ALL corporations under the law. Fortunately, or unfortunately as the case may be, the Federal Reserve and the FEDERAL government, as established in Washington D.C., ARE corporations. In fact, they are in most instances, as with the Federal Reserve, PRIVATE CORPORATIONS.

So to reduce the GAIA example to its current denomination of choices—THE PHILIPPINES WILL DECIDE THE VALIDITY OR USE OF SAID DOCUMENTS AND ASSIGNMENTS. THAT “IS” the “SOVEREIGN” right.

Taken a step further in consideration, let us consider sovereign STATES possibly within a sovereign nation. The sovereign states have rights beyond the treated parties. Example: The Native American “states” or “nations” have invincible dominion over their own nation(s). Man himself is his own sovereign entity—but that has long since been usurped by those with FORCE through power.

I repeat: As in the case of GAIA transactions, THE SOVEREIGN NATION HAS THE RIGHT OF ACCEPTANCE OR DENIAL—AND ULTIMATELY THE STATE OR NATION MUST ANSWER TO THE CHOICE OF THE SOVEREIGN PEOPLE WHO SEND THEIR ELECTED “SERVANTS” INTO THE HALLS OF GOVERNANCE.

I doubt ANY of you sovereign bosses would allow such corrupt and evil-intended servants anywhere near your possessions, be that family or property.

LET US LOOK A MOMENT AT WARS

Can a major world war of such destruction as to stun the mind be averted? Even in such as the Philippines, which is in example here? Of course, if the U.S. simply accepts responsibility, even privately and silently and allows industrial prosperity to grow and thrive. Mr. Clinton has no RIGHT to “give” anything to anyone, including Mr. Estrada, because the property given is not Clinton’s in any way, shape or form. That is property of the sovereign citizens of the United States of America. Mr. Estrada actually got NOTHING but a pleasant few minutes with a SERVANT of the U.S. people who legally has NOTHING to offer. Neither, by the way, does the property belong to the Pentagon or military—both of which are property of and servants of the SOVEREIGN citizens of said nation.

With this in mind, what are the obligations of one President of the government of the Sovereign Philippines regarding either the GAIA offer or the gift from the U.S.? Well, he can accept the gift on BEHALF of the people of the Philippines and he can ALSO, on behalf of the Sovereign Nation or Republic of the Philippines, accept the assets as offered for sharing based on the debts accepted and placed into law as DEBT of the Sovereign United States of America.

Is this too complicated? Well, think on it for a while.

P.S.: Are there then not debts of the U.S. to the Sovereign people of the U.S. itself? INDEED! That was covered in a percentage of the distribution by the original holder of the asset—THROUGH THE VARIOUS STATES OF THE UNITED STATES.

Would negation of war, however, destroy the realization as planned of a Malthusian depopulation as orchestrated by such New World Order Elite Cabal? Yes, and that is what stops the positive allowance. IT TRULY IS A PARRY TO AVOID THE OBVIOUS:

A STRUGGLE BETWEEN EVIL AND GOOD. IT ALWAYS GOES BACK TO THE BIGGER ENTITIES CALLED SATAN AND GOD IN THE ENGLISH LANGUAGE.

... [Redacted: 'HOLOCAUST?!']

HOW DOES GOD WORK HIS MIRACLES?

Exactly as you have been told. HE DOES NOT INTERFERE! HE WILL "INTERVENE" IN SOME CIRCUMSTANCES WHERE PEOPLE PETITION SINCERELY FOR THAT INTERVENTION. THAT DOES NOT MEAN THAT HE WILL INTERVENE IN OVERALL WAR ON ONE SIDE OR THE OTHER AS IS ERRONEOUSLY PRESENTED BY WHICHEVER SIDE YOU HAPPEN TO FIND SELF. HE WILL INTERVENE WHEN PETITIONED FOR AN OUTCOME OF BASIC RIGHTEOUS INTENT. HE DOES NOT DO THE JOB FOR YOU; HE PROVIDES "THE WAY" AND "THE HOW" SO THAT, LITERALLY, "YOU" CAN ACCOMPLISH THAT WONDROUS "MIRACLE". THE PETITION HAS TO BE GREAT AND THE "INTENT" IN TRUTH. GOD NOW PROVIDES A MAJOR STEP IN THAT ACCOMPLISHMENT AND, AS ALWAYS, IT IS UP TO MAN TO USE OR DENY.

ELUSIVE REALIZATIONS?

Oh my, yes. We have centuries of willing messengers and bringers of truth to offer this "way". Over and over people have come together CLAIMING to wish to participate "any way I can". This sounds fine until one day they are led off into the confusion of the liars and thieves and turn upon their own—yea, even destroying the very resource itself.

Is this a new concept or reaction of mankind? Go read history and note for self.

SEAGULLS AND GRASSHOPPERS

There is a story of early Utah where one year there came a plague of locusts upon the land. The fields were being devastated by the swarms of locusts that blackened the landscape and were eating everything in their path. They were totally stripping all living things to their roots.

Ah, but came swarms of seagulls in massive flocks which fell upon the locusts and devoured them all. This story is true and monuments are evident to honor the salvation brought by the gulls themselves.

I wonder what would happen today as cities have replaced fields—would the armies of gun-toting squatters simply shoot all the birds for pooping on their sidewalks? Yes, it IS worth a thought or two. A man who has just washed his wondrous new car can't stand a sparrow or hummingbird pooping on his paint—much the less a flock of seagulls.

But then—which is more precious, a diamond or dew sparkling on a rose? Silly choice. If you are in the diamond business, there is no real choice of response so don't try to fool God as to immediate value of one against the other. An intelligent man will recognize the value of both. The whole is ultimately as simple as the food-chain itself. That also might require a bit of thoughtful meditation. However, if you cannot see the common meaning, you have a way yet to go, students. GCH

dharmā ❖

The Passion of St. George

Further to the study of "Who Is Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn?" carried elsewhere in this issue, the following excerpts from The Passion of St. George, translated from the works of E.A.W. Budge (1888), tell an astounding (some might say "incredible") tale of the martyrdom of the one known today as Gyeorgos Hatonn, "now" advanced to the etheric realms.

WHATSOEVER may have actually occurred with regard to St. George, there is not much room to doubt that he was, at the very least, incomparably "persistent" in standing against the heresy of his day. For some reason, the story of St. George has come into modern times as the story of a "dragon slayer", which is remarkable enough in its own right, but surely, surviving seven YEARS of torture and no less than THREE physical deaths should be of greater interest, you might think.

The following passages have not been selected on the basis of obscene gore but rather as an indication of the overwhelming PASSION and commitment to the truth of the one I am humbled to call "Heavenly Father".

It appears that this translation of the writings of Theodotus, which appears on the Internet in its entirety, should be credited to David Woods and for his efforts in sharing we give thanks and appreciation. Again, these are only EXCERPTS from a much longer piece. We will jump in at the point where Gyeorgos had challenged the "dragon" publicly, refusing to worship the Governor's multiple gods. [QUOTING:]

THE PASSION OF ST. GEORGE (BHO 320)

(Translation from E.A.W. Budge (1888))

... When Dadianus the governor heard these things he was greatly enraged, and he commanded them to strip off the clothes which he had on and to tie a girdle round his loins and to hang him upon the wooden horse and to torture him until his bones protruded through his skin. Now he was twenty-one years and three months old, and it was on the first day of the new moon of Pharmuthi that they began to torture the righteous man. And his holy body was disfigured with blood; but the blessed man bore such fearful sufferings as these with patience and fortitude. And they forced iron boots upon his feet and drove iron nails into them; and his blood flowed forth like water. And again they threw him upon his back, and laid a stone weighing six hundred pounds (?) upon his belly until it burst asunder and his bowels poured forth upon the ground. And they beat upon his head with iron-headed bars until his brains poured out through his nostrils white like milk. But he was of good cheer in all these sufferings, for Christ strengthened his soul within him. And again they brought iron knives the edges of which were like saws, and they sawed his flesh into threads with them; and Dadianus commanded them to bring salt and strong vinegar, and to pour them upon his wounds. Then he made them lacerate his body with hair bands until his bones protruded, and his flesh fell in pieces on the ground; but the blessed man did not die, for God strengthened his spirit within him. And they threw him upon a wooden bed, and they drove twenty nails through his body into the wooden bed; and they lifted him up senseless, and carried him into the prison. And multitudes of those who were standing by in those days wept for his beauty and his stature and his youth, saying to each other, "Alas for the beauty of this youth from Melitene, and the comeliness of his noble body which the lawless ones are destroying with fearful tortures, such as they have brought upon him this night." And when they had gone to their homes they spake to their wives and children, saying, "Verily we have to-day seen with our eyes in what manner and in what form ....."; and the whole city was talking about him that night.

And it came to pass that an angel of light appeared to him in prison in the middle of the night, and there was a great earthquake and the city was moved to its very foundations. And behold God came into the prison with thousands of his holy angels, and the whole place was filled with exceeding precious incense. And God called to Saint George, saying, "George, my beloved, rise up healed and without corruption, from the couch on which thou sleepest;" and he straightway leaped up without any pain in his body, and he was like one who had risen up from a royal feast. Then he cast himself down and worshipped the Lord, but He took him by the hand and raised him up, and saluted him lovingly, and laid His hand upon all his body, and filled him with strength, and said to him, "O beloved one, be strong and of good cheer, for I will be with thee until thou hast put to shame these lawless kings. I swear by Myself, O George My beloved, that as there has never arisen among those born of women one greater than John the Baptist, so there shall never be any one among the martyrs that can be compared with thee, or be like unto thee. And behold these seventy lawless kings shall torture thee for seven years, and thou shalt do many mighty deeds, and shalt die three times, and I will raise thee up again: but on the fourth time I will come to thee on a cloud of light with the celestial hosts and the Prophets and the Apostles and the holy Martyrs, and I will bring thee to the place of safe keeping which I have prepared for thee." When the Saviour had said these words to him, He gave him the salutation of peace and filled him full of joy; and He went up to heaven with His angels. And the blessed man was looking after Him and rejoicing greatly and blessing God until day-break by reason of the words which God had spoken to him. When it was morning, the lawless governor and those who were with him commanded that they should go into the prison and see if the righteous man was alive or not. When they opened the door of the prison they saw the saint standing up praying, and his face shone like the sun, and they marvelled greatly and ran and told the governor everything; and they commanded them to bring him up on the tribune. While they were bringing him the saint said, "My God, my God, hasten to me, O my God, why hast thou forsaken me, my God, haste thee to deliver me." When he had come to the tribune, he said, "O tribune, O tribune, I and my Lord Jesus Christ have come to thee and thy Apollo." And when the lawless ones saw him they marvelled, and said to him, "How is it that no harm has come to thee? and who has healed thee?" The righteous man said to them, O lawless ones, Ye are not worthy to hear with your profane ears the name of Him that has healed me." Then Dadianus was furious with rage, and commanded them to tie the saint to four high stakes and to give him four hundred lashes on his back, and after that to turn him round, and to give him four hundred lashes on his belly; and his lacerated flesh fell to the ground piece by piece and his blood ran like water. And Dadianus made them bring hot ashes and lay them on his body, and pour vinegar and naphtha over his flesh; and he caused eight soldiers and five military tribunes to watch over him in prison until the next day. Now the fire was kindling in the whole body of the blessed man, and he was in great suffering. And the Lord Jesus Christ saw his sufferings and that he was unable to speak at all, and came down from the summit of heaven and spake with him, saying, "I am strengthening thee, O My beloved George, stand forth from all thy sufferings and be of good cheer, for I am with thee." And the righteous man arose, and God laid His hand upon all his body and healed him, and He gave him the salutation of peace, and went up to heaven in glory and honour; and the blessed man sang psalms in prison until the morning. When the soldiers and the tribunes who were guarding him saw what had happened to the saint and that he was strong they marvelled and told the governors. Dadianus the governor said, "George is an arch-magician, but I will hear no more of him until I can bring an arch-magician more powerful than he." And he straightway sat down and wrote a rescript, saying, "Dadianus the governor writes to the whole world, greeting. Let any magician who has the power to put an end to the magic of the Christians come hither to me, and I will give him one hundred pounds of gold, and two hundred pieces of silver, and every sort of possession, and he shall be second in my kingdom;" and this rescript was read in every place. And behold there appeared before the governor a magician, whose name was Athanasius, saying, "O king, live for ever! Command this man called George to perform something before thee, and I will destroy his magic." Dadianus rejoiced greatly and said to the magician, "What thing wilt thou do in my presence that I may know that thou canst overcome the magic of this Christian?" Athanasius said to the governor, "Command them to bring me an ox;" and he commanded them to bring an ox. And Athanasius spoke some words into the ears of the ox, and he split asunder into two pieces. The governor laughed, and said, "Verily thou art able to vanquish the magic of the Christians." Athanasius said to the governor, "Let them bring me a pair of scales." And when they had brought them they threw the parts of the ox into the two pans of the scales, and they came out equal to one another. Then Dadianus the governor caused them to bring Saint George to him, and he said to him, "It is for thy sake that I have summoned this arch-magician into my kingdom; thou must either overcome his magic or he will overcome thine." Saint George said to the governor, "The Christian who has taken refuge in Christ never works magic, O impious one." And the saint said to the magician, "Hasten, my son, and what thou desirest to do unto me, do speedily; for I see that the grace of God has drawn nigh unto thee." Then Athanasius took a cup and filled it by his magic, and invoked the powerful names of demons over it, and gave it to Saint George to drink; and when he had drunk it no evil happened to him at all. Athanasius said, "O George, I will give thee another cup, and if no evil happens to thee I myself will believe on thy God." And Athanasius the Magician took the cup and pronounced the names of demons more evil than the first over it, and gave it to the righteous man; and he drank it, and no evil happened to him at all. Then Athanasius threw himself down at the feet of the saint, and said to him, "I conjure thee by Jesus Christ to give me the sign of the cross of Jesus Whom thou servest that He may open to me the kingdom of heaven." When the holy martyr saw his faith, he struck the earth with his foot, and there welled up a stream of water filled with an exceeding precious odour. And the blessed man prayed quietly, and Thomas the Apostle came and baptized Athanasius the magician in the name of the Father and the Son and the Holy Ghost, and he obtained the remission of his sins. And the Apostle gave them the salutation of peace secretly and him himself from them; and straightway the fountain of water returned to its place. When the governor and those that were with him saw what had happened they were silent and marvelled. And Athanasius cried out before the governor, and said, "I am a Christian, and I thank God and his servant George, that He hath numbered me—the workman of the eleventh hour—among His servants, and I hope that His mercy will receive me through the prayer of George the holy and mighty martyr." And the lawless governors were enraged, and they commanded that Athanasius should be taken outside the city and have his head cut off with the sword: so he consummated his martyrdom on the 23rd of the month Tobi, on the Sabbath day; may his holy blessing be with us all for ever and ever, Amen.

And the righteous man turned to the governor, and said to him, "Do unto me whatsoever thou pleasest." The governor answered, "By the gods, O George, I will make an end of thee." And he made them gather together workmen and materials (?) to make an exceeding high wheel, and he made them fix in it one hundred sword blades, each a cubit long, and they filled it entirely with very sharp iron knives, and drove deadly iron spikes and hooks into the flat part of the rim of the wheel. And he caused two flat tables to be made [beneath] the wheel having parts filled with spear heads and nails, and parts filled with cooking knives having edges like saws; and there were two poles of olive wood which fitted into cavities, and twenty men worked each pole [to turn the wheel]. Then Dadianus commanded them to bring the blessed man to him, and when they had brought him, he said, "Behold, George, if thou wilt worship Apollo thou shalt receive a sceptre of royalty from me; but if thou wilt still belong to Christ then look upon this machine which I have made, and into which I will cast thee in order to put thy body to the test, O thou valiant soldier!" The saint said, "I belong to Christ; do unto me whatsoever thou wishest." Then Dadianus commanded them to put him on the wheel and that forty men should make it revolve. When the blessed man saw the instrument of torture which was fixed in the wheel, he feared for himself because he carried flesh which was exceedingly tender; and he said within himself, "I shall not escape with my life this time." Then he straightway spread out his hands and prayed, saying, "I praise Thee, O my Lord Jesus Christ, and I give thanks unto Thee that Thou hast esteemed me worthy of the wonderfulness of healthful sufferings, even as they crucified Thee, my Lord, upon the cross and set Thee between two thieves. And behold they have made a double tearing wheel of torture for me for Thy holy name's sake, O my Lord; Harken now, O Saviour, to Thy servant George. O thou Being unsurpassed from all time, O Thou unchanging crown of the martyrs, Who hast spread out the heavens like a chamber, Who in wisdom pourest out dew upon all creation when it is parched and dried up; Who hast made the clouds drop down rain upon the earth, on the just and unjust alike; Who hast weighed the mountains and hills in a measure and scales; Who hast rebuked the disobedient, wicked, and lawless ones and hast cast them into the lowest and darkest part of Amenti, where they now are in the bonds and fire of Amenti and are tortured by wicked dragons, rebuke, O my God, all these impious ones, and let nothing stand against Thy command! O Thou Who in the last days didst appear to us upon earth and didst take flesh through the God-bearer, Mary the Virgin, by an unfathomable and unknowable mystery; the true offspring [of God]; Who didst walk upon the waves of the sea and Whose feet were not wetted by them; Who with fives loaves of bread didst feed five thousand men, and they were satisfied; Who didst rebuke the sea and the waves and they subsided everywhere, and were obedient upon Thee, for all creation is Thine; let now Thy mercy come upon us and upon me, Thy servant George, for with Thee there is mercy, and to Thee and to Thy Good Father and to the Holy Spirit belongeth the glory for ever. Amen."

When he had said, "Amen", they threw him on the wheel and he fell down upon the cutting machine, and they dragged him over it once, and he was speedily put an end to; and his bones and his flesh were destroyed. Then the tyrant cried out before the governors who were round about him, and said, "There is no god save Apollo and Hermes and Zeus and Herakles and Athene and Scamandros and Poseidon; these are they who have established the heavens, who give dominion to kings and who make the mighty to have power upon earth. Where is now St. George's god, whom the magistrates of the Jews slew? Why has he not come to deliver him out of my hands?" And Dadianus commanded them to take the fragments of his bones and flesh, and the earth which had drunk his holy blood, and to throw them into a dry, waterless pit; and they piled up dirt over it, saying, "Lest the Christians find a fragment of his body, and work miracles therewith." And Dadianus and the sixty-nine governors arose, and went in to eat, rejoicing that they had overcome their enemy.

Then straightway the whole air became black and the sky was covered with clouds, and there were thunders and lightnings, and the whole earth shook to its foundations. And the holy archangel Michael blew with his trumpet, and the Lord came upon a chariot of the Cherubim with thousands of angels, and stood by the pit. And the Lord said to Michael, "Speak unto this pit, saying, 'Give me the blood and the bones and the flesh and the pieces of the righteous man George'; for he said, 'I shall not escape with my life this time', that he may understand with all his heart that I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob;" and Michael laid them before Him. And the Lord took the bones in His hand, saying, "O my son George, the hand which fashioned Adam is now about to fashion thee, my beloved." And He breathed into him and gave him the breath of life; and Saint George arose from the dead; and the Lord embraced him and gave him the salutation of peace, and went up to heaven; and Saint George was looking after Him.

And he arose and came to the lawless governors and the soldiers who had thrown him into the pit, and said to them, "Know, O lawless ones, that I am George whom ye slew and cast into the pit." When the impious Dadianus had considered him, he said to the soldiers, "It is his shade." Magnentius the governor of Armenia said, "It is not his shade, but it is like him." Anatolius the general said to them, "Are ye not ashamed, O godless ones, to hide the truth? Verily this is George, the servant of the living God, whom my Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of the living God, has raised up from the dead; and therefore I, and all the soldiers who march with me, believe on my Lord Jesus Christ." Then the impious Dadianus was enraged and commanded them to take them outside the city, and to divide them into ten parts, and to slay them with the sword. In this manner they consummated their martyrdom on the twenty-third day of the month Mechir, and received their incorruptible crowns. Now there were martyred three thousand soldiers and Anatolius the general and nine thousand people of the multitude who were standing by, male and female, and Saint George stood by comforting them all until they had nobly consummated their martyrdom: may their holy blessing be with us all for ever, Amen.

After these things Dadianus commanded them to throw him on to an iron bed and to fasten him to it by stakes driven through his back. Then he made them fill a brazen vessel with lead and heat it until the lead was as liquid as water, and he made them open the mouth of the Saint and pour it boiling hot into his belly; but no harm happened to him. Then the impious one commanded them to pull the stakes out of his body and to hang him up, head downwards, from the branch of a tree, and to tie a stone to his neck: and he passed ten days and ten nights hanging down until his blood ran out of his nose like water. When ten days had gone by Dadianus the tyrant took him down, and there was a little breath left in him. And he made them lay him upon the ground and hack his body with a sword from the sole of his foot to the crown of his head; and they hacked him to pieces. Then he made them beat his head with hatchets until it split asunder, and they cut off the top of his head and his legs with axes. And he made them bring a large red-hot iron rod and thrust it through his right ear, and some servants came and drove it through his head until it came out on the other side: and they lifted him up like one dead to carry him to the prison. Now the righteous man was in prison, and was suffering great pain by reason of the tortures of his holy body, and at the third hour of the night when the holy man was in agony the Lord Jesus Christ came to him in prison with His holy angels, and the whole prison was full of light. And the Lord said to him, "George, behold, I command thee to arise and stand upon thy feet healed;" and he straightway arose, and he was whole. And the Lord embraced him, and laid His hand upon his whole body, and filled him with comfort, and said to him, "Arise and go to these impious governors and put them and their gods to shame; be of good cheer and fear not, for I am with thee always. And I say unto thee, O beloved George, that there shall be joy in heaven over thy endurance, and the angels shall rejoice over thy good fight. Behold now thou shalt endure the tortures of these impious governors for six years, and shalt die [thrice]; but the third time I Myself will come with My holy angels and will receive thy soul, and will make thee to lie down in the bosom of Abraham and Isaac and Jacobin the Paradise of their joy;" and when the Lord had spoken these things to him, He gave him the salutation of peace and went up to heaven in glory, and Saint George was looking after Him. And he passed the whole night in prayer until the day broke.

... And the lawless governor commanded them to put Saint George upon a brass bed and he made them bring two iron nails, each a cubit long, and make them red hot and drive them through his two shoulders into the bed. Then he made them bring an artificer to split his head open with an iron axe, and he made them pour boiling pitch through the opening until it filled his body and ran out through his mouth (?) and ears and from under him. And immediately the fire kindled in his head and in all his body he became as a dead man. And they drew the nails out of his shoulders and cast him into a brass "ox", and they heated the "ox" which the blessed man was in for three days with vine and cypress wood. And the Lord looked upon the sufferings of the righteous man and came to him upon a cloud, and extinguished the fire under him, and healed all his body; and the brazen "ox" split asunder. And the blessed George came forth like one who had been bathing in a bath, and the Lord embraced him, and filled him with strength, and gave him the salutation of peace, and went up to heaven in glory; and Saint George was looking after him. Then the blessed man stood up before the governors without any blemish upon him. And when the multitude saw what had happened they cried out, "One is the God of George, O Jesus Christ, help us." Then the governors caused the multitude which stood round about them to be beheaded with the sword: thus five thousand souls consummated their martyrdom and received the crown of life on the tenth day of Phamenoth. And the holy man was encouraging them until they consummated their martyrdom in the peace of God, Amen.

After these things the governors commanded them to bring bundles of thick vine stakes which they sharpened with knives, and when they had set the righteous man upon a stone, they stuck them into his holy body, and they gashed his thighs, and stuck them in them. then they pulled out the nails of his hands and feet, and pricked the places with the sticks, moreover the attendants thrust two sharp sticks up his nostrils into his head. Then they rolled him on the stone and the sticks went into his holy body until his blood ran down upon the ground like a stream of water; and the righteous man suffered greatly during this torture. And then he made them fasten him by his back to a plank of wood and put another plank on his belly, and they nailed the two planks together and so held the saint fast between them; and they brought a huge iron saw and sawed him in two from his head to his feet; so he gave up the ghost. And immediately the governors saw he was dead they commanded a large brass cauldron to be brought, and the body of the saint with his blood and all his flesh and anything of it that had adhered to the sticks and the teeth of the saw to be thrown into. Then they threw lead and asphalt and pitch (?) into it until the flames mounted up to a height of more than fifteen cubits. Now the cauldron was placed in a pit dug in the earth to the depth of thirty cubits. And the governors commanded them to pile up earth over the cauldron and the pit to the height of nine cubits, and they built a fortress for the governors over the pit, saying, "That the Christians may not find the least particle of one of his limbs, or they will build a martyrrium over it." And when the attendants were going away, behold there was a great trembling in the air, the sun became dark and the stars appeared at mid-day; and the Lord came down from heaven with thousands of angels, and the choirs of the saints, and the twelve Apostles were with them and David the king and all the Prophets. Now the whole place was filed with so great a light that all those coming into the city, and even the impious governors, saw the light which fell full upon their faces. And the Lord came to the place where the cauldron was and commanded the archangel Gabriel to cleave the earth and to bring up the cauldron. then the Lord cried out over the ashes of the bones of the righteous man that were in the cauldron, saying, "George, George, I am the God who raised Lazarus from the dead, and I now command thee to stand up and come forth from the cauldron;" and the righteous man arose straightway and stood up perfect without any defect in him at all. And the Lord embraced him and filled him with power and consolation, saying, "O George, My beloved, be strong and endure; for I have established a throne for thee in the heavenly Jerusalem, the like of which there is not among the thrones of all the martyrs which have been from the beginning; and there shall never be like unto thee among those who are yet to come, O George, My beloved." And all the multitude of the Prophets and of the Apostles came forward and saluted him, and said to him, "Verily, thou art blessed, O George, the beloved of God and His angel and of the Cherubim and the Seraphim, and we glorify ourselves in thee and in thy great endurance, and especially because thyself alone hast confessed the name of God in boldness throughout the whole world and the fulness thereof: for this reason our Savior will confess thee in heaven, and thou shalt dwell in unspeakable glory before the face of the whole creation of heaven and earth." And he was filled with joy, and the Lord gave him the salutation of peace, and He went up to heaven with His angels and all His saints in great honour and glory.

And the blessed man came into the theatre of the city with his face full of light, and he cried out, saying, "O all ye governors, and ye that are with them, O all ye soldiers and every person in this city, come forth all of you and look upon me, for, by the might of God, I am alive. I am the Galilean George from Melitene; I am he whom the godless governors slew and buried in the earth; but my Lord Jesus Christ raised me up from the dead, for He is the God of heaven and earth." When the multitude knew that it was George they cried out, saying, "There is no God in heaven or earth except Jesus Christ the God of George of Melitene."

And a certain woman among the multitude whose name was Scholastike, who saw the miracle which had taken place, believed and cried out to the martyr, saying, "O my Lord George, my son was yoking his ox to plough in the fields when it fell down and died; and now, O my lord, help us, for we are poor." The righteous man said to her, "Take this little stick which I now hold in my hand, and go to the field and lay it upon the ox, saying, "George, the servant of the Lord God says, Rise up, O ox, from the dead;" and she did as Saint George had told her, and the ox lived. And she glorified God, and continued with Saint George.

Now there was a multitude of people standing round Saint George who was teaching them the knowledge of Christ; and they cried out, "One is the God of Saint George the valiant soldier of Christ the King." The governors said to the soldiers, "What are these loud cries which we hear?" and a soldier said to them, "It is for Saint George who has risen from the dead, and the multitude cried out, believing that his God had raised him from the dead." When the governors heard that George was alive again they were wholly stupefied and feared greatly; and they said to each other, "Perhaps it is not he." The soldiers said, "Behold we will bring him to you that ye may know of a certainty that he is George the soldier." And they brought the saint to the throne with the whole multitude following after him and crying out, "We are Christians boldly;" and they cursed the governors, and were enraged at them.

[END QUOTING]

For the rest of the story, see: www.ucc.ie/milmart/George.html

Your Support Is Both Needed & Appreciated

It is “crunch time” again and I must once more ask for financial contributions to sustain this work. With the current state of affairs we have NO subscribers and NO revenue base at all from which to work, only expenses which mount as we oppose, legally, to the extent we can, the great errors thrust upon us.

If “all” you can afford is an extra prayer for all your relations, that is “all” that is needed from you!

Seven years ago, GCH wrote: “...[G]oodness usually costs everything of considered value in the material world—to accomplish abundance and achievement of the very things you thought you lost. When you change your focus—you change the world.”

We are “there”. All that remains is for you to choose the role you will play in the outworking of the Divine Plan. For my part, I will continue to contribute 100% of my life energies to “The Mission” as put forth by Commander Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn through his scribe, “Dharma”.

Sincerely,

Ronald W. Kirzinger
President and Director
CONTACT, INC.
PHOENIX SOURCE DISTRIBUTORS, INC.
(702) 940-9858

Phoenix Source Online

Service@PhoenixSourceDistributors.com

www.PhoenixSourceDistributors.com

-Published and unpublished Journals

- CONTACT back-issues

FAIR USE NOTICE:

This News Review contains excerpts of copyrighted material intended to advance understanding of environmental, political, human rights, economic, scientific and social justice issues. Such use is considered ‘fair use’, exempt from copyright laws as provided for in Title 17, Ch. 1, Section 107 of the U.S. Code.

(702) 940-9858

Phoenix Source Distributors

Please note:

Temporarily, at least, all inquiries should be routed through THE GOODLY COMPANY in Las Vegas, Nevada at the telephone number provided above. We apologize for any inconvenience but fully expect to re-establish a correct working relationship through our order center in Tehachapi, California in short order.

For some 7 years over 100 Phoenix Journals were withheld from the public domain never having been published. We acknowledge Dr. Overholt for his efforts in collating the writings of Commander Hatonn into Journal format and are pleased to now be able to offer these Journals “as-is” until such time as others can apply the finishing touches (titles, indexing, etc.)

Free Download at:

www.PhoenixSourceDistributors.com

For the latest News on the

‘DivinePlan’

unfolding from the Philippines:

www.GlobalAllianceAssn.com

www.TallanoFdn.com

I can blow a bit of wind beneath your wings but to soar, my friends, you must do so with your own wings lest it only be “my” flight. When you want to fly badly enough—you shall.—GCH 8/10/00 (13-359)